

CANCER CURED

—AND A—
LIFE SAVED
By the Persistent Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improved. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. FIELDS, Bloomfield, Ia.

BOLD BURGLARY.

The Postoffice Entered and the Registered Mail Taken.

The sensation of yesterday was the postoffice robbery. Though it was Sunday, knots of men were congregated at the street corners all day discussing it, and waiting further developments. The robbery of the mail pouch containing the registered mail was successfully accomplished between 10:30 and 11 o'clock Saturday night. The robbers only secured $4 or $5 in cash, though there were a number of checks, drafts, etc., which were of course valueless to the robbers, and were later found.

Postmaster Crossen had left the office about 9:15 in company with his father and Messrs. Douthitt and Hobart. He locked the door and proceeded to a lodge room, a society of which he is a member. He was called about 11 o'clock and informed of the robbery. About 10:30 Express Messenger Henry Readel deposited the mail from the night train, placing it inside the door and locking it. About fifteen minutes later Express Agent Kurtz, who lives directly across the street, observed the postoffice door open, and thinking Readel had carelessly left it open, stepped over to shut it. He soon saw that such was not the case. A circular cut had been made across the corner of the glass in the door, which was then broken out, enabling the robber to unfasten the spring latch and secure the mail sack. He promptly notified Mr. Crossen. The two, together with Sheriff Driver, Mr. Wheelon and Officer Connelly commenced tracing the matter up. They spent the night, looking through alleys, into wood-piles and underneath old buildings and were not rewarded in their search until about 7 o'clock in the morning, when the missing pouch was discovered by Mr. John Riggs. It was found east of the academy next to the fence in front of Mr. Wm. Wiley's residence.

Mr. Crossen, in company with Sheriff Driver, re-visited the place at 8 o'clock and found a button from a coat. In the meantime the authorities had been led to suspicion a man named Bert Robins of the crime, and their next step was to examine Robins' coat. Proceeding where he and his wife lived at Mrs. Brittain's, they induced her to go into their room and carelessly remark that she had found a button, asking if it belonged to him. He at once unsuspectingly claimed it, and on that evidence the officers made the arrest, on a charge of burglary. The case was brought before Justice Davis this morning and dismissed, on motion of Dep'y. Dist. Atty. Phelps, Davis not having jurisdiction, but before he could be discharged a warrant was made before the proper officer, Mr. J. M. Huntington, U. S. commissioner, the correct charge being robbing the U. S. mails.

The arrest happened about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Later the contents of the registered mail sack were found in Wm. Wiley's barn, the envelope having all been ripped open and everything found all right except about $5 in cash. Harry S. Miller and G. W. Templeton were later arrested as accessories. These two worthies are late of San Francisco and have been under espionage for some time. The facts leading to their arrest are that the day before they and Robins were noticed in close consultation, and a few minutes after the robbery occurred one of them slipped in the house very quietly and went to bed. A witness also saw men answering very closely to their description at the time of the robbery. Robins is a local man. Miller claims to be a butcher from Waterville, Wash.

The Bean Party.

Saturday evening about twenty young people and some not so young, called, by invitation, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morgan on the west end of Fourth street. The occasion was a bean party, and the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will long remember this evening on account of the pleasant time they had. It was, in the words of one that was present, "One of the most pleasant evenings of a life time," and took him back to the by gone boyhood days, when in old Missouri he used to meet with the boys and girls in the old home state. (And by the way what pleasant memories cluster around one's native state and the scenes of his childhood.)

The party broke up shortly before midnight and the guests departed, wishing their host and hostesses many happy returns of this pleasant evening.

You ought have been (bean) there to understand the bean part of it. It is sufficient to say that after the bean game the rest of the evening was spent in the old time frolics of long ago when youth and beauty met, and life seemed to possess more joy than in these latter days.

A Strong Statement.

If you are not used to smoking clear Havana cigars, you may not like the Regulator. If so I cannot help it. I cannot improve on this brand as I am now using the finest imported stock possible to obtain. Something cheaper might suit some tastes. You need not look for anything better, for there is no finer stock grown anywhere in the known world than that used in the Regulator cigar. Here is the formula:

Fillers—Vuelta Abajo Havana, at $1.25 a pound.
Wrappers—Delhi Lankaat Sumatra, at $4 a pound.

I am willing to stake my future reputation on the truth of this statement.

O. A. PETERSON.

Note—In connection with the above statement, I desire to explain that it is impossible to put more than 15 cents value into my reasonable size cigar, because no tobacco in the world is worth more. Whenever a brand is sold for more than $80 per thousand at wholesale, it is simply a fancy price and nothing more. Sumatra tobacco is never used for filler, but as a wrapper it stands alone as the only perfect wrapper, on account of its superior burn and pleasing appearance. The import duty on this leaf is $2 a pound, but still we have to use it on fine goods, as there is no domestic substitute.
