

THE BEST FAMILY MEDICINE
She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled."

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known. — Mrs. MARY JOHNSON, 338 Rider Avenue, New York City.

Gow Chow's Perplexity.

When Gow Chow was brought up for sentence he created a most amusing scene. The process of American law courts is something beyond the Celestial's grasp. He thought it was all right and regular to be led to the bar by his queue and made no demur. He raised both hands while hearing his doom, his knees bent inwardly from agitation, and his face wore a woebegone expression ludicrous in the extreme. The sentence was a fine of $50, which was paid by his attorney, and he was told to go. He started, but was plainly afraid to make any decided motion when the clerk thundered: "Go on." Thus encouraged, he walked a few steps, but again fearing a trap turned to the judge and stopped. He was waved onward and thus by stages left the court room. On the steps he met Jailer FitzGerald coming up, and Gow thought there was another peril. He commenced to tell the jailer in Chinese how it was, but Mr. FitzGerald could not or would not understand, and told the Chinese to "gwan," and still jabbering, he left the scene of his incarceration, trial and discharge behind him.

The next time Sergt. Willard and Detective Wells attempt to "josh" any little girls they will wait until no one else is around. The other afternoon Chief Rogers, Detectives Phillips, Wells and Phibrick, Jailer Peer and Clerk Reed were on the front porch of headquarters, when a little girl, not more than six years of age, stood on the sidewalk below listening to the conversation. "Hello, little one, what are you 'rubber-necking' there for?" said Willard. "Yes," added Wells, "take the rubber out of your neck and go along." With a look of scorn, mingled with one of amusement, the little one said, pointing first to Wells and then to Willard: "If I had the rubber out of your neck and the wheels out of that fellow's head I could make a bicycle and ride away." With this quick retort the young miss walked away with a self-satisfied grin on her pretty face, amid peals of laughter from the chief and other listeners.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Geo. W. Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria "Times," Cal., in speaking of the various ailments of children said:

"When my children have croup there is only one patent medicine I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medic properties that relieve the little sufferers immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market." If this remedy is freely given as soon as the croup cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an ideal remedy for whooping cough. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address:
