

LOSS OF VOICE After Acute Bronchitis CURED BY USING AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

A PREACHER'S EXPERIENCE.

"Three months ago, I took a violent cold which resulted in an attack of acute bronchitis. I put myself under medical treatment, and at the end of two months was no better. I found it very difficult to preach, and concluded to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The first bottle gave me great relief; the second, which I am now taking, has relieved me almost entirely of all unpleasant symptoms, and I feel sure that one or two bottles more will effect a permanent cure. To all ministers suffering from throat troubles, I recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—E. M. BRAWLEY, D. D., Dist. Secretary, Am. Bapt. Publication Society, Petersburg, Va.

PULPITS AND PEWS.

The Christian church was filled to overflowing last evening with those who came to hear Rev. I. H. Hazel in his interesting series of sermons on Revelations. He finds no difficulty in interpreting the wonderful symbols of that most perplexing book of the Bible, and gives them a meaning most significant in the light of history. His text last evening was "Sealing the 144,000," referring to the twelve tribes of Judea of 12,000 each. The Roman Catholic church contended, according to the speaker, that the sealing was done with holy water by the index finger of the priest upon the foreheads of those composing the tribes, but he believed the sealing was not done in so material a manner, but that the spirit was sealed for God through a more convincing process. The angels, who held the four winds, standing at the four corners of the earth were four great earthly powers, who became subject to the angel rising from the sunrise. Constantine was this angel, or messenger, as the literal meaning is, who by conquering the four great powers, had control over the four angels.

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. O. D. Taylor at the First Baptist church, took for his theme, "The light of the glory in the face of Jesus Christ," from II Cor. iv:6, following with "And they shall see His face." Rev. xxii:4. Not only with Jesus Christ, the fullness of the Godhead, but he had a moral character of his own. A part of the joy of friendship is the presence of one's friend. And so David said: "In Thy presence is fullness of joy and at Thy right hand there are pleasures forevermore." The greatest joy of Heaven to the Christian will be to behold His face. Not by the eye of faith, as now, he shall look upon his Lord, but when he shall see Him eye to eye and face to face. In His face we shall behold first the glory of His infinite love, second, the glory of His infinite grace, third, the glory of the perfect sacrifices. His body also shall bear the marks of this sacrifice.

"Five bleeding wounds He bears, Received on Calvary."

Fourth, the glory of unselfish service, fifth, the glory of the finished redemption, and lastly, the glory of His victory over death, hell and the grave. In His earthly life He perfected all these moral characteristics and they belong to His personality and will appear in the glory of His countenance when he comes from the throne of his glory, when he comes to receive His own. Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be, but this we know, that when He shall appear we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is.

METHODIST CHURCH.

A union service was held at the M. E. church at 7:30 p. m. The rostrum was occupied by Rev. J. H. Wood, Rev. W. C. Curtis and Rev. Ritzler, agent of the American Bible Society. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Ritzler, and partook more of the character of a lecture.

He spoke chiefly of the work of the American Bible Society, a work in which all Protestant churches are interested alike. The text was taken from Nehemiah, "And the work is great and large." Sixty million Bibles have already been distributed by this society, printed in over 200 different languages and dialects. The work is spread over the whole earth, the sun in its course shining upon assemblies all studying the same lesson from Bibles furnished by this society. He considered the society was, more nearly than any other, following the divine injunction to go and preach the word to all nations. The sermon was illustrated and made plain by anecdotes and experiences, which cover a wide range with Mr. Ritzler. Miss Myrtle Michell sang the beautiful solo, "In Heavenly Love Abiding."

THE ONWARD MARCH

of Consumption is stopped short by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. If you haven't waited beyond reason, there's complete recovery and cure. Although by many believed to be incurable, there is the evidence of hundreds of living witnesses to the fact that, in all its earlier stages, consumption is a curable disease. Not every case, but a large percentage of cases, and we believe, fully 98 per cent, are cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, even after the disease has progressed so far as to induce repeated bleedings from the lungs, severe lingering cough with copious expectoration (including tubercular matter), great loss of flesh and extreme emaciation and weakness.

Do you doubt that hundreds of such cases reported to us as cured by "Golden Medical Discovery" were genuine cases of that dread and fatal disease? You need not take our word for it. They have, in nearly every instance, been so pronounced by the best and most experienced home physicians, who have no interest whatever in misrepresenting them, and who were often strongly prejudiced and advised against a trial of "Golden Medical Discovery," but who have been forced to confess that it surpasses, in curative power over this fatal malady, all other medicines with which they are acquainted. Nasty cod-liver oil and its filthy "emulsions" and mixtures, had been tried in nearly all these cases and had either utterly failed to benefit, or had only seemed to benefit a little for a short time. Extract of malt, whiskey, and various preparations of the hypophosphites had also been faithfully tried in vain. The photographs of a large number of those cured of consumption, bronchitis, lingering coughs, asthma, chronic nasal catarrh and kindred maladies, have been skillfully reproduced in a book of 150 pages which will be mailed to you, on receipt of address and six cents in stamps. You can then write those cured and learn their experience. Address: WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.
