SECRETARY SCORED

For Refusing to Spend Appropriation for Seeds.

NOT A VOICE IN DEFENSE

Boatner's Remarks Arouse Enthusiasm—Congress Accused of Selling the Seeds.

Secretary Morton Scored.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The attack on Secretary Morton for his refusal to expend the appropriation for seeds in the present agricultural appropriation was transferred from the senate to the house today and furnished a feature of the proceedings in the lower house.

It was led by Baker and was supported by Moses, Livingston, Boatner and Meredith. Some very harsh things were said and applauded, especially by Boatner, who referred to Morton contemptuously as "that individual" and not a voice was raised in his defense.

Baker led in the attack on the secretary for refusing to use the seed appropriation in current law, the present bill appropriating $138,000 for seeds. "We will," he added "force Secretary Morton to either execute the law or abandon his office."

Boatner, however, aroused the greatest enthusiasm by his remarks. "The feature of Mr. Morton's actions which has aroused my indignation," said he, "more than any other is that it is based upon a sort of false pretense. As an antecedent to his decision that, under the terms of the law he was not authorized to expend the appropriation, there emanated from the agricultural department a report derogatory to the congress of the United States. It was that congressman have been guilty of selling seeds allotted to them for distribution. As a member of the fifty-first congress I present and denounce the imputation, that this body were addicted to sell the seeds which were allotted them for distribution, as an infamous slander. I believe that to abolish the system of distribution of seeds would be advantageous to members of congress. For every constituent who receives a package of seeds and who is gratified at the compliment, there are others dissatisfied because they have not likewise been favored. I am extremely tired of having this body brought into disgrace and contempt by the executive officers of the government."

Livingston said Morton was a servant of this house and he wanted him to know he had said it. "He must either obey this purpose or we will impeach him."

Nansen all O. K.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The British consul at Archangel, capital of the Russian province of that name—telegraphs confirming the report that Nansen is safe and is returning from the north pole.

Later advices say the first news of Nansen's safety was sent by Kandarcoff, a local Russian official, in the Yakutsk region, who was a member of Siberiakoff's expedition.

Dr. Nordenskjold, who is in Christiania, is inclined to believe the news of Nansen's safety at any rate, even if it is not true that he succeeded in discovering the north pole.

According to the opinion of Arctic experts here when the Fram left the Kari sea, in 1893, she may have found a sea to the northward free of ice, and, pushed on until locked in. She may then have been allowed to drift until the expedition came to land around the pole, and Nansen and his party may have returned in sledges to the Siberian islands.

"General" Kelley Again.

OMAHA, Feb. 16.—A new political party was born in Omaha last night. Two hundred laboring men organized it. "General" Kelly, of industrial army fame, presided. Following is the pledge:

"Recognizing the necessity of labor organizing for its protection, we, the undersigned, do pledge ourselves to support no political party other than the party of labor, and we hereby renounce any and all political affiliations with the Republican, Democratic and Populist parties."

A state and national organization will be pushed at once.

Caused By Gasoline.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 15.—The explosion of gasoline in the Pullman sleeper Wyndham about noon completely demolished the interior of the car, badly damaged the Pullman cars Gila and New England, and seriously injured Mrs. Laura Fass, aged 30; Sadie Conroy, 25, and James Richardson, the porter. The women were cleaning the carpets of the Wyndham with gasoline. By some means the gas ignited from the stove, and the explosion followed. The women and porter were seriously burned and cut. Miss Conroy will probably die.

Not Yet Found.

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 15.—No trace has been found of Mrs. A. B. Cody, who disappeared fifteen days ago, all clues having proven false. The water front will now be investigated for miles by a steam launch in search of her body, as the explosion of dynamite in the harbor failed to reveal it there. A settled belief exists now that she is dead. The whole coast has been searched for her by her husband, who came from Chicago when informed of her disappearance.

A Correction.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:—It was no error in saying that John Brookhouse's daughter, that died in Spokane, left a husband and four children. That they should call her Hagan, is most amazing, as her name ought to have been Creamer. John D. Hagan's death occurred eight years ago.

A SUBSCRIBER.

The Thursday Afternoon Club of Pendleton claims the honor of being the first new woman's club organized in Oregon. It will celebrate the end of the third year of its work this week.
