

WAS ALMOST A RIOT

Exciting Scenes Before the Missouri Convention.

A VAST AND CLAMOROUS THRONG.

Two Political Factions Issued Tickets to the Convention. Great Confusion was Caused.

St. Joseph, Mo., May 12.—The Republican state convention almost turned into a riot this morning before the delegates were admitted to the hall. At 10 o'clock 2000 people were in front of the Crawford opera house clamoring for admittance.

Filley, as chairman of the state committee, issued tickets to his delegates before leaving St. Louis. Kerns was present with the contesting delegation. The local committee on arrangements, recognizing Kerns as boss, also issued tickets to the convention, and having obtained possession of the keys of the opera house, refused to admit anyone until Filley would consent to compromise.

For over two hours the delegates stood in the hot sun cursing Filley and Kerns. At 12 o'clock a crowd of men wearing Filley hats congregated in the rear of the theater and attempted to smash in the door with a lattering ram. The sergeant-at-arms telephoned for the police and a patrol wagon full of officers was sent.

FROM MAXIMO GOMEZ.

Letter to the Cuban Delegate at New York.

New York, May 12.—Thomas Estrada Palma, the Cuban delegate, has received the following letter from General Maximo Gomez, commander-in-chief of the Cuban army. The letter was written at the general headquarters of the Cuban army, at Iquara, being dated April 22. General Gomez says:

"In order to make this letter short I will copy from my diary:

"April 17.—On approaching the river Zaza, by the ford Valdiva, narrow and dangerous, both shores are occupied by a strong Spanish column composed of infantry, cavalry and artillery. I suspended my march and explored the field.

"April 18.—I detach some shooters, so as to compel the enemy to move, placing myself at the right and trying to have the Spanish in the rear. The Spanish do not stir and the light prevents further operations.

"April 19.—I counter-march, at ways on my plan. The enemy advanced, constantly under my fire and is brought to a difficult path where its infantry can hardly move. Not more than three miles would we advance during the whole day and when night comes we are face to face.

"April 20.—I continue advancing, with nothing to spoil my plans. The enemy moves with the same caution as before. Night again stops our maneuvers, the Spanish seemingly not caring to press very much on us, and I, for my part, having in mind the necessity of sparing my men, so as to march with all their strength.

April 21.—The enemy hardly advances half a league toward me, and abandoning my steps, I camp at Iquara, one of the prominent entrenched forts. In our march we have described a semi-circle of almost 10 leagues in diameter, which has taken us more than three days."

"I am told that the Spanish column is under Colonel Martin, and notwithstanding the many years of campaign that have made me familiar with the Spanish cruelties and atrocities in Cuba, I have felt greater disgust and horror than ever before for this column's work. They sacrificed numberless heads of cattle, not even sparing the young. To deprive us of horses they kill all that come within their reach, young and old, good and bad. To complete the cruel proclamation, they order the concentration of the peasants, thus forcing them to abandon their homes, and take refuge in the towns, whether provided for or not, their houses have been ordered to be burned and their cattle killed. And all this with their customary hypocrisy they described as having been accomplished by us.

"I am fully confident of the success of our summer campaign and have no doubt that we shall continue receiving your valuable support, both materially and morally, through your efforts near the American government.

"It is useless to say anything about the operations in general. The reading of the Spanish press is enough to show which of the two armies leads the campaign and which is on the defensive."

FREDERICK BELL'S CONDITION.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—Frederick Bell, son of the late Thomas Bell, who a few nights ago fell from the third to the first floor in the residence of 1107 Bush street, is still at that place, suffering from his injuries. It is the intention to remove him to the home of his mother as soon as he is well enough. Bell is improving, and while perfectly conscious and rational, is not allowed to receive or talk to anybody.

Captain John Bell, of Santa Barbara, nephew of the late Thomas Bell, came to the city to see the injured man last Sunday, but he has for the present been refused entrance into the injured man's room.
