

TURNING GRAY AND THREATENED WITH BALDNESS

The Danger is Averted by Using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation, and was so well satisfied with the result that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It stopped the hair from falling out, stimulated a new growth of hair, and kept the scalp free from dandruff. Only an occasional application is now needed to keep my hair of good, natural color. I never hesitate to recommend any of Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HAIGHT, Avoca, Neb.

This Year's Fruit Crop.

The results of Observer Fague's special inquiry as to the Oregon fruit crop are briefly these.

Clatsop, Tillamook, Lincoln, Coos and Curry, and the western portion of Lane and Douglas counties—Few, if any, peaches will be grown this year. The frosts injured the peaches and the rains killed what the frosts left. The prune, pear and apple crops were slightly injured by the rain, but unless more injury result there will be a fair crop.

Columbia—Fruit considerably thinned out.

Clackamas—Peaches, apricots and nectarines nearly all killed. Plum, prune and cherry injured by the rain.

Washington and Yamhill—Peaches nearly all killed. Cherries slightly damaged. Other fruits are in fine condition.

Wasco—Reports from Wasco county are very cheering concerning the fruit outlook. An occasional report sets forth some damage which the cherry and early strawberry crops sustained from frost.

It is thought what little damage has been done fruit was caused by frost and not by the excessive rains of the past three weeks. A correspondent writes (and this is the general expression), concerning the condition of fruit, as follows: "I fail to find any of my apples, pears, cherries or strawberries hurt in the least by the weather, or frost; in fact, it is seldom that the trees are so loaded with blossoms and buds." It is the impression that the strawberry crop will reach market 10 to 12 days later than usual, owing somewhat to frost injuries to early bloom and partly to unsuitable weather.

Peaches have been hurt in all sections and especially in the Hood River section the trees are troubled with curl-leaf. Apricots are doing well; apples are coming into full bloom and grapes are making the usual growth.

PICKED UP IN THE STREET.

A Blacksmith Finds His Tool to Be a Nugget of Pure Gold.

Curious things sometimes happen in the gold bearing regions of the northwest. The Blackfoot (Idaho) News tells of a somewhat remarkable experience which occurred to a blacksmith at that town lately.

The smith, whose name is Farmer, had in his shop a grindstone which he wished to "taper off." For this purpose a small stone was requisite. So he went out of doors and made search for a stone of the right size and shape.

He found one somewhat smaller than a hen's egg, and returning to his shop began to smooth down the edge of the grindstone with it. He had not "smoothed" long before he thought that the stone worked rather queerly, and was, in fact, too soft to grind the stone. He took it to his anvil and broke it in half, and then he found that he had picked up a nugget of pure gold.

Unfortunately, it was a rather small nugget. He sold it for $5.82 cents, and though this was a very good price for a pebble picked up in the street, it was not wealth.

Waits Long for a Drink.

On Laurel Hill in Bridgeton, N. J., there stands a house between whose walls is hidden a quart bottle of the purest applejack. The bottle has rested there for 39 years, and has, according to the old story told, eleven years more to stay. When the house was built, 39 years ago, a quart bottle was filled with "jack" and tightly sealed and plastered in the wall by a man who had the house built. The bottle is not to be taken from its dark recess until the son of the man who placed it there for him becomes 50 years of age. The "boy" is now 39 years of age, and in all these years has kept true to the promise made in the days of his youth to his father not to touch the bottle of applejack until he reaches the half-century mark in life's journey.

Louis Napoleon's Prediction.

A correspondent of the New York Sun calls attention to the fact that in his "Recollections of a Minister to France" Mr. Washburne says: "I was somewhat surprised to hear him (Napoleon III.) remark that he thought Spain could not hold Cuba, and that the result would be that she would sacrifice all her soldiers and spend all her money and then lose the island in the end."
