

TURNING GRAY
AND THREATENED WITH BALDNESS

The Danger is Averted by Using
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation, and was so well satisfied with the result that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It stopped the hair from falling out, stimulated a new growth of hair, and kept the scalp free from dandruff. Only an occasional application is now needed to keep my hair of good, natural color. I never hesitate to recommend any of Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HAIGHT, Avoca, Neb.

THE CHURCHES.

Services as usual at the Christian church tomorrow. The evening subject is "The Seven Last Plagues."

Rev. O. D. Taylor, pastor of the First Baptist church, proposes to deliver three sermons concerning the knowledge of religious truth. He will preach the first of these sermons next Sunday morning. Subject—"Our Obligations to Investigate These Truths." The Lutheran church, Rev. L. Gray, pastor, will hold service in this house at 9:30 a. m. and 3 and 7 p. m. The Lutheran morning service will close promptly at 10:30, so that persons coming to the Baptist service need not fear disturbing the Lutheran service.

At the Congregational church, corner of Court and Fifth streets Sunday services as usual. At 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. worship, and a sermon by the pastor, W. C. Curtis. The subject of the morning sermon will be "Building the Walls of Jerusalem; of the evening sermon, "Revival methods, and our use of them." Sunday school immediately after the morning service. Meeting of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at 8:30 p. m. Topic—Be of Good Cheer. John xvi:22-33. All persons not worshipping elsewhere are cordially invited.

With the Juniors I. O. G. T. No. 2.

Yesterday afternoon about thirty five boys and girls met in their regular meeting in Fraternity hall. The young people had elected the officers for the present quarter at their last meeting, and they were duly installed by the Superintendent, Mrs. E. Joles, as follows: P. O. T., Helen Hudson; C. T., Nellie Clark; V. T., Katie Barrell; Chap., George Norman; Secy., Edna Van Dyke; F. S., Glenn Ferguson; Treas., Henrietta Kraft; Guard, Neddie Briggs; Marshal, Fred Wand; Sent., Henry Zimmerman; D. M., Lulu Blakeney.

We are pleased to see how well the boys and girls conducted the exercises of the lodge, and how much progress they have made in the last few months. All the boys and girls in town ought to join one of these temples and receive the instruction there given. They meet every Friday afternoon; one, the Independent, at Fraternity hall, and the other, Harmon, at the K. of P. hall. Mrs. E. Joles and Miss Edith Randall are the superintendents, and would be happy to see any of the boys and girls on Friday afternoons.

The two temples in The Dalles are jointly preparing a very pretty exercise for the grand lodge which meets here the first week in June. B. H.

Smiles Before Sunday.

Lawyer—I now offer in evidence a photograph of the broken heart of the plaintiff, taken by the Roentgen process.

Judge—Admitted. Let it be marked "Exhibit X."—Pack.

Weary Walker—Say, were you ever tarred and feathered?

Johnny Restful—Yes, once.

Weary Walker—How did you feel?

Johnny Restful—Like a bird.—Harvard Lampoon.

An Irishman, who was near-sighted and was about to fight a duel, insisted that he should stand six paces nearer to his antagonist than the latter did to him and they were both to fire at the same time. This beats Sheridan's telling about a fat man who was going to fight a thin one, that the latter's slim figure ought to be chalked on the other's portly person, and if the bullet hit him outside the line it was not to count.

We are sometimes led to wonder if all the wild and picturesque fools are not in the newspaper business. Every few days we hear of some one who offers to print the county treasurer's report, worth probably $50, for $3 or $4; will run the delinquent tax list for bare cost of composition; take job work at half price, if he can't get the regular price, and if he can't get it at half price will do it for less, and so on ad infinitum. A short time ago one of these cheerful idiots printed a $23 legal notice for $2.25 in order to keep it out of the Post. The idiot has vanished from sight, but we hope he is still alive and suffering at least a little of his wrong doing, and that he may yet repent, and be saved. Who ever heard of a lawyer writing a $20 brief for $2, or a doctor writing a 50-cent prescription for a nickel? What newspaper men need more than anything else is a little horse sense in their business transactions.—Blaine Post.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1 per bottle at the Snipes-Kinnersly drug store.

THE NAME OF THE NEXT

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES
WILL BE ANNOUNCED IN THE
New York Weekly Tribune

Of November 4th, 1896.

Public interest will steadily increase, and the question how the men whose votes turned the scale at the last election are satisfied with the results under the administration they elected, will make the campaign the most intensely exciting in the history of the country.

The NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE,

the leading Republican family newspaper of the United States, will publish all the political news of the day, interesting to every American citizen regardless of party affiliations.

Also general news in attractive form. Foreign correspondence covering the news of the world; an agricultural department second to none in the country; market reports which are recognized authority; fascinating short stories, complete in each number; the cream of the humorous papers, foreign and domestic, with their best comic pictures; fashion plates and elaborate descriptions of woman's attire, with a varied and attractive department of household interest. The "New York Weekly Tribune" is an ideal family paper, with a circulation larger than that of any other weekly publication in the country issued from the office of a daily. Large changes are being made in its details, tending to give it greater life and variety, and especially more interest to the woman and young people of the household. A special contract enables us to offer this splendid journal and the "Semi-Weekly Chronicle" for
