BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Spanish Students
At the Baldwin opera house Friday and Saturday evenings. The McKinley club meets tonight on important business.

The work on the free bridge road is completed to what is known as the wood grade.

B. R. Tucker's store and box factory on Hood river was burned to the ground last week.

A marriage license was granted today to Mr. Fred Westerman and Mrs. Elsie Westerman.

Rev. Roland D. Grant of Portland will lecture at the Methodist church Friday evening, March 20th, at 8 o'clock. Subject, "Romanism."

Hood River has caught the mining infection. The Glacier tells of a quartz vein on the east fork of Hood river, which assays $900 to the ton in gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Jud Fish entertained the whist club last night. The first prize was won by Mrs. J. A. Crossen, the second and third by Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Senfert.

It makes no difference what country you hail from, Keller will tinkle your palate just the same. He has hundreds of different kinds of candy, suited to every age, sex or condition.

Mr. F. H. Rowe, the sawmill man, will soon have his mill in operation. The mill has been lying idle for two years, waiting for logs. He now has them in quantity. The timber is first-class, and some of the logs will produce 2,500 feet of lumber.

There should be a rousing meeting of the McKinley club tonight. At this meeting the date will be fixed for holding a grand rally. There is a division of opinion as to whether it should be held before or after the county convention. Short speeches are invited from all Republicans. Council chambers, 8 o'clock.

The most severe sand storm of the season occurred yesterday between Wallula and Grant. For a distance of several miles the sand formed along the track for a depth of from six inches to three feet. All trains were delayed, but the company were in a better condition to remedy the difficulty than before, because of the new fences.

White Salmon river is ruined for a driving stream. A boom gave way during the winter, floating a short distance below the narrows, where there is a large waterfall, and lodging. This boom is composed of logs firmly bolted together, and has formed the foundation for gathering and holding drift of all kinds. Logs and huge trees have floated in and so interlaced together that it is estimated it would take ten carloads of dynamite to remove the obstruction.

Albert Buhner is the name of a demented individual who was taken to the asylum today by Sheriff Driver. He is a laborer who has worked at the Cascade Locks and is a native of Switzerland. His hallucinations are delusions in reference to spirits. He was discovered last evening by Constable Urquhart, at the Columbia hotel, who soon after had him arrested. Dr. Logan made the examination this morning and he was at once committed by the county court.

Jacobsen's Efficiency.

The Oregonian of yesterday contains the following neat advertisement of Dalles City's school clerk, Mr. E. Jacobsen:

Among the novel arguments the various school campaigns throughout the state have brought out, none is more unique than one furnished by The Dalles. Within three years 380 names have been added to the list of those who draw school money in The Dalles school district. This would indicate an increase in the population of the district of about 1500, but there has been no such increase in the population, hence the additional names added to the list must be attributed to the efficiency of the clerk who made the last three enumerations. The per capita apportionment of state and county school money is about $5 per year, so the addition of 380 names means an addition of $1,900 to the school funds of the district. The man who did all this, pro bono publico, it was argued, should be vindicated at the polls. It is gratifying to learn, therefore, that the school clerk of The Dalles district was re-elected by a handsome majority.

Woman's Relief Corps.

The following is the program of the entertainment to be furnished tonight by the Ladies Relief Corps:

- Music.....Mrs. Alice Varney.
- Recitation.....Miss Jennie Russell.
- Reading.....Mrs. Phillips.
- Song.....Miss McHaley.
- Recitation.....Mr. Wm. Rasmus.
- Recitation.....Master Web, Varney.
- Recitation.....Mrs. Briggs.

The program being so very good, including as it does a recitation by Mr. W. Rasmus, and considering that the low admission fee (15 cents) includes ice cream and cake, there is no reason why Fraternity hall should not be crowded.

Precipitation for Past Six Months.

The following information of rainfall for the months indicated will be of interest to farmers and others, furnished by Mr. S. L. Brooks, volunteer weather observer at The Dalles for twenty years: September, 1.14, October, none; November, 1.20; December, 4.15; January, 2.90; February, .72; March, .66 so far.

