BASE INGRATITUDE

Shah's Assassin One of His Pensioners.

HAD BEEN CONVICTED OF TREASON

But Was Liberated and Pensioned by Nasr-ed-Din—Police Authorities Blamed.

TEHRAN, May 4.—(Copyright, Associated Press.)—It has been definitely ascertained that the assassin of the late shah of Persia, Nasr-ed-Din, is Mollah Reza, follower of a well-known agitator, Sheikh Jemi Aleddin, who was exiled in 1891, after having been convicted of high treason. Reza was also imprisoned for treason, but was subsequently liberated.

After his release he continued his attacks upon the government, and again imprisoned and once more released and was actually granted a pension by the shah. In spite of the clemency shown him, Reza continued his agitation against the government and when warned that he would again be arrested, he suddenly left this city.

He was next heard of at Constantinople. Instructions were telegraphed to that city to have the Persian agitator closely watched. Additional reports from Constantinople advised the government that Reza was corresponding with Sheikh Jemi Aleddin, when, it is presumed, their plans for the assassination of the shah were laid.

About two months ago Reza quietly left Constantinople and for a time all trace of him was lost. Recently his presence here has been known to the police authorities and they are blamed for not having caused his arrest. They excuse themselves on the ground that the late shah's clemency to the assassin was exercised under the belief, founded on reports of physicians, that Reza was of unsound mind and it was believed that even if taken into custody once more, he would only be released by the shah. Reza has been closely questioned by the judicial authorities. At first he professed to have acted entirely of his own accord and in the interests of his people to whom, he claimed, reforms to which they were justly entitled, had been refused.

Later the prisoner confessed that the assassination of the shah was the outcome of a long-planned conspiracy. He was chosen to do the deed, and waited two months for a favorable chance to shoot the shah. The assassin also admitted that upon many occasions he had succeeded in approaching the late shah under various disguises, but it was not until Friday last, in the mosque of Shah Abdul Azin, that he got near enough to fire the fatal shot.

The murderer has admitted that eight persons were in the conspiracy. Two, who have been arrested, are the prisoner's nieces. They were domestics employed in the harem of the shah. Reza has confessed that the girls kept the conspirators informed regarding the movements of the shah, and Friday morning the chosen assassin was informed that the shah intended to visit the shrine of Sultan Abdul Azin. Finally Reza informed the authorities that he intended to commit suicide by blowing out his brains, but was disarmed before he could carry out his intention.

THE PINAR DEL RIO BATTLE.

All Havana Discussing Antonio Maceo's Late Victory.

NEW YORK, May 4.—A Herald dispatch from Havana, says:

All Havana is anxiously discussing the battle in the mountains of Pinar del Rio province. It is believed that the insurgents who persistently attacked General Yncian's troops far back from Caracajicara to the sea, was led by Maceo in person. The stronghold stormed by Yncian's forces was not, properly speaking, a fort. There is an old ranch on the top of the stony hill at Caracajicara, whose sides form a precipitous descent to the road which winds through bold rocks and are not wide enough for a column to spread out to advantage. There is little timber or brush around there. The insurgents fortified the road in two places by barricades, one above the other, with the intention of preventing the Spanish troops from reaching the hills, where the main rebel camp is located. The officials say that the insurgents fought desperately and that the results given prove they had every advantage of the situation. They poured down shot from above upon the troops, who were practically shut in a cut in the ravine. It is supposed that rebels were sent from the point of attack to notify Antonio Maceo who hurried forward to attack Yncian. Officials reports say that he was repeatedly repulsed.

AID FOR INSURGENTS.

Supposed Cuban Expedition Embarks From Atlantic City.

NEW YORK, May 3.—A World special from Atlantic City, N. J., says:

While the board walk and beach were crowded with visitors last night, a large, rakish steamer stopped within a mile of shore and lowered four boats, which made for the ocean pier. As they neared the pier a large crowd gathered there.

When the boats came up, a score of silent, swarthy men forced their way to the front and as soon as the boats touched the landing stage, they leaped into them and were immediately rowed to the steamer, which had not anchored, but kept circling about with all steam up. Just as soon as the strangers were put on board the mysterious craft made off with all speed to the southwest.

The general opinion among seafaring men here is that another Cuban expedition has successfully got away and that the steamer already had on board arms and ammunition.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

It is reported from the vicinity of Eugene that the fruit crop is badly damaged, and if the rains continue much longer it will be entirely ruined.

The steamer Mexico sailed from Port Townsend Sunday with 210 passengers for Alaska. It is said that a majority of the Mexico's passengers are experienced miners, who have been to Alaska before, and who are well supplied with provisions and money.

An effort will be made during the coming summer to arrange a general encampment of the Second regiment, O. N. G. Some of the companies of the regiment have enough money saved to defray their expenses during the encampment, and it is hoped that all companies will be able to participate.
