A PROPER USE OF WEALTH.

In yesterday's Oregonian a most remarkable statement was made in an editorial, where it was declared that the reason the charter for a certain secret society, asked for by students in the University of Chicago, was refused, was because scrupulous-minded persons desired to avoid fellowship with colleges like Chicago and Stanford Universities.

It is true that the methods by which Rockefeller and Stanford acquired their immense wealth are questioned by "scrupulous-minded persons;" but this being granted, the institutions which have been the recipients of their generous gifts are no less qualified to do a great and lasting work in showing bright boys and girls the boundless opportunities for advancing and doing good to the world, which the fields of knowledge present.

There seems a disposition among certain newspapers to view every incident from a bitter partisan standpoint. An illustration is found in the treatment given Senator Coggswell and the comments made upon the announcement of his determination to leave the Democratic party and support the principles of protection. Coggswell is not the highest type of statesmanship which even Oregon affords, but the most creditable act of his political career has been his latest. A man, no matter what his station and politics are, should be given credit for proper motives till the absence of them is clearly shown.

If there is any one thing that need to be purified, it is politics, so the reformer says, and many agree thereto. But blood tells, and as a blood purifier and liver corrector Simmons Liver Regulator is the best medicine. "I use it in preference to any other."—So wrote Mr. S. H. Hysell, of Middleport, Ohio. And Dr. D. S. Russell, of Farmville, Va., writes, "It fulfills all you promise for it."

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with result so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." For sale by Snipes-Kinersley, Drug Co.

Two Lives Saved. Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City Ill. was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which there are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of his medicine in Coughs and Colds. None But Ayer's at the World's Fair. Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed on exhibit at the world's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the world's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."

The exposure to all sorts and conditions of weather that a lumberman is called upon to endure in the camps often produces severe colds, which, if not promptly checked, result in congestion or pneumonia. Mr. J. O. Davenport, ex manager of the Fort Bragg Redwood Co., an immense institution at Fort Bragg, Cal., says they sell large quantities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at the company's store and that he has himself used this remedy for a severe cold and obtained immediate relief. This medicine prevents any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia and insures a prompt recovery. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.

In a recent editorial the Salem, Or., Independent says: "Time and again have we seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy tried and never without the most satisfactory results. Whenever we see a person afflicted with hoarseness, with a cough or cold, we invariably advise them to get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy; and when they do, they never regret it. It always does the work, and does it well." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.
