THE ITALIAN CABINET

Ministers Have Sent in Their Resignations.

THE KING HAS ACCEPTED THEM

Steps Being Taken to Form a New Cabinet—Latest News From Cuba.

ROME, March 5.—The official and private residences of the cabinet ministers, the royal palace, the embassies and all important public buildings here were guarded by troops throughout the night, and the soldiers were still on duty this morning.

In spite of the strong force of troops and police about the chamber of deputies today it was with difficulty that order was maintained. The soldiers and police were frequently jostled by the excited populace, and had it not been for the great forbearance displayed by the authorities, many disturbances would have occurred. The crowds about Monte Citorio, upon which the chamber of deputies stands, now and again raised the cry "Down with the government!" "Death to Barateri!" and from the galleries a number of persons were ejected by the police for uttering similar cries.

Almost immediately after the appearance of the premier, who was greeted by cheering by some of his supporters, and by cries of derision from his opponents, he announced that the cabinet had resigned and the king accepted its resignation. The announcement was followed by cheers, which were taken up by the crowds outside, and echoed far and wide. Some moments elapsed before the cheering subsided, and even then the excited shouts of the leftists continued for a time.

Crispi gazed calmly upon the shouting deputies, as if such a demonstration was quite an ordinary occurrence, and when again able to make himself heard, added: "The ministers will remain at their posts until their successors are appointed."

More cheers and shouts of disapproval followed, after which the president of the chamber asked the house to adjourn until the crown had decided upon the successors of the ministers. The leftists raised a storm of protest against the proposition, saying the government should be impeached, and that the public were entitled to know who was responsible for the disaster in Abyssinia, and there was no excuse for not making public promptly all the facts in the possession of the ministers. But when the protests had been exhausted, the house adjourned, pending the appointment of a new cabinet.

After the adjournment of the chamber the plaza of Monte Citorio and the adjacent streets remained filled with excited crowds until they were dispersed by the police and soldiers, who occupied all approaches to the house of parliament.

Signor Crispi, after leaving the chamber of deputies made a similar statement in the senate, which adjourned sine die.

King Humbert has already consulted several statesmen regarding the formation of a new cabinet. Among those sent for by his majesty are Marquis di Rudini, Viscount Venosta and General Ricotte.

The war office today admitted that "at least 150 Italian officers were killed," but the officials still refuse to admit that over 5,000 men were killed. They say, however, that "they believe that 8,500 Italian troops, and 8,000 native troops in the Italian service, were engaged, and that nearly all the artillery, ammunition and supplies fell into the hands of the enemy."

AT HAVANA'S GATES.

Maceo Within Sight of the Cuban Capital.

NEW YORK, March 5.—A special from Havana says:

Nobody has paid much attention to reports from the field lately. Washington and Madrid have been the sole centers of interest. Yet, within a few days, Gomez and Maceo have achieved other successes in the face of strong opposing columns, which have made the world wonder how it can be done.

General Weyler, apparently believing he had driven them to their stronghold in the everglades of Ciensaga de Seapata, has been hurrying thousands of troops into Santa Clara by land and sea with one purpose of hemming the enemy in at that point. General Pando, in command in Santa Clara, only awaited the arrival of these troops to strike hard blows. But Gomez and Maceo having left in the everglades' hospitals all their wounded and ill, taken east from their raids in the western provinces, strengthened their forces with new troops fresh from Puerto Principe and San Diego, and then, while the Spanish battalions were en route to catch them, they unexpectedly turned west again, slipping past all obstructions with only a few skirmishes.

Now Gomez is in the heart of Matanzas and Maceo is once more almost in the gates of the capital. Trains have been fired on just beyond the city on the Matanzas road and Monday night there was a sharp skirmish only three miles beyond the suburb of Jesus del Monte, a settlement to which Havana horse-cars and omnibuses make regular trips. There was no official report of the affair given out.

The "Christian Crusade" is the name suggested by Ballington Booth for the new evangelical movement, which the former commander of the Salvation Army in America has pledged himself to lead. It is said he will at once establish a paper in opposition to the famous War Cry, and it will be "up to date" in all evangelical matters.

Mayor Sutro of San Francisco was furious when he heard of the seizure by the postoffice authorities of his communications to the congressmen and senators at Washington warning them of the schemes of Huntington to compass the passage of the funding bill. His anger was occasioned not so much by the stoppage of the letters, as from the fact that he had not been notified by the postmaster of the seizure. He considered that the holding of the letters had caused the loss of valuable time in the fight against the funding bill, and that he should have been told that the department considered the envelopes objectionable so that he might have devised other means of placing them in the hands of the members of congress. He said: "This will not stop the bombardment of members of congress whom we believe capable of giving away to railroad influence. I could have made millions by combining with Huntington in his iniquitous schemes, but I would not do it, and now he is resorting to all sorts of trickery and lies to break down the influence I have brought to bear against him. That man is the biggest liar in America today, and the majority of the people in this country know it."
