

A SPECIFIC -FOR-
La Grippe, for Colds, Coughs,
AND LUNG TROUBLES,
AYER'S CHERRY
PECTORAL

"Two years ago, I had the grippe, and it left me with a cough which gave me no rest night or day. My family physician prescribed for me, changing the medicine as often as he found the things I had taken were not helping me, but, in spite of his attendance, I got no better. Finally, my husband,—reading one day of a gentleman who had had the grippe and was cured by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,—procured, for me, a bottle of this medicine, and before I had taken half of it, I was cured. I have used the Pectoral for my children and in my family, whenever we have needed it, and have found it a specific for colds, coughs, and lung troubles."—EMERY WOOD, North St., Elkton, Md.

POLITICAL NEWS.

North Dakota voices for McKinley and against free silver. They also renew their devotion to the policy of protection.
Nebraska Republicans selected McKinley delegates. H. A. Thompson, of St. Louis, a member of the executive committee of the advisory board of the A. P. A., arrived in Omaha direct from the Cincinnati meeting of the board, at which it was decided to oppose the nomination of McKinley.

A New Kansas Novel.

Aitchison Globe.
An Aitchison woman is writing a love story in which the cathode ray plays a prominent part. The heroine turns the cathode ray on a young man's pocket-book, and finds it full, and his heart empty. She at once makes advances, and the young man follows her lead. He takes trick after trick by his skillful plays in the game, and is about to ask for her hand, when a friend suggests that the girl has another lover on the string. He turns the cathode ray on her heart, and finds that he occupies a very small space in it. Discouraged, he commits suicide, and the girl who has learned to love him for himself too late spends the rest of her life in taking solitary rambles to the cemetery, where she daily turns the cathode ray on his grave, in order to gaze again and again upon his features, and see how he is getting on. It is expected that the story will make a great hit.

How to Cure Rheumatism.
ARAGO, Cooe Co., Oregon, Nov. 10, 1893.—I wish to inform you of the great good Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done my wife. She has been troubled with rheumatism of the arms and hands for six months, and has tried many remedies prescribed for that complaint, but found no relief until she used this Pain Balm; one bottle of which has completely cured her. I take pleasure in recommending it for that trouble. Yours truly, C. A. Bullard. 50 cents and $1.00 bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.

LONG AND SHORT LEGS.
Irregularities in Land Divisions Due to the Manner of Measurement.

It is a commonly accepted theory that a man steps three feet, and many a tract of land has been "stepped off" instead of measured with a chain. In the west they obviate the difficulties of surveys by the land being divided into sections, but in Pennsylvania much of the property, especially in the mountains, must still be described by metes and bounds. In one of the counties in western Pennsylvania, says the Washington Star, are two brothers, one of whom is tall and lank, the other short and fat. Many years ago they purchased a tract of mountain land calling for a mile square. They divided the labor of measuring it, one stepping off one side, the other the other side. Then they fenced it in and were perfectly satisfied until recently when suit was brought to recover a considerable tract of the land. Each brother swore that they knew the measurement to be right, and told how it had been done. Then, as the spectators saw the short legs of the one, scarcely long enough to reach the floor when he sat in a chair, and the elongated extremities of the other, there was a general laugh, in which the judge and attorney joined. Upon surveying, it was found that one line was a mile and half long, and the other only a little over half a mile.

Those Relations of Ours.

A British gentleman who has recently died has said that "a man's mother is his misfortune, while his wife is his fault." This cynical harshness loses some of its unpleasantness when the writer goes on to explain that, while one's friends are his choice, his relatives are thrust upon him, and no one is so angelic as not to confess that there are occasionally cases where the tyranny of kin is most lamentable. The scapegrace cousin, the tedious aunt, the graff uncle who delights in humiliating the family, even the drunken father or the hoydenish sister are too well known to be denied.

If there is any one thing that needs to be purified, it is politics, so the reformer says, and many agree thereto. But blood tells, and as a blood purifier and liver corrector Simmons' Liver Regulator is the best medicine. "I use it in preference to any other."—So wrote Mr. S. H. Hysell, of Middleport, Ohio. And Dr. D. S. Russell, of Farmville, Va., writes, "It fulfills all you promise for it."

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. For sale by Snipes-Kinnersley Drug Co.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with result so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." For sale by Snipes-Kinnersley, Drug Co.

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. Snipes-Kinnersley, Drug Co.
