MCKINLEY ENDORSED

By the Republican Convention at Columbus.

DELEGATES AT LARGE ELECTED

They Are Instructed to Vote for Him at St. Louis—Allison the Choice of Iowans.

COLUMBUS, O., March 11.—The Grand opera-house was unable again today to give admission to more than half of those holding tickets. Some delegates to the republican state convention were crowded out.

At 10:15 Senator-elect Foraker called the convention to order. The stage was crowded with Ohio congressmen and party leaders. Ex-Secretary Chas. Foster had a seat near the presiding officer.

The committee on credentials reported in favor of seating the "committee" delegation from Muskingum, as against the "mass convention" delegation. The report was adopted with a resolution against county committees assuming the power in future of appointing delegates.

The temporary organization was unanimously made permanent, and Chairman Foraker briefly acknowledged the double honor.

Congressman J. M. Taylor, chairman of the committee on resolutions, reported the platform, which was greeted with frequent applause, and adopted. The platform, which declares strongly for protection and reciprocity, denounces the present democratic administration as the most destructive and disastrous in the history of our country. It has not only disappointed the expectations of the county, but has justly forfeited the confidence and support of its own party.

The platform declares that the republican party "stand for the Monroe doctrine as Monroe himself proclaimed it," favors a "return of the government to a debt-paying policy" by increasing its revenues; declared for a "currency of gold, silver and paper, with which to measure our exchange that shall be as sound as the government and as untarnished as its honor, and to that end we favor bimetalism and demand the use of both gold and silver as a standard money, either in accordance with a ratio to be fixed by national agreement, if that can be obtained, or under such restrictions and such provisions, to be determined by legislation, as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals, so the purchasing and debt-paying power of a dollar, whether silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal."

The platform also pledges the support of the state to McKinley in the national convention.

The ticket elected by the republican state convention today was:

Delegates-at-large, Governor Asa H. Bushnell, Senator-elect J. B. Foraker, Representatives Charles H. Grosvenor and the Hon. Marcus A. Hanna; alternates, J. E. Lowes, Charles Fleischman, J. P. Green and S. T. Taylor; electors-at-large, I. F. Mack and Albert C. Douglas. Secretary of state, Charles Kinney; supreme judge, Marshall J. Williams; food commissioner, Joseph E. Blackburn; member of board of public works, Frank A. Hoffman.

The republican state convention, which concluded this afternoon its session of two days, was more of a McKinley rally than the usual party business assembly. It was held two or three months earlier than usual, in order to proclaim to the country the sentiments of McKinley's state. Not since the endorsement of R. B. Hayes for the presidency, at the state harmonious meeting of representative republicans in Ohio. When senator Sherman was endorsed for president, at state conventions of 1880, 1884, and 1888, there were bitter contests, and it required considerable efforts in 1892 to prevent open opposition in the Ohio state convention to Harrison for a second term. At that time Charles Foster was secretary of the treasury, and is credited with having controlled the convention.

IOWA RELUBLICANS.

Allison's Candidacy Indorsed by the State Convention.

DES MOINES, Ia., March 11.—The republican state convention met at 11 a. m. Congressman Dolliver was elected temporary chairman, and delivered an address, of which the following is the closing paragraph:

"No man has been proposed for the nomination whose election would not bring honor to the chief office of the people, but of all the illustrious men who are presented for the favor of the party in this year of hope and victory, not one out-ranks in ripened preparation for its duties the unassuming leader of Republicanism of Iowa, whose name is on the lips and in the hearts of all our people today—William B. Allison."

The address was frequently interrupted by applause, which became tremendous at every allusion to Allison.

Four thousand people were present, and the convention was the most enthusiastic in the history of the state.

The platform declares for sound money and Allison.

It Went to the Calendar.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—In the senate today Hoar was recognized on his resolution postponing the entire Cuban question until April 6th, and directing the committee on foreign relations to make inquiry meantime. At 2 o'clock Hoar, without finishing his speech, asked the resolution to go over without prejudice, Platt and others desiring to further debate it.

Morgan objected, and under the rule the resolution went to the calendar, from which it cannot be taken except by a vote of the senate.

Consideration of the Dupont election case was then resumed.

W. J. Moore, the leading candy maker, is still alive and doing well and wishes to announce that he will now introduce many different kinds of candies. His specialties are many, and he proposes to give the people the purest of confectionery, and remember that the marshmallow taffy is the favorite of all taffies ever introduced. Let the people judge for themselves. Give him a call and be convinced.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed on exhibit at the world's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the world's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."

Blakeley & Houghton desire us to publish the following extract from a letter of Chas. M. Gutfield of Reedley, Fresno county, Calif., as they handle the remedy referred to and want their customers to know what a splendid medicine it is:

"It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough remedy I was relieved of a very bad cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy." A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs.

If there is any one thing that needs to be purified, it is politics, so the reformer says, and many agree thereto. But blood tells, and as a blood purifier and liver corrector Simmons Liver Regulator is the best medicine. "I use it in preference to any other."—So wrote Mr. S. H. Hysell, of Middleport, Ohio. And Dr. D. S. Russell, of Farmville, Va., writes, "It fulfills all you promise for it."

You hear it almost everywhere, and read it in the newspapers, that Simmons Liver Regulator is the best liver remedy, and the best Spring medicine, and the best blood medicine. "The only medicine of any consequence that I use is Simmons Liver Regulator."—So wrote Mr. R. A. Cobb, of Morgantown, N. C. And W. F. Park, M. D., of Tracy City, Tenn., writes: "Simmons Liver Regulator is the best."
