

THE BEST FAMILY MEDICINE
She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stem ache and liver troubles, and for the cure of headaches caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled."

When my friends ask me what the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken by my son, they will break up a cold, prevent a gripe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known. Mrs. MARY JOHNSON, 388 Rider Avenue, New York City.

KISSING OF HANDS TABOOED.

Hygienic Reasons Lead to Abandonment of an Austrian Custom. It has hitherto, says the New Orleans Picayune, been the custom of the children attending the public schools in Austria and Hungary to kiss the hands of the teacher on arrival and departure. This has now been forbidden by an order from the imperial board of education, which bases its action on the fact that sanitary investigation has shown that kissing is unhealthful and should not be practiced, except when absolutely necessary. This brings up a very nice point of law to establish when kissing is absolutely necessary. If the public school teachers of Austria and Hungary are old and ugly it is likely that the scholars will acquiesce in the new ruling without a murmur. If, on the other hand, the schoolmamae are pretty young women, like most of the New Orleans teachers, then the big boys in Austrian schools may keep up the good old custom of kissing the teacher, and plead that it was a case when kissing was absolutely necessary. Science is going too far, anyway, when it finds microbes in kisses and tries to establish a quarantine against them. Kissing goes by favor, and not by law. When the kisser is in love and the kissee is pretty, it is always a case of absolute necessity, not amenable to Austrian or any other kind of laws.

A STRICT SABBATHARIAN.

The Sunday Question as Solved by a Maine Farmer. A case of unusual strictness in Sabbath observance is reported from West Auburn, Me. A farmer was waited on by one of his neighbors who asked for the loan of his team the following Sunday to take his wife and children to the cemetery. At first he flatly refused to let the team, arguing that it would be a sin to receive money for such a thing on the Sabbath day, but he finally said to the neighbor that he would think it over and let him know Saturday, remarking that he would pray over it in the meantime. Saturday the neighbor called and the farmer said that he pondered and prayed over the matter and come to the conclusion that it would be no harm to let the team, but that the neighbor must not pay for it until some week day following. So the neighbor hired the team to go to the cemetery on Sunday, paying for it on Monday, and everything was satisfactory.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of an execution issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon on the 29th day of February, 1896, in a suit therein pending wherein C. W. Culber is plaintiff and O. D.
