ONE BURGLAR KILLED

Butler's Brave Defense of his Employer's Property.

HE, HIMSELF, BADLY WOUNDED

Physicians Unable to Tell Whether He Will Recover or Not—Is His Second Experience.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—Frank J. Miller, a butler in the house of J. L. Franklin, at 2930 California street, shot and killed a burglar this morning and was himself shot and wounded by a bur-glar. Three burglars were engaged in an attempt to loot the house.

John A. Anderson, the dead burglar, was left below to keep watch and the other two went up stairs. Miller, who sleeps in a small room in the basement, heard Anderson moving about the kitch-en, and went after him with a pistol. Anderson was also armed, and the men commenced firing at each other, each one firing four shots.

The noise of the shooting caused an officer to rush to the house where he found Miller unconscious and the bur-glar dead. Anderson was shot through the temple, and his dead body was found lying on top of Miller. The latter was shot through the neck. The other two burglars escaped.

Miller was too weak this morning to give any account of the shooting, but he said there were three burglars con-cerned.

Miller and Anderson evidently had a desperate struggle, as there was a great deal of blood on the floor. The other members of the household were aroused by the shooting, but by the time they reached the lower part of the house it was all over and they stumbled over the two bodies on the floor.

Physicians were sent for at once, and it was necessary to make a bed for Mil-ler just where he lay, as he was injured too seriously to move around much. It is supposed the other two burglars made their escape while the shooting was in progress.

One year ago a robbery was attempted in the same house, and the thieves, as in the present case, were discovered and driven off by Miller, but not until the latter had been kicked and beaten into insensibility. It is believed this morn-ing's robbery was by the same persons, as they showed great familiarity with the premises, having cut the electric light wires before beginning operations, thus leaving the house in total dark-ness.

Anderson was afterwards identified by the police. He was a native of Sweden and a sailor, and had served a term in San Quentin for burglary. In his pockets were found newspapers clippings referring to the street-car robbery at the Ingleside race track last December, and it is believed he was concerned in that.

TERRIBLE CHARGE.

Accused of Attempting to Assassinate His Entire Family.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—John Kochler is in jail in this city, accused of attempting to have an assassin kill his entire family. The alleged plot, it is claimed, was frus-trated by three men. These are John Meade, a miner in West Superior, Wis., a tramp by force of circumstances; Cap-tain Schuettler, of the Sheffield-avenue police station, and John Baumer, of the same station, who disguised himself as a tramp, and, it is said, was hired to com-mit the murder.

Kochler broke down when arrested and was so limp that officers had to carry him to a patrol wagon. He is an Alsatian and has amassed a small fortune in Chicago, where he has lived for 15 years. Four months ago he married Mrs. Frederika Tubbecke, who had, be-sides a handsome face and form, a four story brick house on Claybourne avenue, from which she derived a snug income by taking in boarders. Despite these things, the widow brought suit for $10,000 damages for breach of promise before Kochler married her. The suit was begun last summer. When at last the ceremony was performed, the wife, it is said, had the whip-hand and enforced, as a condition of the union, that in case of the death of either the combined property should revert to the survivor. The affections of the couple began to cool soon after marriage, and it was not a month before quarrels were frequent. Three young children of the wife by her first husband were the cause of many of the difficulties. The many deputies finally led to a separation, and then the plot to murder the woman and the children followed.

General Weyler's Plans.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—A dispatch from Havana says: It is learned, unofficially, that General Weyler will personally take the field very soon.

Captain-General Weyler's purpose is said to be to place his command between the armies of Gomez and Maceo, in the neighborhood of Quivan, and force one or both to give battle immediately.

Insurgents Defeated.

HAVANA, Feb. 14.—A dispatch from Santiago de Cuba says the insurgent leader Felix Denis has been killed in an engagement with the Spanish troops and 92 of his followers surrendered to the authorities.
