BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Forecast—Fair tonight and Tuesday.

Mr. Fred Grunow has taken a position with the O. R. & N. Co.

Fern Lodge, No. 25, Degree of Honor, will give a fine entertainment at the Baldwin opera house, March 11th. Programme will appear later.

Mrs. Helen D. Harford will lecture in the Methodist church Wednesday evening on the subject of "Reform and Reformers." A general attendance is invited.

Mr. Max Blank is fitting up his brickyard, preparatory to engaging in brick-making in a short time. There will be a tremendous home demand for them this season.

Mr. Ed. Williams is removing the merchandise stored in his warehouse, preparatory to tearing it down. Work will be commenced soon on the new store building.

Peach buds have not been injured in the country except in rare instances. Within the city, where the buds were influenced by walls of buildings, a loss has in several cases resulted.

Mr. A. S. Blowers today filed the following statement with the county clerk: "I hereby tender my resignation as county commissioner of Wasco county to take effect as soon as approved by the county court."

Mr. L. Samuel, formerly publisher of the West Shore, who has been in the employ of the Equitable Life Insurance Co. for five years past, has been promoted to the position of general manager for Oregon.

Mr. Wickman, a farmer living on 5-Mile, says that the cold snap has destroyed millions of grasshoppers in his vicinity. The warm weather caused them to hatch freely, and the freeze destroyed them unanimously.

All parties who have subscribed to the Rattlesnake road and are delinquent will please pay right away, as Mr. McDonald can superintend the work while working out the appropriation given by Sherman county. All money and labor should be in before the 20th of March.

In the report of the McKinley club meeting the names of the committees appointed by the president were inadvertently omitted. The committees are as follows: Executive—B. S. Huntington, Frank Menefee, E. Jacobsen. Membership—M. T. Nolan, W. H. Wilson, T. A. Hudson.

The friends of Hon. Pierce Mays in The Dalles will be glad to hear of that gentleman's election to the presidency of the Mulptop Republican Club, the leading organization of its kind in the state. The delegates to the last two club conventions remember the hospitable entertainment given by the Mulptop Club and under Mr. May's presidency the same conditions are sure to continue. The Mulptop Club carries the Republican banner well to the front.

The polls for the school election close at 6 o'clock tonight. At 2:30 o'clock, 57 votes were polled. The contest grew spirited after this hour, and the friends of all candidates worked hard the entire afternoon. The contestants for director are S. B. Adams and J. E. Barnett; while the struggle for school clerk is between Ernest Jacobsen and Geo. Krauss.

Mr. F. W. L. Skibbe has attached a thermometer to his telephone. It is supposed to indicate the degree of heat a person is in when anything is the matter with central or he don't catch what is said after repeated efforts, and is intended merely as a safeguard. Blood heat is indicated at 100. It is very dangerous to stand at the telephone when it gets above this figure.

Ex-Gov. Moody received word this morning of the death of his eldest brother, Mr. T. H. Moody, of Lewis, Edwards county, Kansas. His first intimation of his brother's sickness or death was the receipt of a marked copy of a Kansas paper containing the announcement. The deceased is about 70 years of age. He was thrown from a wagon Tuesday last, causing concussion of the spinal cord and partial paralysis. He died at 6 o'clock a. m. the following Thursday.

Mrs. E. W. Allen of Portland will give a lecture next Tuesday evening at the Congregational church on the subject of "India." The lecture will be supplemented with the finest stereopticon in the state, and an experienced operator to run it. Lecture-goers are cautioned not to miss this excellent lecture; they are also cautioned not to mistake the night. It appears on the cards Wednesday evening, but the time has been changed to Tuesday, because of the Degree of Honor entertainment, which occurs Wednesday night, and many will desire to attend both.

The Orchestra Union will give a dance on the 14th of March. The members of the Union are desirous of buying some new uniforms and choose this way to ascertain whether their efforts to entertain the public are appreciated or not. The orchestra desires every encouragement it is possible for the citizens to bestow, and they should show it in buying liberally of the tickets. Many a summer night have the boys pleased our ears by their sweet melodies, ministering to our joys or quelling the edge of sorrow with the perfect harmony of their instruments. Often again in the coming season will they contribute to our pleasure without money and without price. The Dalles has every reason to be proud of its orchestra. It contains talent of a high order. The coming ball will have an intrinsic value of its own, apart from any other consideration, which should secure a large and general attendance.