A cut-rate tailor establishment has been opened at 83 Washington street, opposite CHRONICLE office, by H. E. Balch & Co. late of San Francisco, where can be seen the finest line of suitings and pants goods, both domestic and foreign, ever shown in The Dalles. The prices are away down too. Mr. Balch is a graduate of the Madison cutting system and guarantees perfect fit. By patronizing this up-to-date firm you can save $7 to $15 per suit. m14-35

A VICIOUS COYOTE.

He Opens Battle on Trapper Campbell and Bites Him Severely.

W. A. Burt Campbell is a hunter and trapper of many years' experience in Wasco county. Many trophies of the chase adorn residences and business houses of The Dalles which are from wild animals killed by Mr. Campbell. He invariably receives county scrip for bounties at every session of the county court, and prizes every fall from the fair association. Yesterday he had a most unusual experience, and one which has probably never before been duplicated. While making the rounds of his traps he came upon one about 3 o'clock in the afternoon which held a coyote. The animal watched Mr. Campbell's approach without fear, and indeed tugged at its chain in the effort to reach him. When within about fifty feet, the coyote succeeded in extricating his foot, and instead of fleeing, made for the trapper, determined upon giving him battle. Campbell was so thoroughly surprised he stood motionless waiting its approach. No one ever before heard of a coyote that would attack a man under any circumstances, and Campbell supposed it would surely turn and run before reaching him. But not so. The coyote soon reached Mr. Campbell and fiercely attacked him. As it jumped for him he threw an arm around its neck and tried to strangle it. The animal proved too strong for these tactics and Campbell loosed his hold with one hand in order to get a knife from his pocket. While doing this the coyote bit him on the leg, through a pair of chaparral (shaps). If it had not been for the leather garment the wound would have been much more severe. But Campbell had now got his knife out and quickly closed the battle by plunging it repeatedly in his ribs, and cutting his throat. He at once came to town and had the wound dressed. Mr. Campbell will probably save that pelt as memorable of the only coyote fight ever recorded in trappers' history.

"Spanish Students."

Though the house which greeted the "Spanish Students" last night was not large, all who attended were well repaid for so doing. The members of the troupe are, without exception, masters in their role. The first number was by the full orchestra, a very brilliant selection rendered with the most facile expression, the music changing at a touch from rapid and bold to soothing or plaintive. The first violin and cello would make a beautiful duet in themselves. However the addition of the guitar and mandolin served to complete and accentuate the melody. Jack Myers has a very full and rich baritone voice, and last night he was in prime condition. D. C. Rossbrook is a leading cornetist and his difficult solo provoked much favorable comment. The Taylor sisters executed some very neat dances. The elder sister is a very pretty sourette and her abilities as an actress were also shown in the farce which followed the musical program. Ray Youngman proved himself to be a master of the banjo, as well as the possessor of a fine tenor voice. Altogether the "Spanish Students" are a well-balanced company and deserves the success it will undoubtedly achieve. The entertainment will be repeated tonight with an entire change of program.

Trial at Dufur.

The town of Dufur was considerably astir yesterday, because of a trial taking place within its precincts. On the night of February 15th, while some residents of school district No. 20 were conducting the meeting of a literary society at the Liberty school house, the building received a sudden shock as if it were struck by a large object from the outside. Investigation proved this to be the case and a large oak lying upon the ground showed what had been used. The directors of the district made efforts to discover who had done the deed and finally complaints were sworn out against Frank Coculine and John Mason, charging them with being the perpetrators. The trial occurred yesterday and its progress caused considerable interest, as all parties were well known in the community. Deputy Dist. Atty Phelps conducted the prosecution, while M. J. Anderson of Dufur pleaded the cause of the defendants. At the conclusion of the evidence and arguments, the jury, after due deliberation, returned a verdict of guilty. Justice Brigham imposed a $10 fine upon each of the defendants, taxing them also with the cost.

Being a dressmaker of several years experience, and desiring to win the confidence of the ladies of The Dalles, I have decided to cut and fit for any lady free, beginning March 16th. Every lady has the privilege of seeing her own draft made in the true tailor style, without the use of chart, drafting machine or model of any kind, thus having a chance to decide for herself if it is safe to cut the lining.
