IN THE MATTER OF A FIVE-DOLLAR BILL.

The recent experience of the Rev. D. W. Wisner, pastor of a large and influential congregation of colored Baptists, with the Hon. Caleb Simms is full of interest and suggestion, says the New York Tribune. It appears that a week ago last Sunday evening the Rev. Mr. Wisner, having arrived at his church a few minutes before the hour appointed for the service, was there accosted by a stranger, who after a hasty identification, handed him a letter. Mr. Wisner retired to his study and opened the letter, presumably supposing that it requested the prayers of the congregation for a sick person. To his surprise it contained a five-dollar bill, which he was desired to accept as a slight token of Mr. Simms' appreciation of his efforts to uplift the colored race, together with a postscript suggesting that the service which was about to begin would afford a favorable opportunity of announcing from the pulpit that a mass meeting of colored citizens would be shortly held in the interest of Governor Morton's candidacy for president of the United States. Mr. Wisner was much impressed by the evident sincerity of Mr. Simms, but under the circumstances he felt constrained to suppress the notice of the mass meeting, and furthermore, as a guarantee of good faith, to return the five-dollar bill, which he did not see his way clear to expending as an uplifter of the colored race. Unfortunately, the committee appointed by the Colored Ministers' Conference to wait on Mr. Simms and reinvest him with his testimonial was unable to find him, and the money is still in the possession of Mr. Wisner, who expresses his intention of placing it in Mr. Simms' hands at his earliest convenience.

Mr. Wisner's decision in this matter is sustained not only by consideration of abstract justice, but also by a strong and notable precedent. It will be remembered that during the late presidential campaign Mr. James J. Van Alen, having transmitted to the Democratic national committee a check for $50,000, together with an intimation of his willingness to accept the Italian mission in case of Mr. Cleveland's election, was subsequently appointed to that office, but finally declined to accept it on account of the misunderstanding which had arisen as to his motives in contributing a considerable sum of money to the campaign fund.

It will be remembered also that just previous to Mr. Van Alen's act of renunciation several high-minded gentlemen, to whom Mr. Cleveland's consecration was a very serious and precious matter, resolved that Mr. Van Alen's money ought to be returned to him as a condition precedent to his withdrawal, and promptly made liberal contributions to a fund for that purpose, thus establishing a rule of procedure in similar cases which is not in the slightest degree invalidated by the circumstance that the fund was never completed, and that Mr. Van Alen did not, so far as is known, choose to accept the installment which they had collected from one another.

A BRIDE FOR THE ASKING.

Pleasant Way of Selecting a Wife Practiced in Naples.
In the church of Santa Maria Annunziata, at Naples, girls assemble once a year for the purpose of being chosen in marriage. On the day of Our Lady, before its altar kneels a silent row of 30 girls dressed in black, and with folded hands. They are orphans of the neighboring foundling asylum, and once a year those who have reached the age of 18 have a chance of being chosen in marriage by any honest man whose character is good. At the door leading to the sacristy, stands the Richmond Star, a gray-haired priest, the head of the foundling institution. By and by a young man approaches him and hands him a packet of papers. These the priest reads carefully, and, being satisfied, leads the candidate toward the row of girls. The man walks slowly along the row—at last he stops; his choice is made, and he stretches out his hand. The girl rises, puts out her hand into that of the stranger by way of consent, and together they disappear into the sacristy. The ice having been broken others follow, and this goes on until the suitors are exhausted, or all the girls have been chosen.

Not Scientific.

A song with the title: "There's a Sigh in the Heart," was sent by a young man to his sweetheart; but the paper fell into the hands of the girl's father, a very unsentimental physician, who exclaimed: "What wretched, unscientific rubbish is this? Who ever heard of such a case?" He wrote on the outside: "Mistaken diagnosis; no sigh in the heart possible. Sighs relate almost entirely to the lungs and diaphragm!"

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address:

Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.
Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed on exhibit at the world's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the world's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."
If there is any one thing that needs to be purified, it is politics, so the reformer says, and many agree thereto. But blood tells, and as a blood purifier and liver corrector Simmons Liver Regulator is the best medicine. "I use it in preference to any other."—So wrote Mr. S. H. Hysell, of Middleport, Ohio. And Dr. D. S. Russell, of Farmville, Va., writes, "It fulfills all you promise for it."

The pains in his chest were so severe that he had spasms and was threatened with pneumonia. His father gave him several large doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which broke up the cough and cured him. Mr. McFarland says whenever his children have croup he invariably gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always cures them. He considers it the best cough remedy in the market. Two Lives Saved.
Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City Ill. was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00.

Blakeley & Houghton desire us to publish the following extract from a letter of Chas. M. Gutfield of Reedley, Fresno county, Calif., as they handle the remedy referred to and want their customers to know what a splendid medicine it is: "It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy I was relieved of a very bad cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy." A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs.
