THE MONEY IN CIRCULATION

The following figures taken from the statistical abstract of the United States issued by the government, 1896, have a tendency to refute both Populist arguments to the effect that there is not enough money in the United States, and the Democratic arguments that a Democratic administration has been a good thing.

Amount of money in the United States per capita: 1888, $34.40; 1892, $36.21; 1895, $34.38.

Money in circulation per capita: 1888, $22.88; 1892, $24.44; 1895, $22.96.

The first year above mentioned was the second year of Cleveland's first administration; the second year above mentioned was the second year of Harrison's administration; the third year is the third and last year of the present Democratic administration.

It will be observed that the gain of '92 over '88 is $1.81 of amount of money in the United States per capita, and of $1.56 per capita of money in circulation. The loss of 1895 over '92 is $1.83 of money in the United States per capita and of $1.48 per capita in circulation. These figures are undoubtedly as true as any that can be obtained, being official.

More than five sixths of the delegates to the Republican National Convention have now been chosen, and the end of the canvass for the Republican Presidential nomination is easily in sight. Major McKinley is apparently today the necessary choice of the majority at St. Louis, and it seems almost impossible for his opponents by any combination of hostile interests to prevent his triumph on the first ballot taken for a Presidential candidate. In the National convention four years ago at Minneapolis 909 delegates had seats, and 455 votes were necessary to nominate. At St. Louis next June it is probable that four additional votes will be given to the territories of Arizona and Oklahoma and one additional vote to the Indian territory, which sent but a single representative four years ago to Minneapolis. The total membership of the convention will thus be increased to 918, and 460 votes will be required to make a nomination. Of the 770 elected fifty are apparently committed to no particular candidate. It is reasonable to suppose that of the 198 delegates uncommitted or not yet chosen Major McKinley will get at least one-half, and there are consequently few well informed observers who now believe that the Ohio candidate will enter the approaching convention at St. Louis with less than from 525 to 550 votes behind him.

The news from Washington seems to be very encouraging as regards appropriations. The total for Oregon, including amounts authorized to be contracted for, is upwards of $4,000,000, and is by all odds the best river and harbor bill for Oregon which ever passed the senate. Besides issuing a liberal sum for use on the locks there is an appropriation of $100,000 for a boat railway around the dalles. There has previously been appropriated for this project only the small sum required for a survey and purchase of a right-of-way. At the present writing it looks as though the Oregon delegation was doing its full duty.

Hypochondrial, despondent, nervous, "tired out" men—those who suffer from backache, weariness, loss of energy, impaired memory, dizziness, melancholy and discouragement, the result of exhausting diseases, or drains upon the system, excesses, or abuses, bad habits, or early vices, are treated through correspondence at their homes, with uniform success, by the Specialists of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. A book of 136 large pages, devoted to the consideration of the maladies above hinted at, may be had, mailed securely sealed from observation, in a plain envelope, by sending 10 cents in one-cent stamps (for postage on Book), to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, at the above mentioned Hotel. For more than a quarter of a century, physicians connected with this widely celebrated Institution, have made the treatment of the delicate diseases above referred to, their sole study and practice. Thousands, have consulted them. This vast experience has naturally resulted in improved methods and means of cure.

Blakeley & Houghton desire us to publish the following extract from a letter of Chas. M. Gutfield of Reedley, Fresno county, Calif., as they handle the remedy referred to and want their customers to know what a splendid medicine it is: "It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough remedy I was relieved of a very bad cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy." A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.

The Discovery Saved His Life.
Mr. G. Caillouttee, Druggist, Bearersville, Ill. says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery, I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store. 2

How to Cure Rheumatism.
ARAGO, Coos Co., Oregon, Nov. 16, 1893.—I wish to inform you of the great good Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done my wife. She has been troubled with rheumatism of the arms and hands for six months, and has tried many remedies prescribed for that complaint, but found no relief until she used this Pain Balm; one bottle of which has completely cured her. I take pleasure in recommending it for that trouble. Yours truly, C. A. Bullord. 50 cents and $1.00 bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.
