NO 100.

SHAH ASSASSINATED

Persia's Ruler Killed Friday, Near Teheran.

WAS SHOT THROUGH THE HEART

While Entering the Shrine of Shah Abdul Azim—Slayer Disguised as a Woman.

TEHERAN, Persia, May 1.—While Shah Nasir-ed-Din was entering the inner court of the shrine of Shah Abdul Azim, six miles south of this city, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, he was shot by a revolutionary fanatic. The ball entered in the region of the heart, and the shah expired within a few minutes.

Immediately after the shah was shot he was carried to his carriage and conveyed to his palace in this city.

The assassin, who was promptly arrested, is said to be a Sayyid, from Corman, or the province of that name. It is believed the murderer has accomplices.

Nasir-ed-Din acceded to the throne of Persia in 1848, at the age of 17 years.

CONTRABAND CHINESE.

Startling Arrests in Portland of Custom House Brokers.

PORTLAND, Or., April 1.—W. P. Swope, J. C. Dolan and Eugene Deument, arrested last evening by United States Marshal Grady on the charge of "conspiring, confederating and combining among themselves and with other divers evil-disposed people to violate certain laws of the United States, in that they aided and abetted the illegal landing of Chinese passengers from foreign ports, through the custom-house of Portland, knowing that said Chinese persons were prohibited from coming into this country."

At 4:30 p. m., Treasury Agent A. W. Chappelle swore to the warrants before United States Commissioner Sladen, and by 7 p. m. all three of the prisoners were landed in jail with bonds set at $2,000 each. The friends of Swope were at once to his rescue, and in short order a bail bond, with Thomas M. Richardson, John H. Hall and J. Couch Flanders as sureties, was filed and accepted, and Swope was released. He at once set to work to find bail for Dolan and Deument, but up to the time of examination this afternoon at 2 o'clock has not succeeded.

A STRANGLER CAUGHT.

Taken While Trying to Throttle a Colored Woman.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—Another supposed strangler is behind the bars of the city prison, and, unlike those who have preceded him, he is, in a measure, self-confessed, and was also caught in the very act of throttling a woman of the half-world in a dark and deserted alley off Montgomery street, near Washington. It was at an early hour this morning, when the crime was committed, and at that time, the electric lights being out, it was as dark as pitch.

Officer F. Robl, who patrols Montgomery street, was walking along his beat, when he was startled upon reaching Merchant alley to hear the gurgling sound of a strangling human being. His mind being full of the recent outrageous murders, he quickly arrived at the conclusion that another helpless woman was being assassinated, and rushed up the alley. Just as he reached the center of the block he heard a man's voice cry out:

"If you cry out I will strangle you to death as I did the other notorious women of your class."

This spurred him on in his search, and finally he spied a large man with his fingers clutched around the throat of a woman who was prostrate on the pavement. The would-be-assassin and the officer saw each other at the same time, and the former released his hold on his victim and sprang as if to escape, but Robl was too quick for him, and soon had him safely ironed.

The woman then got up and both were started for the California-street station. On reaching the light it was observed that the victim of the assault was a young colored woman. When they reached the station a messenger was dispatched for Detective Ben Bohn, and in the meantime the man was charged with assault and battery. He gave the name of John Lewis, and said he was an iron-molder by occupation. He failed, however, to explain the motive which led him to assault and nearly murder the woman.

YOUNG WOMAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Deserted by the Man With Whom She Eloped.

NEW YORK, May 1.—A young woman, who gave her name as Elmira Durand, and who claimed to be the daughter of a wealthy clothing merchant of New Orleans, attempted suicide by taking morphine. She was stopping at the residence of a Newark police officer named Adams. He noticed the young lady crying on the streets and learning her story sent her to his own home. A physician who was called in succeeded in saving her life. According to her statement, she ran away from New Orleans with Dr. De Lome, of New York. They arrived in this city last Tuesday on a steamer. The doctor promised to marry her, Miss Durand says, but disappeared mysteriously. Despondent over the turn things had taken, she attempted her life.

For a Military Reservation.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The president will probably soon issue an order setting apart the lands of the abandoned military reservation of Fort Townsend, Washington, as a military reservation for Fort Townsend post. This will be done by canceling an order issued April 1, 1895, which transferred control of the reservation from the war department to the interior department.

Burleigh Fight.

SEATTLE, May 1.—The Senator Squire and Burleigh factions in the Republican party that have been making such a hard fight to contest the primaries tomorrow in the interest of the respective candidates, are lying on their arms tonight, both claiming victory in sight. An impartial survey of the situation tonight indicates that Burleigh will win.
