HAS WEYLER RESIGNED

A Rumor to That Effect is Current.

IT IS DENIED AT THE PALACE

Nevertheless It is Generally Believed in Havana—Premier Canovas' Statement.

NEW YORK, March 3.—A special to the Herald from Havana says:

The startling rumor that General Weyler had resigned swept like wildfire through Havana, originating from an apparently worthy source. It was, however, promptly denied at the palace.

When Martinez de Campos retired his reported resignation was also denied in Havana, in official circles, up to the last hour.

THE SPANISH PREMIER.

He Expresses His Opinion in an Interview.

NEW YORK, March 3.—A special to the Herald from Madrid says:

Premier Canovas last night made the following statement: "I cannot understand how some people in the United States have got it into their minds that we, or rather General Weyler, is carrying on war in Cuba on inhuman lines. It is all false, nothing more than a tissue of falsehood. I venture to state that up to the present no American consul has been able to notify his government of a single instance of cruelty on Weyler's part, for the simple reason that no such thing occurs."

"As a matter of fact, I have given the most stringent orders that Weyler is to be most human. No inhumanities or cruelties have been perpetrated at all. The latter are all the imagination of friends of Cuba in the United States. Look at General Weyler's proclamation. It is nothing more than what obtains between civilized nations when at war with one another, as for instance, in the Franco-German war. As a matter of fact, the Germans shot spies because the latter did not carry on the war as recognized on acknowledged lines; that is, by fighting face to face with the enemy. As is natural, we do the same with spies in Cuba, simply because the latter do not fight according to the maxims of war as it is recognized by civilized nations. Is there any cruelties in this? It is, I admit, inhuman, but then, all warfare is inhuman."

"Then, again, I read of the sympathy expressed by United States senators for poor Cuban insurgents. How ridiculous! And how about the poor white inhabitants of Cuba, Spanish subjects, whose whole interests are bound up in the island? Is there no sympathy for them? Surely the latter deserve it more than the former."

"I consider Spain has been grossly calumniated, and I venture to think that the self-respecting, nonjingo portion of the United States electorate are of the same opinion."

"You see yourself what stringent measures I have adopted to protect the persons of representatives of friendly powers in Madrid, and, indeed, throughout Spain. I will not allow any disturbance of public peace, because I feel convinced that, in spite of what has occurred, the practical portion of the community of the United States will recognize the impossibility of recognizing the Cuban insurgents as belligerents. The indignation throughout Spain is immense, but I shall keep it in bounds. Today the civil guard in Barcelona charged a crowd of students. The civil guard did well, because I gave orders that there was to be no disturbance of the public peace."

STRONGLY OPPOSES IT.

President Does Not Favor Recognition of the Cubans.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The president and his cabinet undoubtedly are strongly opposed to the present recognition of the belligerency of the Cuban insurgents, and to any declaration concerning their independence as embodied in the recent congressional resolutions. The following is not an official statement, but it is known from careful inquiry that it accurately represents the administration's views of the matter.

While the president and members of the cabinet personally feel the sympathy, common to all Americans, with the Cubans who are contending for self government, they feel that in their official action they should not depart from the well-settled principles which were followed by former presidents and secretaries of state during prior insurrections in Cuba.

These were clearly set forth by General Grant in his message of 1875, in which he dealt with the question of the recognition of Cuban independence and also with that of the recognition of belligerency.

CULLOM INDORSED.

His Presidential Aspirations Announced in Convention.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 2.—The republican county convention last night adopted resolutions indorsing Shelby M. Cullom, for president of the United States. Hon. David M. Littler, who presided at the convention, announced that he was authorized to say that Cullom was a candidate for president. The 20 delegates were instructed for Cullom for president. McKinley received but two votes out of 155 in the convention, but when Horace Clark, of Mattoon, candidate for governor, addressed the convention, the name of McKinley was received with cheering as well as that of Cullom.

A sensation was created by the speech of Joseph A. Drake, a young colored lawyer, who was defeated for representative. He declared that the negro must receive recognition from republicans; that they were aroused from Cairo to Chicago, and that if they were not accorded proper recognition, they would be heard from in November. Other nationalities had obtained recognition from the republicans, and the negroes, who wield an enormous vote in the republican party, must also be recognized.
