

CANCER CURED —AND A— LIFE SAVED By the Persistent Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore begin to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. FIELDS, Bloomfield, Ia.

A Strong Statement.

If you are not used to smoking clear Havana cigars, you may not like the Regulator. If so I cannot help it. I cannot improve on this brand as I am now using the finest imported stock possible to obtain. Something cheaper might suit some tastes. You need not look for anything better, for there is no finer stock grown anywhere in the known world than that used in the Regulator cigar. Here is the formula:
Fillers—Vuelta Abajo Havana, at $1.25 a pound.
Wrappers—Delhi Langskaat Sumatra, at $4 a pound.
I am willing to stake my future reputation on the truth of this statement.
O. A. PETERSON.

NOTE—In connection with the above statement, I desire to explain that it is impossible to put more than 15 cents value into my reasonable size cigar, because no tobacco in the world is worth more. Whenever a brand is sold for more than $80 per thousand at wholesale, it is simply a fancy price and nothing more. Sumatra tobacco is never used for filler, but as a wrapper it stands alone as the only perfect wrapper, on account of its superior burn and pleasing appearance. The import duty on this leaf is $2 a pound, but still we have to use it on fine goods, as there is no domestic substitute.
O. A. P.

LET DOWN EASY.

How a Fair Guest Divined the Governor's Intentions.
When Mr. Tilden was occupying the gubernatorial chair of the state of New York and had under consideration the appointment of a judge a friend of Judge Peckham, who was a candidate for the place, was urging the judge's claim, and besought the assistance of a lady, who at that time happened to be a visitor at the gubernatorial mansion. Although at that time everything seemed reasonably to indicate the appointment of Judge Peckham, the lady assured her questioner that his candidate had no chance whatsoever. Sure enough, another man was appointed, and in the course of time it came about that Gov. Tilden learned of the surprising prescience of his fair guest. He asked her how she was able to divine his intentions so clearly in regard to this particular man. "Why," she said, "that was not difficult. You brought him home to dinner one day and that of itself made me suspect. Then at the table you set before him your choice Johannisberg wine, and I knew from that moment that he had no chance of appointment. The man who has your Johannisberg is to be let down easy."

KNEW ALL BUT ONE.

A Whole English Regiment Made Up of Questionable Characters.
The story is told of an English militia regiment whose reputation was none of the best that on one occasion a detective from Scotland asked to be allowed to inspect the regiment to discover if possible if a certain malefactor were in the ranks. Permission being given, the detective, accompanied by the adjutant of the regiment, made a tour of the various companies, front rank and rear rank. When the official had got to the last man of the rear rank of the rear company he stopped suddenly and gazed earnestly at the rather embarrassed warrior. "Why, you surely have made a mistake," exclaimed the adjutant, indignantly; "why, you have pitched on the best man in the battalion. He has been with us for more than 20 years, and he is our pattern soldier. His arms are a mass of good conduct badges, and he is the example of all that is best in the life of a soldier. You surely do not know him?" "No," replied the detective, "I do not—but I know all the others."

Statesmanlike Horse.

The successful horse-dealer is never at a loss. Witness the following incident from an exchange: A young Englishman was negotiating with a dealer for a horse. The horseman expatiated on the many good points of the animal under discussion.
"It seems to me, Mr. Muggins," remarked the young man, "that the horse has rather a big head."
The retort came at once: "Big 'ead, big 'ead, do you call it? Why, look at Gladstone; what a 'ead 'e's got!"
