

UNTOLD MISERY FROM RHEUMATISM

C. H. King, Water Valley, Miss., cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For five years, I suffered untold misery from muscular rheumatism. I tried every known remedy, consulted the best physicians, visited Hot Springs, Ark., three times, spending $1000 there, besides doctors' bills; but could obtain only temporary relief. My flesh was wasted away so that I weighed only ninety-three pounds; my left arm and leg were drawn out of shape, the muscles being twisted up in knots. I was unable to dress myself, except with assistance, and could only hobble about by using a cane. I had no appetite, and was assured, by the doctors, that I could not live. The pains, at times, were so awful, that I could procure relief only by means of hypodermic injections of morphia. I had my limbs bandaged in clay, in sulphur, in poultices; but these gave only temporary relief. After trying everything, and suffering the most awful tortures, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Inside of two months, I was able to walk without a cane. In three months, my limbs began to strengthen, and in the course of a year, I was cured. My weight has increased to 165 pounds, and I am now able to do my full day's work as a railroad blacksmith."

Mr. I. N. Burgess of Bakeoven is in the city.
Mrs. Judge Liebe left for Portland today for a week or more.

"Splendid News if True."

The Walla Walla Statesman attaches a great deal of importance to a rumor afloat among the railroad men on the O. R. & N. that the machine shops at Albina and Starbuck will be removed and combined at Walla Walla. The Statesman says: "It is said that most of the breaks in machinery occur between Walla Walla and Spokane and that it would prove a great saving to the railroad company to have the repairs made at some central point like Walla Walla. It is given in further explanation that the company has little invested in the Albina shops and that the loss by removal of the company's property at that place would be small compared with the great advantages to be gained. We dislike at all times to shatter a pleasing dream or knock the underpinning out from an air castle, especially when it is of brief duration anyway, but we may as well inform the Walla Walla people that if the shops are ever removed from Albina they will be replaced at The Dalles. It occupies the most strategic point on the whole line, as all railroad men well know, and was the reason why the shops were put in at The Dalles in the first place. Owing to a temporary 'unpleasantness' they were moved, but not for a business reason. The conditions which removed the shops have passed, and our citizens would now make every decent effort to meet the company half way should it contemplate a removal from Albina.

Death of Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. Julia Taylor died at her residence at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, after a lingering and painful illness.
Mrs. Taylor was the wife of Mr. Henry Taylor of this city, and has lived with her husband in The Dalles since 1882. She was born in Knox county, Ill., June 1, 1860, her maiden name being Julia Johnson. She was married to Mr. Taylor in the place of her birth in 1879. Two children have been born to them, both dying while infants. The funeral will take place from the Methodist church at 2 o'clock tomorrow (Friday) afternoon.
Mrs. Taylor in life had been for years a member of this church and was one of its most honored members. A consistent Christian and devoted church worker, her loss will be keenly felt. Those who knew her kindly nature, her unassuming manners and her earnestness in all good works will sincerely mourn her loss as they gather tomorrow to pay their last tribute of respect to her memory.

In the fall of 1893 a son of Mr. T. A. McFarland, a prominent merchant of Live Oak, Sutter county, Calif., was taken with a very heavy cold. The pains in his chest were so severe that he had spasms and was threatened with pneumonia. His father gave him several large doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which broke up the cough and cured him. Mr. McFarland says whenever his children have croup he invariably gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always cures them. He considers it the best cough remedy in the market.
