Spanish Students
At the Baldwin opera house Friday and Saturday evenings.

Auction Saturday at 11 a. m. in the Vogt merchandise store.

It is needless to say anything in regard to the Spanish Students. They are known in every state from coast to coast.

Those in charge of the work on the Rattlesnake grade say that collections are so slow that unless something is done work must stop.

Ex-President Harrison is a candidate for a second term—in matrimony—and, according to reports he will be elected and inaugurated April 6th.

The young lady friends of the M. E. church have made arrangements with Miss VanDersol of Salem to give a Brownie entertainment in this city about the 27th.

The friends of Miss Moody gave a dancing party at the Baldwin opera house last evening in her honor. It was a most pleasurable event. Of special merit was the music for the occasion by the orchestra.

Word came by telephone last night of a jail break at Moro, three prisoners escaping. One of them is Pat Homan, who was arrested last winter at The Dalles for stealing horses. No further particulars are available at present.

Those who attend the "Spanish Students" tonight are reminded to go a little early and see the orang outang. Though three years old, "Joe" is fully as intelligent as a child of that age, and will do everything told him to do.

Tonight, the "Spanish Students," who have delighted audiences in almost every quarter of the globe for the past quarter of a century. The troupe is composed of artists of a high grade, and so good a musical entertainment may not be heard again for a long time.

A meeting of Lutherans will be held this evening for the purpose of arranging for the purchase of a building site. At the meeting of the church society, Rev. L. Gray of Oregon City was invited to become pastor and has accepted the call. The pastor will be present this evening.

Mr. Wm. Rasmus, who in connection with the Knights of Pythias of this city, gave "Damon and Pythias" about a year ago, is arranging with the Rathbone Sisters to produce "The Confederate Spy" at an early date. Mr. Rasmus is a finished actor, and with his co-operation, a fine performance is assured.

A Junior's jubilee will take place Saturday night, March 14th, at the Salvation Army hall. There will be singing and speaking by the children. A silver collection will be taken at the door to be used for the junior work of the local corps. After the program coffee and cake will be served.

A. Keller has now the finest assortment of home-made and imported candies in the city. Besides the delicious new kinds which are made fresh every day, he has a liberal assortment from New York city from the great house of Melotte, the largest candy manufacturer in the United States.

Senator Mitchell introduced a joint resolution in the senate yesterday allowing the engineers to use $20,000 of the unexpended balance for the Cascade Locks, to be used for making a protection wall. He made a brief talk, asking the committee on commerce to report the resolution as speedily as possible.

The Womans Relief Corps will give an entertainment tomorrow evening at Fraternity hall, which promises to be very good. Mr. Wm. Rasmus will give a recitation, as will also Mrs. C. L. Phillips. There are other features in the program which will be as entertaining. The admission fee is placed at the low sum of 15 cents, which includes refreshments of ice cream and cake.

The funeral of Mrs. Henry Taylor took place from the M. E. church today. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Wood, and followed, by the request of the deceased previous to her death, by a few remarks by Mr. Wm. Michell. The floral offerings were very fine, one being a pillow by members of the Good Intent Society. This organization, of which Mrs. Taylor was a member, were present in a body.

The Rathbone Sisters gave an entertainment last evening at the conclusion of their regular work. While the program was short, it was of great merit, and succeeded by an elegant repast, the enjoyment for those in attendance was complete. Mrs. E. O. McCoy gave a vocal solo, which was generously applauded; a bass solo by Mr. Chas. Stubling was also well received. The recitation by Mr. Wm. Rasmus, "Shamus O'Brien," was very fine. Mr. Rasmus is the well-known actor from Portland.

An agitation has begun in Pendleton to bore for artesian water. The East Oregonian proposes to the people of Pendleton to organize an "Artesian Water Club" for the purpose of raising funds to discover, if that be possible, artesian water in that vicinity. A small membership fee of 50 cents and monthly dues of 10 cents, and discussions, dances, picnics, bicycle tours, and Sunday amusements, for which those participating in them will readily pay a fee of 10 cents, would in a few months raise a fund ample to test whether artesian water can be discovered or not.

