WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

Buy a pair of fine shoes of John Hertz and get a ticket for six shines free. 2t. Train No. 7, which leaves here at 2:30 p. m., from today, arrives in Portland at 6 p. m.

A fearful rain and thunder storm occurred at Umatilla yesterday, which seemed to have the center of the storm yesterday.

There was a tremendous passenger list on the Regulator last night. About a hundred passengers stepped off the boat when it reached The Dalles.

"The Confederate Spy" will be produced on Tuesday, April 14th. The box sheet will be open at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store next Saturday forenoon.

A big sturgeon, weighing 400 pounds dressed, was caught in the Columbia yesterday by Sam Thurman, a well-known river fisherman. It was shipped this morning to Seattle.

As an example of the cheaper rates of water transportation, two young ladies arrived in the city last night from Eugene, the trip having been made entirely by water. Their fares cost them $4 each.

Kalich & Dunning's fishing outfit came up on the Regulator to Hood River last night. It consisted of men, boats, seines, horses, etc., a complete outfit necessary for salmon fishing on the Columbia.

Five lots, three with houses on them, the property of A. Kennedy, will be sold at sheriff's sale next Monday. The lots include the dwelling house occupied for many years by the Kennedy family, who have failed to pay a mortgage when it came due. Arthur Kennedy will try to redeem the house and lot where the old folks lived, if it happens to be bid in separately.

Constable Trana of the Locks arrested Chas. Gray last night at Hood River, who, it is alleged, absconded from H. C. Hickok the sum of $84 at the Locks. Trana took the same train as his prisoner, apprehending him at Hood River on the "blind baggage." He brought him to The Dalles on the same train and left for the Locks with his prisoner on the Regulator this morning.

A delegation of ladies took the Regulator this morning for the Locks to meet the state grand chief of the Degree of Honor, Mrs. Gault of McMinnville, and past grand chief, Mrs. Young of Portland. The delegation consisted of Mesdames Ollie S. Stephens, chief at The Dalles; Joles, Laureisen, Buchler, Rorden, Crooks, Filloon, Wand and Young. All will return this evening and tomorrow night will celebrate the founding of the lodge in this city.

COUNTY DEMOCRATS

Meet at the Courthouse and Nominate a Full Ticket.

The Democratic county convention met at the county courthouse at 10 o'clock, and shortly after Mr. S. B. Adams called the meeting to order and read the call. At its conclusion he announced that nominations would be in order for temporary chairman, and F. A. Seufert nominated Mr. E. B. Dufur. There were no other nominations and he was unanimously elected.

Mr. Dufur thanked the convention for the honor of electing him as temporary chairman, and followed with a brief but neat speech, in which he stated the greatest honor that could be conferred upon him was the maintenance of harmony while he presided. "I assume," he said, "that we all must recognize that we are in a minority, and that our selection of a county ticket must necessarily be men in whose honesty and integrity we all have confidence—men who will have the respect of the voting community. This is the duty of all good Democrats and Americans, and one cannot be a true American unless he is a true Democrat."

Nominations for secretary were then declared to be in order, and S. F. Blythe was nominated by Aaron Frazier of Dufur. He declined, and J. L. Story nominated Joseph Bonn, jr., as a compliment to the young democracy. He was unanimously elected, as was also John M. Filloon, assistant secretary.

J. B. Crossen moved that a committee of five be appointed on credentials. The committee chosen was J. B. Crossen, Bigelow; Isaac Driver, Wamic; W. H. VanBibber, West Dalles; Joseph Wingfield, 8-Mile; C. R. Bone, West Hood River.

J. L. Story moved that a committee of five be appointed on order of business and permanent organization. The committee as summoned was J. L. Story, Trevitt; F. A. Seufert, East Dalles; R. H. Lonsdale, Bigelow; John Johnson, Dufur; Thos Glavey, Kingsley.

S. B. Adams moved that a committee of five be appointed on resolutions. The committee selected was S. B. Adams, D. L. Cates, S. F. Blythe, A. S. Mac Allister and R. H. Weber.

On motion of F. A. Seufert, the convention ratified the selection of committees.

Aaron Frazier of Dufur then read a resolution, which he had emanated from a convention of Democrats assembled at Dufur, which he would place in the hands of the committee on resolutions. The substance of the resolution was for the free coinage of gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1; also a resolution looking to the reduction of salary of all positions under the government, and a reduction in number of salaried positions. He supported the resolution by a speech of about ten minutes' length, and was frequently applauded. Hon. John Michel was observed in the rear of the hall listening intently to the argument, but the expression of his face betokened a possible difference of opinion. The convention adjourned until 1 o'clock to await the report of the committees.

Re-assembling at 1:15 o'clock, the committee on credentials reported the following entitled to seats in the convention:

The report was adopted by the convention.

The committee on order of business reported first that the temporary organization be made permanent; second, that the delegates to the state convention be selected first; third, that the county ticket be taken up, selecting candidates first for coroner and to the higher offices in rotation. Report adopted.

The committee on resolutions reported, recommending that the resolution from Dufur preclude be reported back to the convention, and recommended the adoption of the following. It tables Frazier's resolution, but he got in his speech previously:

Resolved, That the county officers nominated shall pledge themselves, if elected, to use all their endeavors for a
