A. M. Williams & Co. are showing a superior quality of gentlemen's bicycle hose, just received.

Cascade Lodge, B. P. O. E. will meet at the K. of P. hall on Saturday evening, March 21st. Look out!

The Rev. M. L. Zweig, pastor of St. James Evangelical Lutheran church of Portland, will hold services at 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. on Sunday.

The press speaks very highly of Miss Jones and Miss Stevens, the young ladies who will give the concert at the Congregational church this evening.

Wallace Fargher has just returned from his ranch, and reports stock as doing nicely and the farmers busy seeding. The ground is in fine condition for that work.

We were at a loss to account for the bright and cheerful condition of our town this morning until we noticed the smiling face of A. C. Sanford, of Wamic, on our streets.

Kishaw, the Indian sheepman, got too near the snow line with his sheep during the last storm and was caught in about two feet of snow and lost 780 sheep out of his band.

Rev. Dr. Grant's lecture at the M. E. church this evening will, no doubt, be interesting, as his reputation as a speaker is first-class. Dr. Grant arrived on the local train from Portland.

Call and try A. Keller's fine crystallized nuts, candies, also his angelfood taffy. The ice cream season has begun and Keller is fully prepared in that line. Later in the season he will serve all kinds of delicacies.

Mr. Wm. Rasmus came up on the Regulator from Portland last night, and the first rehearsal of the play "Confederate Spy" was held at the residence of Mrs. Blakeley. It will be produced immediately after Easter. Mr. Rasmus has a large class in Portland, and will spend the latter part of the week in that city.

On Monday evening next Pease & Mays will give a spring opening to which their numerous friends are inited. Their large stock will be displayed to good advantage, while the guests will be entertained with choice selections from our justly famous Orchestra Union.

Jas. H. Blakeney, our city marshal, having imbibed from the spring of enterprise which has recently broken loose in The Dalles, and believing that a building boom is in sight, has purchased the brick yard of Max Blank and is preparing to burn a large quantity of brick. This is the right spirit for our people to assume. The manufacture of anything that will give employment to men and teams is an addition to our city that should be fostered and encouraged.

Fred Fisher, the "live and let live" grocery man, will open his new store on Second street Monday morning next with a full line. Fred is a rustler in the grocery business and his competitors may expect competition all along the line. He has nicely arranged living rooms over this store, where he will in the future reside, having rented his lovely residence on the bluff to Mr. Keyster of French & Co.'s bank.

The funeral services of Mrs. Mary Lacy, who died at her residence on Fourth street Wednesday evening, took place at St. Peter's church this morning at 9 o'clock. Mrs. Lacy was one of the oldest settlers of The Dalles, having resided here for the past forty years. She was about 80 years of age and a devout member of the Catholic church. She leaves considerable property, and, as we understand, has no relations in this part of the country.

The bowling alley shares with politics public attention. At all hours of the day and as far into the night as 12 o'clock the balls can be heard rolling down the alley, while the sharp knocks tell that some one has made a lucky shot. Among the old timers the sport is very popular. Mr. A. Bettingen wandered up into the club yesterday and being urged to take part in a game, said he had not bowled for 60 years. He finally consented to play, however, and with his first throw made a "strike," the summation of delight for a bowler. It is needless to say Mr. Bettingen's interest in the game was quickly awakened.

A great deal of merriment was occasioned last evening by the attempts of some of our good citizens to have their lungs tested. A contrivance had been prepared, which was certainly ingenious. It was an innocent looking affair and one was easily persuaded to blow into it. When they did so, they received a charge of soap in the face. One of the CHRONICLE men happened down at the Umatilla last evening, and in monkeying with the thing, got his face and glasses painted black. The Mountaineer man heard something about the affair and gave it a good write-up, when unfortunately he began to experiment with the thing, and in a trice his face was as black as the ace of spades. He confidentially told Judd Fish that he had "killed" the article he had written. The crowd of bowlers at the club last night were horrified when

N. Whealdon walked in, his face looking like he had been shoveling coal for a week with no chance to wash.

Concert Tonight.

The musical portion of the community will have an opportunity this evening of listening to two talented artists, Miss Jones and Miss Stevens. They come well recommended. From a large number of press notices we select the following:

The concert given at the Congregational church last Tuesday evening was worthy of more than a passing mention, for it was one of the finest that has been given in this city for some time. Astorians are ever ready to appreciate the beauties of music, as was evidenced by the large audience that assembled to hear Miss Gladys Jones and her able assistants. Her voice is one of more than ordinary power and sweetness, and it commands absolute attention from the first bell-like tone to the last faint echo. Her pieces, being among the best, were nicely adapted to show the scope and range of her contralto voice.—Astoria Herald.

Miss Hattie Stevens of Lewiston, Ida., who has passed her examination before the commissioners to appear as pianist at the world's fair, has arrived in the Garden City to prepare herself for her task under the tuition of Prof. Jean Holtbuer. Miss Stevens studied under Prof. Holtbuer in Lewiston, Ida., for more than a year and the professor is to be congratulated upon having brought to light such a talented young artiste.—Missoula Democrat.

Ladies Day at the Club.

Yesterday the Commercial and Athletic Club went into the hands of receivers, the lady friends of the club taking complete charge of everything in sight. By a resolution of the trustees, passed some time ago, each Thursday is set apart for the ladies, and yesterday was the first of the days so observed. From 1 p. m. to 6 the beauty and fashion of the town were well represented in the club rooms. The gentlemen had generously distributed their cards, so that the delegation of visitors was large.

The bowling alley was the scene of most interest, and here it was the ladies spent most of their time endeavoring to throw the balls so they would keep on the narrow path. Miss Sula Ruch proved the most successful and carried off the bowling honors with a score of 20. The billiard table and gymnasium were well patronized, and altogether the ladies much appreciated the afternoon's diversion.

All the club lacked was the hearty support of the ladies, and that deficiency is now most satisfactorily filled.