WILL URGE THE WORK.

Letters From Congressmen Hermann and Ellis to the Commercial Club.

The memorial recently sent to our congressmen by The Dalles Commercial Club has elicited the following replies:

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 3, 1896.

DEAR SIR:—I am in receipt of a memorial from The Dalles Commercial Club, asking Congress to make additional appropriations to complete the work at the Cascade Locks. The delegation will take immediate steps in that direction, and renew our efforts to secure the much-needed appropriations.

Very truly,
W. R. ELLIS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 3, 1896.

DEAR SIR:—I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of a communication from The Dalles Commercial Club, signed by yourself and Mr. Roger B. Sinnott, secretary, with accompanying papers, all relating to the locks in the cascades of the Columbia. In reply I beg to assure you and the very influential body you represent that I shall cheerfully co-operate with my colleagues in Congress to secure the desired legislation.

Yours respectfully,
BINGER HERMANN.

Mr. Gourlay's Lecture.

Mr. Hugh Gourlay proposes to lecture at the Baptist church on the 18th inst. on the subject of "Civil and Religious Liberty vs. A. P. A. ism from the standpoint of a Protestant American Citizen."

Speaking to a CHRONICLE reporter he said that his object in delivering the lecture was not to foment discord among the different religious beliefs, but to quench the spirit of intolerance which he believes is fast coming to the surface. He says if he thought his lecture would do aught to fan the flame of religious discord he would keep quiet forever. He claims therefore his mission is peaceful, and that he desires only to pour oil upon the troubled waters. Asked if he would reply to Rev. E. B. Sutton's recent lecture, which he attended, he said he would not attack it as a whole, but that he would show many things claimed by that speaker to be fallacies. He said his lecture was intended to be an appeal to American fairness and justice, and that he would so interpret history as to show that our Catholic citizens have always been loyal to the country and its institutions, and that the pope has never interfered in American affairs.

Mr. Rowe Returns.

Mr. F. H. Rowe has just returned from California. He hastened home some two weeks before he intended, owing to the report of the loss of logs by the breaking of the jamb in the Klickitat river. He finds the loss is not nearly so bad as he feared. The most of the logs were saved by a second boom in the Columbia below the mouth of the Klickitat. The breaking of the jamb was, however, a fearful sight. Logs were piled up fifty feet high and when they broke there was a fearful crash. An Indian living near by thought the world was coming to an end, and left his cabin for higher ground.

Mr. Rowe says the cold snap has injured the peach and apricot crop considerably, though the Associated Press is contradicting that report.

Rivers and Harbors.

Telegraphic correspondence from Washington to the Oregonian contains the following:

Mr. Hermann is making an especial fight for the Willamette project, as recently published in the Oregonian. This and the improvement of the Yamhill river he wants to secure provision for in the coming bill. Another work regarded of great importance is the cascade locks. The engineers think a considerable emergency has arisen, because the canal on the inside is not reveted, and loose earth enters the canal and dissolves, which may result in a permanent injury to the canal and locks. He is struggling for an appropriation of $179,000 for revetting the inner walls and protecting the outer walls. It is thought in some quarters that the canal cannot be used until this is done.

Memorials of both the Astoria and The Dalles chambers of commerce have been presented by Mr. Hermann to the committee, in which the early completion of the boat railway at The Dalles is sought. It appears that the right-of-way business is not yet entirely cleared up, and hence there is a very great doubt about securing any further appropriation for this purpose at this session of congress. Until there is something more tangible to work on, congress will not be likely to do anything. It has been the absolute plan of congress for many years to do nothing in the way of government improvements until the title to the land upon which the improvements are situated are vested in the government beyond any question of doubt.
