Rev. Dr. Grant returned to Portland by the Regulator this morning. He expressed himself as being well pleased with the reception given him last evening on the occasion of his lecture at the Methodist church. Unfortunately our reporter was not present at the meeting, and is therefore unable to give a synopsis of this remarks, which we learn was very entertaining. They were replete with facts and figures and were well received by the large audience present.

In regard to the Brownie entertainment, which Miss Vandereol will give in connection with the young lady friends of the Methodist church at the opera house next Friday evening, a Corvallis paper says: "The Brownies furnished a great deal of amusement for the elder people and simply delighted the children. Their queer antics and strange pranks and capers kept the audiences in a roar. So clever were they at pantomime that the audience readily understood exactly what was being concocted. They were adepts at the football business, and the manner in which they hustled disabled members of the field provoked much merriment."

Two young gentlemen from the country, deciding that Second street was well adapted to testing the speed of their thoroughbreds, and at the same time to show the good people their proficiency in the art of riding, took a spin down that thoroughfare. But Marshal Blake-ney, thinking the majesty of the land had been infringed upon, introduced them to his honor, Judge Phelps, who kindly asked them to donate to the city treasury the sum of $5 each that the streets of The Dalles might be kept in proper condition for fast driving, so that other people who have good horses would be induced to go and do likewise. They kindly consented, and we may look for further improvements on our streets right away.

Last Night's Concert.

A charming event in musical circles was the concert given in the Congregational church last evening by Miss Jones and Miss Stevens. The audience room was well occupied by music lovers who had gathered in anticipation of a pleasant evening—a condition which attained full realization. The program began with a selection, "Trust Her Not," excellently sung by a quartette consisting of Mrs. Price, Mrs. Varney, Mr. Crandall and Dr. Doane. The appearance of Miss Stevens was the signal of hearty applause, which the young lady fully justified by her playing of "Le Dernier Sourire" by Wolfenhaupt. Miss Jones then sang "Good Bye Sweet Day" in a beautiful manner and in response to an encore sang a pretty Welsh ballad. The rendering of Schubert Impromptu Op 142 by Miss Stevens showed to good advantage her musical powers and brought from the audience a hearty encore. "As the Dawn," sung by Miss Jones, was one of the prettiest pieces of the evening.

The first number in the second part of the program a solo "I Fear No foe," sung by Dr. Doane. The doctor, who is an evertime favorite before a Dalles audience, received a hearty encore. The "Creole Lover's Song" by Miss Jones increased her popularity, as it gave an excellent opportunity for the young lady to display the remarkable sweetness of her voice. Chopin's Polonaise Op 40 as played by Miss Stevens was the choice instrumental selection of the evening and certainly deserved an encore. Her playing was brilliant, her touch delicate and technique faultless. Altogether Miss Stevens is one of the most accomplished musicians we have ever heard. A "Scythe Song" and an "Irish Folk Song" by Miss Jones and the rendition of Litoff's "Spinnerleid" by Miss Stevens closed the evening's entertainment.

These young ladies fully established their popularity with Dalles people and should they ever again give our music lovers an opportunity of enjoying their talents they may be certain of a crowded house.

Miss Jones is a pupil of Mrs. Kinsman Mann. Miss Stevens is a pupil of Miss Francis Jones. They certainly do great credit to their instructors.

The Battle of the Ballots.

The attention of most of our citizens is being taken up this afternoon with the Republican primaries. All morning the politicians were actively engaged in fixing slates and preparing tickets for the afternoon fight. Two sets of tickets are in the field, but the contest, while more or less animated, is free from personalities. The vote in the early hours of the afternoon was not large, and unless the polls are more freely patronized later on, the vote will not be large. While the tickets have no headings it is understood in the four precincts the same factors were at work. One set is as follows: East Dalles Precinct—Horace Rice, F. D. Creighton, L. L. McCartney, A.

Winans, J. W. Koontz, Francis Ross and J. S. Taylor.

Bigelow Precinct—A. R. Thompson, A. A. Bonney, Chas. Dietzel, Simeon Bolton, Isaac Joles and Hugh Chrisman. Trevitt Precinct—J. S. Schenck, I. N. Sargent, Wm. Glasius, T. T. Nicholas, W. H. Jones and E. J. Collins.

West Dalles Precinct—T. A. Hudson, W. E. Walther, Geo. Runyon, A. J. Anderson and Andrew Urganhart.

The other ticket reads thus: East Dalles Precinct—Joe Erhart, Frank Gabel, Wm. Floyd, C. E. Chrisman, Frank Kraemer, Joel W. Koontz and John Wagonblast.

Bigelow Precinct—J. M. Patterson, L. F. Crowe, W. G. Kerns, F. E. Bronsen, L. Rorden and H. L. Kuck.

Trevitt Precinct—M. T. Nolan, J. S. Schenck, W. H. Jones, N. J. Sinnott, W. H. Moody and T. T. Nicholas.

West Dalles Precinct—T. A. Hudson, Chas. Schmidt, W. E. Walther, Walter Klint and F. S. Gunning.

As the polls will not close till 7 o'clock the result cannot be known till 1 p. m. after we have gone to press.
