

A SPECIFIC —FOR— La Grippe, for Colds, Coughs, AND LUNG TROUBLES, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

"Two years ago, I had the grippe, and it left me with a cough which gave me no rest night or day. My family physician prescribed for me, changing the medicine as often as he found the things I had taken were not helping me, but, in spite of his attendance, I got no better. Finally, my husband,—reading one day of a gentleman who had had the grippe and was cured by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,—procured for me, a bottle of this medicine, and before I had taken half of it, I was cured. I have used the Pectoral for my children and in my family, whenever we have needed it, and have found it a specific for colds, coughs, and lung troubles."—EMILY WOOD, North St., Elkton, Md.

A HALF TO EACH SIDE.

Baker referred to the fact that the nomination was conceded to Eastern Oregon, and he declared that Baker county had never received any distinct recognition at the hands of any Republican convention for any important political office. He eulogized Rand as an honorable and loyal man and Republican.

The nominating speeches were not very long, and were all in good taste. The convention lost no time in getting to the work of balloting. The tellers quickly gathered the ballots, and when Judge Carey was reached, he arose and said:

"I take pleasure in casting 23 votes from Multnomah county for W. R. Ellis."

This, of course, provoked cheers.

When the regular delegation was reached, Judge Mallory, who had been elected chairman, saw Carey's grandstand play in the following:

"I take especial pleasure in casting Multnomah county's 23 votes for M. A. Moody." (Cheers.)

During the progress of the ballot there was great tension on the part of the convention. It was seen that Moody and Ellis were running very even. There was no little anxiety on the part of spectators to know if the trade by which Mr. Ellis secured the votes of the Frank faction could be at once successful. It developed that it was not yet to be free silver's turn to yell. The vote was as follows:

Ellis, 51; Moody, 49; Rand, 14; blank, 1.

Ellis lacked seven votes of nomination. About this time Mr. Paxton, of Multnomah, sent a facetious note to Brown, of Morrow, anxiously inquiring if he had any telegrams from Washington announcing whether Mr. Ellis would stand on the St. Louis platform, if nominated and elected. Mr. Paxton had in mind the Hermann telegram read in the Albany convention Tuesday. Brown read the note, assumed a noncommittal look, said nothing and shoved the note in his pocket.

It was generally believed that for the second ballot Rand's strength would break for Ellis, and the expectation was not disappointed. Ellis came within one of nomination, the vote standing, Ellis 57, Moody 52, Rand 6. There was a great cheer from the Carey faction when the vote was announced.

Ellis was nominated on the third ballot, receiving 62 votes. When the 58th vote in the count was reached the convention broke into a great cheer. The Ellis men and Carey faction went into an ecstasy of delight. Hats were thrown into the air, umbrellas and canes waved, and bedlam broke loose generally. Free silver and its great ally, the Carey faction, were strictly in it. When the vote was announced there was another cheer.

FOR DELEGATES.

The free-silver issue was again brought out squarely on the vote for delegates to the national convention. Hendley and Bourne are for free silver, and Parrish and McCamant are for sound money. The result was remarkably close, and resulted in the defeat of free silver. It was as follows: Parrish, 60; McCamant, 58; Bourne, 58; Hendley, 58. The Carey faction and the free-silver men looked a little dazed when the result was announced. There were loud calls for McCamant, and he responded in an eloquent speech. Parrish likewise made a short speech.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Bybee returned to Fishers Landing this morning.

William E. Campbell, U. S. deputy surveyor, returned from Portland on the Regulator yesterday evening.

Mr. Jess Dunbar of Goldendale, who has been attending the Portland Business College during the winter, came up on the noon train.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Jewett and daughter, Mrs. Thompson of Portland, and Miss Southwick of Salem went to White Salmon on the boat this morning.

"Cadet" Steel, a young lady belonging to the Salvation Army, who has been at the training garrison in Portland, arrived on the noon train considerably broken down in health, caused from a severe cold.

Mrs. Kate J. Young of Portland, who has been the guest of Mrs. C. F. Stephens for the past few days, returned to Portland this morning, being accompanied to the Cascades by Mrs. Stephens.

Mrs. Julia A. Gault of McMinnville, grand chief Degree of Honor, and Mrs. Kate J. Young of Portland, past grand chief, returned to their homes this morning on the Regulator. They were accompanied to the Locks by Mrs. C. F. Stephens and Mrs. Capt. Waud.

Mr. George Ernest Stewart left this morning for a three weeks' absence to his old home in Hillsboro. Mr. Stewart was injured in the back by a fall from a bicycle some time ago, resulting in peritonitis, and he will undergo a surgical operation by the family doctor at Hillsboro.

Oregon Pioneers.

Mr. S. L. Brooks has received a letter from Geo. H. Himes, secretary of the Oregon Pioneers, Portland, in which he says: "Remember, this is the 50th year since Oregon cut off Great Britain's apron string. We are to have a jubilee June 16th. Want to hear from everybody who came before June 16th, 1846."

The efforts of the secretary to secure a list of all who come to or were born in Oregon—the original Oregon—prior to June 15, 1846, is meeting with a gratifying response. It is important, in a historic sense that this list be made as full as possible, and that the detailed information, as shown by the headings, shall be accurately filled out; also that a photograph of each person, if possible, shall be sent to the secretary for permanent preservation. In order to secure further information he will mail a blank to each individual, which may be filled out and returned to him, containing additional historic data. Not only is this requested from all who came to Oregon prior to June 15, 1846, but from all others who arrived in the state prior to February 14, 1850, who have not yet had their names enrolled on the pioneer association's records.

The celebration will be held in Portland June 16th. Hon. George H. Williams has consented to deliver the annual address.

Hon. T. W. Davenport, on account of ill health, has declined to give the occasional address, although it is likely he will prepare an historic paper to be read at the time.

Mrs. W. J. Plymale of Jackson county, a pioneer of 1846, and a journalist of many years experience, will give the occasional address. Her long and intimate acquaintance with many of the noteworthy pioneers, both men and women, of the early days, peculiarly qualifies her to prepare a most interesting address, which, as the occasional address is intended to be, will be largely of a sketchy and reminiscent character.

Married.

Mr. Harry Macey and Miss Ella Van Duyn were married at 2 p. m. yesterday afternoon by Rev. J. H. Wood. The wedding was a private affair, only a few friends of the contracting parties being present. After congratulations they were regaled with a fine lunch.

THE NAME OF THE NEXT PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES WILL BE ANNOUNCED IN THE New York Weekly Tribune

Of November 4th, 1896.

Public interest will steadily increase, and the question how the men whose votes turned the scale at the last election are satisfied with the results under the administration they elected, will make the campaign the most intensely exciting in the history of the country.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

the leading Republican family newspaper of the United States, will publish all the political news of the day, interesting to every American citizen regardless of party affiliations.

Also general news in attractive form. Foreign correspondence covering the news of the world; an agricultural department second to none in the country; market reports which are recognized authority; fascinating short stories, complete in each number; the cream of the humorous papers, foreign and domestic, with their best comic pictures, fashion, plates and elaborate descriptions of woman's attire, with a varied and attractive department of household interest. The "New York Weekly Tribune" is an ideal family paper, with a circulation larger than that of any other weekly publication in the country issued from the office of a daily. Large changes are being made in its details, tending to give it greater life and variety, and especially more interest to the women and young people of the household. A special contract enables us to offer this splendid journal and the "Semi-Weekly Chronicle" for
