FOR EXPEDIENCY'S SAKE.

Judge Bennett is out for election. There can be no doubt about it. He is prosecuting the campaign with all his old-time vigor, and his efforts, if made in a different pursuit, would undoubtedly result in success. We doubt very much, however, if Judge Bennett will receive many votes save from Democrats and Populists.

Shortly after his nomination the friends of Mr. Bennett gave out that he was in favor of a tariff on wool; that he believed it right that the wool-grower should be protected in order that the results of his industry should be large enough to reimburse him for time and money spent. This was a great concession for a Democrat to make, especially in a wool-growing district, and local pride among some Republicans was strong enough to overlook the sudden flop and to cause Judge Bennett to expect that he would receive some votes from outside of his own party.

But all this is shattered. Judge Bennett delivered a speech at Pendleton Saturday, when he failed to reiterate his previous statements regarding wool. In fact, he took the opposite side and condemned protection save for revenue only. His remarks are quite in line with this statement:

"I am not a protective tariff man," he said. "I don't believe in the principle of protection. I don't believe that the government has a right to take from the farmer of the land a tribute to build up the manufacturers. If the West must be subservient to the East, if I must be a traitor to my people, I am not a Democrat. We want a reasonable tariff for revenue only."

This is Judge Bennett's true position. He is a free trader in belief, and his statements about a tariff on wool for protection's sake are made because he well knows that to publicly advocate free wool, with the sheepmen in the humor they now are, is political suicide.

The people of Eastern Oregon will not be deceived in Mr. Bennett's position on this important matter. We have had enough of Democratic free trade. Let us not give it further endorsement by sending to congress, from the greatest wool-growing section in the United States a member of the party which has done all it could to cripple the industry upon which we depend for our prosperity. Can it be urged that we may regain prosperity through the same agency that has brought us disaster? If Eastern Oregon incline to any such belief, let the flag be folded and the drum cease to beat; the battle belongs to the enemy.

The Oregonian is after Thomas H. Tongue because in a recent speech he deviated slightly from the edicts of that paper regarding the coinage question. A few weeks ago Mr. Tongue was lauded as a worthy candidate, sound in every particular, and possessing brains and ability above the average. Now the Portland paper says the remarks of Mr. Tongue show total misapprehension of the monetary situation. Poor Oregonian! It has fumed and worried till it has reached a state where it can be pleased by nothing or nobody. All it seems capable of doing is to furnish campaign material for the Democrats and do all it can to elect their candidates.

A good suggestion was made by a member of the city council at the meeting last evening regarding the electric light question. It was stated that an expression of the people in the matter would be a good thing, and that an issue could be made of it in the coming election. As city politics have been very uninteresting for several years, the making of the light question an issue would resuscitate a dying cause.

In the fall of 1893 a son of Mr. T. A. McFarland, a prominent merchant of Live Oak, Sutter county, Calif., was taken with a very heavy cold. The pains in his chest were so severe that he had spasms and was threatened with pneumonia. His father gave him several large doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which broke up the cough and cured him. Mr. McFarland says whenever his children have croup he invariably gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always cures them. He considers it the best cough remedy in the market. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton's Drug store.

Blakeley & Houghton desire us to publish the following extract from a letter of Chas. M. Gutfield of Reedley, Fresno county, Calif., as they handle the remedy referred to and want their customers to know what a splendid medicine it is: "It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough remedy I was relieved of a very bad cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy." A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with result so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself." For sale by Snipes-Kinnersley, Drug Co.

How to Cure Rheumatism.

ARAGO, COOS Co., Oregon, Nov. 10, 1893.—I wish to inform you of the great good Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done my wife. She has been troubled with rheumatism of the arms and hands for six months, and has tried many remedies prescribed for that complaint, but found no relief until she used this Pain Balm; one bottle of which has completely cured her. I take pleasure in recommending it for that trouble. Yours truly, C. A. Ballard. 50 cents and $1.00 bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.

$100 Reward $100.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CUREN & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.
Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed on exhibit at the world's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the world's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."

Take Simmons Liver Regulator now. Its just the remedy for the Spring of the year to wake up the liver and cleanse the whole system of the accumulated waste of the winter. "My wife combated more Malaria in Alabama in 1861 with Simmons Liver Regulator than all the doctors in the neighborhood. We've had a siege of Malaria in our own family, and it helped us."—W. N. Bryant, Dalles, Tex.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. For sale by Snipes-Kinnersley Drug Co.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Cailloutte, Druggist, Bearersville, Ill. says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store. 2
