MANIFESTLY UNJUST.

The Times-Mountaineer of May 14th invites an investigation of the financial condition of Dalles City during the incumbency of Robert Mays as mayor, hoping that the comparison will prove disadvantageous as between the city mayor and the county judge. What it can establish detrimental to the mayor is beyond our imagination. The duties and jurisdiction of these officers are entirely dissimilar. While the mayor of the city is merely a presiding officer, the county judge has absolute control of the policy of the county. The mayor cannot be blamed nor praised for what the council does. His duties are to preside and to decide points of order. He has no vote, except in case of a tie. It is true he may advise, and a good mayor will never hesitate to express his views whenever any matter of moment is being discussed. On the contrary the power of the county judge is almost autocratic.

Robt. Mays had the misfortune to be mayor during the hardest blow the city has ever undergone. The great fire of 1892 swept away the greater part of the city below the bluff. A million dollar loss resulted. The fire was so great the spirit of incendiarism was evoked, and shortly after other fires were started, but were fortunately checked. The city was full of lawless and vicious characters and martial law had to be resorted to.

Previous to the fire the city expenditures were running along about evenly with the receipts. Every dollar of city tax and license was needed for running expenses. After the fire there was a great emergency to be met. There were the burned crosswalks to be rebuilt, water pipes to be replaced, salary of special police to be paid, the entire reconstruction of the fire department, etc., altogether about a $16,000 loss to the city. With the immense loss of taxable property, depreciated values on the remainder, and these tremendous losses piled on top of all, it would be little wonder if the city ran behind, especially under a law that city taxation could under no circumstances exceed five mills.

Fairness in all things must be extended. It is manifestly unjust to charge Robt. Mays, presiding officer of a body of men, with the financial losses of a city ruined by a tremendous disaster. We do not think Mr. Mays' bitterest enemy, if he has one, would do it, and it is inexcusable even for a partisan newspaper.

"Cleveland intends to get himself nominated again," said a New York business man who went to Washington this week especially to find out Mr. Cleveland's intentions, "and he is going to get up a war scare, perhaps an actual war, in order to help his chances of election, which, strange to say, he thinks are already good." The publication of the name of the man who used this language would create a big sensation, but it was only upon a pledge that it would not be done that the man to whom he talked repeated it to a Washington correspondent. There is plenty of evidence in sight indicating that the man correctly stated Mr. Cleveland's intentions. The activity of the administration agents in fighting the silver democrats is known to be personally directed by Mr. Cleveland, and recent movements in connection with Cuban affairs are significant. Gen. Fitzhugh Lee never would have been sent to Cuba as consul general if he had only been expected to perform the ordinary duties of that position; duties for which he is entirely unfitted, not only by lack of business experience, but because he can neither speak nor read the Spanish language. Just what his part of the game is to be is not yet apparent, but it may be set down as certain that he has a part, an important part, to play. So too, with the strong squadron of war ships which the administration has been gathering in Hampton Roads for many months. These vessels are, it is believed, gathered for a purpose. It will be remembered that the Spanish minister cabled to his government several months ago that Mr. Cleveland had promised to keep his hands off the Cuban revolution until June. It looks like that promise was going to be kept. After June the Democratic convention will be held. Then Mr. Cleveland will know whether that war scare will be worth while.

Blakeley & Houghton desire us to publish the following extract from a letter of Chas. M. Gutfield of Reedley, Fresno county, Calif., as they handle the remedy referred to and want their customers to know what a splendid medicine it is: "It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy I was relieved of a very bad cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy." A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Cailhouttee, Druggist, Bearersville, Ill. says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.
