

UNTOLD MISERY FROM RHEUMATISM

C. H. King, Water Valley, Miss., cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For five years, I suffered untold misery from rheumatism. I tried every known remedy, consulted the best physicians, visited Hot Springs, Ark., three times, spending $1000 there, besides doctors' bills; but could obtain only temporary relief. My flesh was wasted away so that I weighed only ninety-three pounds; my left arm and leg were drawn out of shape, the muscles being twisted up in knots. I was unable to dress myself, except with assistance, and could only hobble about by using a cane. I had no appetite, and was assured, by the doctors, that I could not live. The pains, at times, were so awful, that I could procure relief only by means of hypodermic injections of morphia. I had my limbs bandaged in clay, in saltpetre, in poultices; but these gave only temporary relief. After trying everything, and suffering the most awful tortures, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Inside of two months, I was able to walk without a cane. In three months, my limbs began to strengthen, and in the course of a year, I was cured. My weight has increased to 165 pounds, and I am now able to do my full day's work as a railroad blacksmith."

A PECULIAR FAITH.

An Exhorter Who Would Be Disappointed if He Gained Converts.

C. A. Curtiss is the name of a religious zealot who has been expounding a peculiar doctrine on our streets for some nights past. He makes some very startling announcements from a religious point of view, and are given publication because of their extreme oddity. For instance, he said last night Jesus was not Christ until he was baptised in the river Jordan; that He was purely human until the spirit descended upon him like a dove, when he became divine. There is an unconventionality with all established forms of religion in the above statement that is simply audacious. Again he preaches universal salvation for all souls and spirits. He claims that this belief may be obtained by the simple reading of the word of God, as is the fact with all of his tenets. Regarding universal salvation his theory is that all who die go first to hell (the grave); the spirit then comes to the grave, takes up the soul and goes to heaven. Everlasting damnation or forever, as used in the Bible, means a limited time. He finds there are living 144,000 sons of God who will not die, therefore will not go to hell. He expects to be one of these 144,000 if he keeps the faith. Asked if he gained many converts, he said no; he did not expect only about one in every 3,000. He would therefore expect one in The Dalles, one in Pendleton, and about ten in Seattle. This proportion, if continued, would just about make the 144,000 sons of God. He does not expect any immediate results in The Dalles, and therefore cannot be discouraged. If the public does not volunteer enough financial support to carry him and his little boy, who is traveling with him, the leaders of the society, or church, or whatever it may be, carry them along until they go broke. He claims that he is fulfilling the 221 chapter of Matthew by his nightly talks on the street corners of The Dalles. The name of the church is the New and Latter House of Israel, which has had an antonomy since 1890. Its headquarters in the United States is Grand Rapids, and in the world London, England.

There is a novelty about this Curtiss and his teachings which attracts attention. He said among other things, "Anyone can know God by reading the first chapter of John," and that the 15th chapter of Acts contains the only laws for the Gentile world between the lids of the Bible. It seems that he writes and dedicates a poem to every city in which he works. THE CHRONICLE today gives publication to the ones intended for Pendleton and The Dalles, the first time they have ever appeared in print:

PENDELTON.

Oh friends will you now give heed to the call That the father has sent unto thee. He is the promise to all that believe on the Son They from all pain and death shall be free, Oh friends, do come now to the fountain of life That is offered so freely to thee. Come friends, yes, and live; in its river thrive. The blessed spirit that maketh thee free.

Oh its glory untold such great love to behold As expressed in his love for mankind. He came in their time his love to bring in; Gave His life for His lost ones to find.

Oh now, my dear friends, we come to the end, Be ready to honor this love. It is offered so free by the Son unto thee Freely sent by the Father above.

The one intended for The Dalles is to the tune of "After the Ball."

THE DALLES.

Friends, there are troubles soon to appear; There will be weeping; also great fear.

Soon Revelations, chapter 13. Will be fulfilled, friends, plainly 'tis seen.

In great affliction, with all their might, Will all the nations make war and fight.

Great tribulations, sorrow and strife; Son against daughter; man against wife;

CHORUS.

After the plagues are over; After the strife is past, Israel then will be joyful, Reigning with Christ at last.

Come and join their number, Come and be one that's blest. Take on the yoke of Jesus; Enjoy His rest.

Curtiss wears his hair long because he believes the Scriptures forbid him to change it. He is very voluble, but unlettered, and it doesn't disconcert him in the least to be interrupted. He calls what he calls "God's Last Message to Man," believing that we are now in the last moments of the eleventh hour of the third day spoken of in Rev. xiii as the end of the world.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with result so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." For sale by Snipes-Kinersley, Drug Co.

In the fall of 1893 a son of Mr. T. A. McFarland, a prominent merchant of Live Oak, Sutter county, Calif., was taken with a very heavy cold. The pains in his chest were so severe that he had spasms and was threatened with pneumonia. His father gave him several large doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which broke up the cough and cured him. Mr. McFarland says whenever his children have croup he invariably gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always cures them. He considers it the best cough remedy in the market. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton's Drug store.
