

LOSS OF VOICE
After Acute Bronchitis
CURED BY USING
AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

A PREACHER'S EXPERIENCE.

"Three months ago, I took a violent cold which resulted in an attack of acute bronchitis. I put myself under medical treatment, and at the end of two months was no better. I found it very difficult to preach, and concluded to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The first bottle gave me great relief; the second, which I am now taking, has relieved me almost entirely of all unpleasant symptoms, and I feel sure that one or two bottles more will effect a permanent cure. To all ministers suffering from throat troubles, I recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—E. M. BRAWLEY, D. D., Dist. Secretary, Am. Bapt. Publication Society, Petersburg, Va.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Lark Lamb of Mosier is in town today.

Justice A. J. Brigham of Dufur is in the city.

Mr. R. R. Hinton is in town from Bakeoven.

Rev. W. C. Curtis went to Portland on this afternoon's train.

Mrs. Malcolm McInnis is confined to her bed by a severe illness.

Mr. James Wilson commenced his duties this morning as traveling agent for the S. B. company, Dufur.

Mr. C. W. Johnson, of E. J. Collins & Co., left today for Goldendale for a week's absence among friends and relatives.

H. D. McGinn, state fish and game protector, returned to Portland this morning, after spending a day in The Dalles.

Mr. Robert Mays returned from Tygh Valley this morning. The grass is growing vigorously in that section of country and stock are consequently doing well.

The Experience Social.

A very entertaining event was the experience social at the Christian church last evening, at which over one hundred persons were present. Besides a short program of music and recitations, the novel feature of shadow pantomime, with well-known Dalles ladies as the actors, was most important in point of interest. The lights being turned low in the auditorium, the shadows were made very plain on a white surface about twelve feet square in front of the chapel of the church and at the rear of the stage. The several experiences of each lady earning her dollar were acted out, and created great amusement. Mrs. Hazel earned a dollar by painting, as was easily seen by the outline of that lady rapidly sketching upon an easel. It did not take a shrewd guesser either to learn that Mrs. Baird baked a dollar's worth of bread and that Mrs. Andrews ironed for the amount. Mrs. James made butter, and the way she handled the churn dasher and butter paddle proved fully her thorough information on this important line of housewifery. Mrs. Ulrich chose the hardest way of them all, that of washing. Mrs. Dufur chose the less arduous task of crocheting. The most pleasing experience shown was that of little Genevieve Watkins, who blacked boots. The task finished, a huge hand went down into a trousers pocket, bringing with it the pay for the service rendered, and acknowledged by a graceful courtesy by the little miss.

The remainder of the program included instrumental music by the Misses Stone, recitation by Miss Schooling, quartette, Misses Edna and Etta Stone, Dr. G. C. Eshelman and Rev. I. N. Hazel, and a selection from Pickwick papers by Geo. Ernest Stewart. The proceeds for the evening amounted to $25.

A grand opening will occur at the Germania this evening. Mr. Birgfeld, the proprietor, has issued a number of invitations and has made elaborate preparations for the entertainment of his guests. A fine lunch will be prepared and the celebrated Gambrinus beer of Portland will be found on draught. The Germania will be conducted as a strictly first-class resort.

San Francisco's Strangler.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12.—The police are inclined to believe that there is a strangler in this city whose ambition or mania is to equal or possibly eclipse the record of London's Jack the Ripper, who in the course of a year or two murdered many fallen women and terrorized the entire Whitechapel district in that great metropolis. It seems as though such were the case for, within the last few days a young girl on Morton Street has been strangled to death by an unknown assassin, and several women in the same region have been beaten, stabbed and strangled. In each of the latter cases the assailant escaped without leaving a trace by which he could be detected.

The night prior to the murder of "Little May Smith," a man bearing the appearance of a thug entered the room of a young girl who had assumed the name of Lulu Tabar, on Morton street. After inquiring as to the amount of money the girl had on her person and receiving a reply favorable to him, he became exceedingly rough, tearing the girl's clothes from her person in an endeavor, it is presumed, to rob her. The girl ordered him into the street, but he refused to go, and again assailed her, but her cries and threats to call the police attracted the attention of the girls in rooms adjoining her, which evidently frightened him, as he made a hasty exit.

She Married an Indian.

A Lewiston paper records the marriage of a full blooded Indian to a white girl. This is perhaps the first instance of the kind in the history of that section of the country. The Indians are coming to the front upon the strength of their improved financial standing. The better class among the Indians scorn the idea of wedding a white man. A marriage with an ordinary white man would be regarded as a disgrace. The father of the groom in the event of last week realized the importance of the relationship with the white race. He remarked that his people were becoming civilized and cited the marriage of his son to a white girl as evidence in support of his position.

YOUNG SPIRITS,

a vigorous body and robust strength follow good health. But all fall when the vital powers are weakened. Nervous debility and loss of manly power result from bad habits, contracted by the young through ignorance of their ruinous consequences. Low spirits, melancholia, impaired memory, morose or irritable temper, fear of impending calamity and a thousand and one derangements of body and mind, result from such pernicious practices. All these are permanently cured by improved methods of treatment without the patient leaving home.

Geo. W. Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria "Times," Cal., in speaking of the various ailments of children said: "When my children have croup there is only one patent medicine I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medicinal properties that relieve the little sufferers immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market." If this remedy is freely given as soon as the croup cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an ideal remedy for whooping cough. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.
