THE MAGIC OF HIS NAME.

The country is enjoying the spectacle of seeing a president chosen by the people. When McKinley takes the oath of office, as nothing but a visitation from God will prevent him from doing, it can be said of him that he was nominated and elected by the people.

The furor that is sweeping across the country, set in motion by the magic of McKinley's name; the enthusiasm of the masses whenever that name is uttered show how firmly entrenched in popular estimation is the doughty little statesman from Ohio.

At first glance can be learned two important lessons from McKinley's almost assured triumph—

The nomination of McKinley is a victory of the people over the bosses. This statesman has never been a favorite of the pilfering politicians. Quay, Clarkson and Platt have opposed him from the start and done what they could, in their usually effective way, to prevent the tidal wave of McKinleyism. The candidacy of Morton is for no other purpose, nor that of Quay. Cullom and Davis were used to this same end till the utter hopelessness of such procedure was demonstrated undeniably. All the favorites backed by skillful manipulators in arts political, have gone down before the hosts of Mc-

Kinley, till the way seems clear for a unanimous nomination.

McKinley's nomination means also that the people look upon protection as the great issue in the coming campaign; that the question whether or not the American laborer shall have an opportunity to earn a livelihood is of more importance than in what coin the means for obtaining such livelihood shall be paid him. The currency question, vital as it is, is of less consequence than the issue between protection and free trade.

McKinley's nomination means that the American people will be called upon to re-consider their decision made four years ago on the tariff question, and be given an opportunity to set in motion once more the wheels of prosperity. This is the question at stake. The Republican party, when once in power, will handle the currency question wisely and well.

The letter of V. C. Lewis, erstwhile a Democratic candidate for the legislature, makes the fusion movement perfectly apparent. There are now no Democratic candidates for representatives, as there are no Populist ones for joint senators. This can mean but one thing—a trade has been made by which the Populists and Democrats have gone into partnership. It is expected the Populists will vote for the Democratic senators, while the Democrats will vote for the Populist representatives. The issue is defined. It is Republicanism against Populism. Which will you take? By supporting the Republican legislative ticket you will elect men to the legislature who will be an ornament to that body. Fusion will not be successful in Wasco and Sherman counties. It is the last struggle of a dying cause. Fusion will not save either Democrats or Populists from utter defeat in these counties if the Republicans do their duty. But there must be no staying away from the polls.

The Antelope Herald is doing some good work for the Republican ticket in the southern part of the county. Its efforts will have an influence upon the result. The country newspaper often does more good in proportion to its readers than the pretentious city dailies.

If C. L. Phillips gets all the Republican votes in the county he will be our next treasurer, and there is no reason why he should not get every one. He is courteous, competent, and will carry on the duties of the office acceptably to everyone.

How to Cure Rheumatism.
ARAGO, Coos Co., Oregon, Nov. 10, 1893.—I wish to inform you of the great good Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done my wife. She has been troubled with rheumatism of the arms and hands for six months, and has tried many remedies prescribed for that complaint, but found no relief until she used this Pain Balm; one bottle of which has completely cured her. I take pleasure in recommending it for that trouble. Yours truly, C. A. Bullard. 50 cents and $1.00 bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.

In the fall of 1893 a son of Mr. T. A. McFarland, a prominent merchant of Live Oak, Sutter county, Calif., was taken with a very heavy cold. The pains in his chest were so severe that he had spasms and was threatened with pneumonia. His father gave him several large doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which broke up the cough and cured him. Mr. McFarland says whenever his children have croup he invariably gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always cures them. He considers it the best cough remedy in the market. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.

Blakeley & Houghton desire us to publish the following extract from a letter of Chas. M. Gutfield of Reedley, Fresno county, Calif., as they handle the remedy referred to and want their customers to know what a splendid medicine it is: "It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy I was relieved of a very bad cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy." A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs.

$100 Reward $100.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.
