A SPECIFIC

La Grippe, for Colds, Coughs, AND LUNG TROUBLES,

R'S CHERRY PECTORAL

"Two years ago, I had the grippe, and it left me with a cough which gave me no rest night or day. My family physician prescribed for me, changing the medicine as often as he found the things I had taken were not helping me, but, in spite of his attendance, I got no better. Finally, my husband,-reading one day of a gentleman who had had the grippe and was cured by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,-procured, for me, a bottle of this medicine, and before I had taken half of it, I was cured. I have used the Pectoral for my children and in my family, whenever we have needed it, and have found it a specific for colds, coughs, and lung troubles."-EMILY WOOD, North St., Elkton, Md.

A BAND TOURNAMENT.

Mr. J. G. Miller Proposes to Fill Our City With Music.

Mr. J. G. Miller, a very progressive citizen of The Dalles, the publisher of a gives almost instant relief. One trial musical journal called "Harmony," and a thorough musician, has inaugurated and is pushing a most praiseworthy scheme which has operated in the East with amazing success, and now wants the Pacific coast to share or rather dupli- my family and for myself, with result so cate that success. It is for the forms. entirely satisfactory that I can hardly tion of a "Northwestern Band Associa- find words to express myself as to its tion," comprising the states of Oregon merit. There is to be no rivalry, no chance for hard feelings, but on the contrary, such a grand good time, with musical round-ups, excursions and social intercourse as will promote the friendliest feeling and good fellowship between communities it is possible to mature.

Circulars have just been sent to various bands by Mr. Miller throughout the regulate the world," said a genius. The two states, and letters of acceptance have come from Antelope and Corvallis. Little Early Risers, the famous little Colfax and Dayton, Wash., will also pills. For sale by Snipes-Kinersley probably be here, as they have already Drug Co. expressed their hearty co-operation. Salem has a very fine band which it is thought will be present. The first of the five days' session will be one of rein a glad overture of welcome, which will be responded to by the visiting bands. The second day will be a grand parade of all the bands, the lead band playing a march, its last note to be taken up by the first note of the band following, and so on through the line without losing a beat. The third day, the bands will unite, all playing the same selection.

As there will be anyway ten bands at a insolvent debtor.

safe estimate, or about 125 musicians, the volume of sound will be something grand, the like of which has never been heard in the West. Concerts will also be given in the opera house. It is propo ed that this meeting will be held some time in September, and Mr. Miller is working hard and will continue to work to perfect all the details. It is the plan for the visiting bands to pay their own expenses of coming and going, and the city to pay their expenses while here. There is no doubt it will attract many hundred visitors to the city, and is really the most alluring class of tour naments that could be imagined.

A Wealthy Rallroad Fireman.

A young man in blue overalls and a greasy cap and jacket is now employed as fireman on the Long Island railroad. He is George D. Pratt, the son of the late Charles Pratt, the multi-millionaire Standard Oil prince. Young Pratt was graduated from Amherst college with honors in 1893. As one of the representatives of his father's estate, who is the second largest stockholder of the Long Island Ratiroad company, he pro-poses to learn the railroad business through every grade, from laborer up. He started in the car shops at Morris Park, and after service at the bench, the forge and in the assembling-room, he learned how to use tools, how every part of a locomotive is made, and how the whole is put together. After having served the requisite apprenticeship in that department, he jumped into the locomotive cab and commenced shoveling coal in the capacity of a fireman.

Prisoner's Retorts.

Prisoners have a fair proportion of 'happy answers" credited to them. Of these, perhaps, the best known are those of the man who, wher asked if he pleaded "guilty or not guilty," replied that he couldn't say until he had heard the evidence; and the naive response of the prisoner to the usual question before sentence: "Have you anything to say, prisoner, before sentence is pronounced upon you?" very kind of your honor, and if it's quite agreeable to the court I should like to say 'good evening.' "

Leprosy in Iceland.

There are lepers in Iceland-about 200 in all. Now an enthusiastic priest has determined to follow heroic Father Damien's example—to devote himself wholly to the care of the unfortunates. Already he has raised 10,000 francs and is promised enough more to assure the early erection of a comfortable
