DEATH OF THE SHAH

Brought About By His Eld-est Son.

MAY ATTEMPT TO USURP THRONE

Discontent of the Sect on Which He Worked—The New Shah Pro-claimed.

LONDON, May 2.—It is rumored in this city that the assassination of the shah of Persia was brought about by the machinations of his eldest son, Massoud-Mirza, governor of Isaphan. The latter was born in 1850, while the new shah, second son of the deceased monarch, was born in 1853, but the latter is an offspring of a wife of higher rank, and thus was chosen to succeed his father in place of Massoud, his elder brother. The shah often rebuked Mirza for his unruliness, and in 1888 recalled him, and only allowed him to return to Isaphan after disbanding some of the regiments and ordering him to pay more than the usual tribute.

Massoud-Mirza, who is also known as the Zil-er-Sultan, or shadow of the kingdom, resented this treatment, and it was believed that he might make an attempt to usurp the throne.

Massoud-Mirza, who is enormously rich, is unpopular on account of his severity and intolerance, and on the other hand, Mozafar-ed-Din, the new shah, is much loved by the people of the province of Aerboijan, where the Persian army is chiefly recruited.

The discontent of the Babist sect, upon which Massoud-Mirza is believed to have worked, is due to the fact that the late shah did not allow them to establish their religion, his refusal to do so being based on representations made to his majesty that it would conflict with the existing faith in Persia, and split the people into religious factions. The Babists have always been kept in check, and little has been heard of them for some years past.

WHAT CONGRESS WILL DO.

The Senate Will Take Up the River and Harbor Bill This Week.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The senate programme for the next week is to first take up the river and harbor bill, and when that is disposed of, to follow with the bill making appropriations for the District of Columbia. Opinions differ very widely as to the time the river and harbor bill will consume, but no estimates place it at less than two or three days. Whether it shall go on longer will depend upon the political temper of the senate. If, as is not improbable, something should be said to open up a political debate similar to that of last week, there is no telling to what length the discussion may be drawn out. The managers will make a strenuous effort to keep politics and other questions in the background, and to hold the discussion down to the merits of the bill. This may be accomplished by a promise of an opportunity to discuss the Peffer bond resolution, or some other question before adjournment.

The principal subject of debate in the bill itself is the amendments suggested by the committee on commerce, providing for the expenditure of $3,000,000 for the improvement of the harbor of Santa Monica, Cal. Senator White will offer an amendment making the appropriation dependent upon the recommendation of a committee of engineers, and, in case the amendment is lost, will make an effort to defeat the entire proposition. He will be supported by five or six members of the committee on commerce, especially by Senator Berry. They will make an effort to show that the appropriation has been provided for at the instance of the Southern Pacific railroad, and it is not improbable that there may be a foretaste of Pacific railroad discussion in this connection.

There will be an effort during the week on the part of Republican senators to agree on an order of business for the remainder of the session.

SHIPS FOR THE NAVY.

Naval Appropriation Bill Passed the Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—After a week's debate, which has taken a wide range, the senate today passed the naval appropriation bill. The entire day was given up to the subject. A large part of the time set apart for general debate was devoted to political questions foreign to the immediate subject. The bill, as it passed is substantially as it was reported from the committee on appropriations, except the reduction of the number of battle-ships from four to two, and the torpedo-boats from 15 to 13.

An amendment was adopted providing for the construction of three of the torpedo-boats on the Pacific coast.

"FORM" IN BICYCLING.

How Society People Go a Wheeling—Attending Grooms and Maids.

The "form" of bicycling is beginning to be studied. Grooms on wheels must follow their mistresses as they did on horseback; it is probably only a question of a short time when the lady's maid will have to include wheeling with her other accomplishments to secure a situation. On the road the woman who wishes to ride a la mode has to know a number of little things that are overlooked by another woman, just as the smart set have a code for riding and driving that is as inexorable as that they should not eat with their knives or put sugar on oysters. Society insists on an upright position, with, of course, no attempt at racing pace. It also frowns upon constant ringing of the bell—that will do for the vulgar herd who delight in noise; the well-informed wheelwoman keeps eyes and ears alert and touches her bell rarely.