Another Bad Man Mistaken.

Jim Crate is a sad and a wiser man this morning. He has labored not under the delusion that the world owes him a living, but that a small share of it, that class of society known as the demi monde, are financially responsible for his needs, be they large or small. While in a house of ill fame adjoining Maetz & Pundt's saloon last night he made his usual demands for money of the inmates. They refused, but he persisted, even resorting to threats of personal violence. They retaliated and threatened to call the police. He then defied the whole police force of the city. Shortly afterward Officer Connelly and Marshal Blakeney arrived, having been summoned. Crate fled to the room next door, where he was followed by the officers. Being approached by Blakeney, Crate shot out his left, but some way it missed connection, and a stinging blow in the face felled him to the floor. Both officers picked him up and he went very meekly to the city jail. Blood was streaming from his face, and a physician called, who found that Crate had sustained a fracture of the nose. He was patched up, and this morning appeared before the city recorder. He pleaded guilty and was fined $50. There is another fine of $50 hanging over him for a misdeed some months ago, which he forfeited by coming back to the city. He will now have to pay the $50, or serve it out in jail, before he is given another opportunity to leave town.

Words from Ellis.

Hon. W. R. Ellis, writing to a constituent in The Dalles, speaks frankly in regard to several matters of general interest. He promises that the Oregon delegation will do all in their power to secure the necessary appropriations to protect and complete the work at the locks, and that speedily. In regard to the public building at The Dalles he considers the chance for getting such a bill through the present congress is very remote. Speaking of the tariff, he is sorry the senate would not take up the tariff bill as it came from the house. On the whole, he thinks the present congress will not accomplish much, agreeing with The Dalles correspondent that they are too busy president-making.

Mr. Stewart Entertains.

Mr. George Ernest Stewart, teacher of the Young People's Bible class of the Christian Sunday school, gave a reception to the members of his class last Saturday evening, at the residence of Hon. E. B. Dufur, the occasion being in honor of the anniversary of his 20th birthday. The event is one long to be remembered by the merry guests present by reason of the manner in which they were most happily and royally entertained. Father Time, who is, at his very slowest pace, an exceedingly difficult fellow to keep up with, seemed to have issued special orders for that evening, that his winged element tax its speed to the very utmost, in order that the hours might appear to be about half their usual shortness, for ere the joyous party were aware of it, the midnight hour was warning them that it was time all honest folks were in bed. Several new games were introduced and successfully carried out, as well as a number of old ones, in ecstasies of great mirth and enthusiasm. A well-prepared and bountiful repast was also partaken of, and shortly after 12 the guests reluctantly departed, with many expressions of well wishes that their teacher might live to enjoy a few hundred more equally pleasant and delightful birthdays. On behalf of the class, one of the young ladies presented Mr. Stewart with an elegant gold fountain pen as a birthday gift. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Dufur, Mr. Stewart, Misses Lizzie Schooling, Martha Schooling, Grace Scott, Mollie Norman, May Miller, Nettie Davis, Bettie Davis, Emma Ulrich, Gertie Kinney, Cora Hendrickson, Edna Barnett; Messrs. A. G. Hoering, O. McNeill, Archie Barnett, Elmer Ward, and Master Bernie Dufur.

Republicans at Grass Valley.

The opening gun of the campaign in Sherman county was the big Republican rally at Grass Valley on Saturday last. There were over 500 people present, many coming from a distance of twenty miles. The speaker of the evening was Hon. John Michell, who held the floor for over two hours, amid much enthusiasm. He handled the political situation in his accustomed forcible manner, and administered potent medicine from his generous laboratory of facts and figures. The inclement weather (there was snow on the ground) did not detract from the size of the assemblage. Three brass bands and two quartettes contributed to the enjoyment of the evening.
