

UNTOLD MISERY FROM RHEUMATISM
C. H. King, Water Valley, Miss., cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For five years, I suffered untold misery from muscular rheumatism. I tried every known remedy, consulted the best physicians, visited Hot Springs, Ark., three times, spending $1000 there, besides doctors' bills; but could obtain only temporary relief. My flesh was wasted away so that I weighed only ninety-three pounds; my left arm and leg were drawn out of shape, the muscles being twisted up in knots. I was unable to dress myself, except with assistance, and could only hobble about by using a cane. I had no appetite, and was assured, by the doctors, that I could not live. The pains, at times, were so awful, that I could procure relief only by means of hypodermic injections of morphia. I had my limbs bandaged in clay, in sulphur, in poultices; but these gave only temporary relief. After trying everything, and suffering the most awful tortures, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Inside of two months, I was able to walk without a cane. In three months, my limbs began to strengthen, and in the course of a year, I was cured. My weight has increased to 165 pounds, and I am now able to do my full day's work as a railroad blacksmith."

Announcement.

I wish to announce to the dealers and the smoking public that I am now manufacturing strictly first-class cigars in The Dalles and am here to stay. I use nothing but the finest imported stock and can compete successfully with Eastern and imported goods, because the import duty and freight is much less on raw material than it is on manufactured goods. My eighteen years experience makes me duly qualified to select the finest stock, on which my success depends. My "Regulator" brand is made by hand of Havana tobacco grown in the famous Vuelta Abajo district of Cuba; there is nothing finer in the world. Call for the "Regulator." It is a good thing, push it along.
Very respectfully,
apr24-dlw O. A. PETERSON.

FRUIT AS A MEDICINE.
More Virtue in a Basket of Berries Than in a Whole Drug Store.

Very few people are aware of the medicinal qualities of grapes; but these they possess. The pulp is nutritious, and the juice contains sugar, tannic acid, bitartrate of potassium, tartrate of calcium, common salt and sulphate of potassium. Without doubt, says Scientific American, the woman who cultivates the habit of eating a great deal of fruit is the gainer of health and appearance. The grapefruit, or shaddock, so called from its discoverer, Lieut. Shaddock, or, to mention its soft Chinese name, pumelo, is highly prized by those who live in malarial localities. It is a charming rival to quinine and bonaset, and is driving them from the field. She who eats her grapefruit with a spoon from the natural cup, or relishes it served as a salad, may gladden her heart with the reflection that she is not only pleasing her palate, but benefiting her health. Like oranges and lemons, the grapefruit has great medicinal virtues. If you are of a bilious temperament eat grapefruit; if fever threatens, eat grapefruit, but in this latter case do so only at the advice of a physician, as there may be certain tendencies which the grapefruit would only aggravate. The complaint is often made that the fruit is extremely bitter and unpleasant. It is only the white inner rind which is so, and this should be carefully removed.

THE COMING FAD.

A Well-Known Woman Thinks Her Sex Will Drive.
Mrs. John Stetson, of Boston, thinks that driving will be the chief amusement of the coming woman. She believes that the new woman, as well as the old-fashioned woman, can find few things in her life more enjoyable than a spin behind a good horse or team, and that, if she holds the reins herself, she will quickly learn that it adds immeasurably to her pleasure.
The exhilarating effect of the swift action, the bracing air filling the lungs and sending the blood dancing through the veins, the trout-like pull on the lines that communicates to the reinswoman something of the spirit of her horses, the absorbing interest felt in overcoming the little difficulties of the road, in negotiating abrupt turns and in meeting and passing other vehicles—well, there's nothing like it, according to this enthusiastic horsewoman, and if it is an "old woman" who started on the drive she will come home a "new woman" physically.

New York Weekly Tribune

Of November 4th, 1896.
Public interest will steadily increase, and the question how the men whose votes turned the scale at the last election are satisfied with the results under the administration they elected, will make the campaign the most intensely exciting in the history of the country.

The NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE,
the leading Republican family newspaper of the United States, will publish all the political news of the day, interesting to every American citizen regardless of party affiliations.
Also general news in attractive form. Foreign correspondence covering the news of the world; an agricultural department second to none in the country; market reports which are recognized authority; fascinating short stories, complete in each number; the cream of the humorous papers, foreign and domestic, with their best comic pictures, fashion plates and elaborate descriptions of woman's attire, with a varied and attractive department of household interest. The "New York Weekly Tribune" is an ideal family paper, with a circulation larger than that of any other weekly publication in the country issued from one office of a daily. Large changes are being made in its details, tending to give it greater life and variety, and especially more interest to the women and young people of the household. A special contract enables us to offer this splendid journal and the "Semi-Weekly Chronicle" for
