

FOR THE CORONATION

Visitors From All Over the World at Moscow.

FETES WILL LAST THREE WEEKS

The American Legation - Decorations of the Kremlin - Other Foreign News.

Moscow, Russia, May 16.—This old town is rapidly filling up with visitors from all parts of the world, who have come to witness the ceremonies attending the coronation of the czar and czarina, which will extend over a period of three weeks, beginning, according to program, with the arrival of their majesties at the Petrovski palace, outside the city, on Monday, and ending with their departure for St. Petersburg, June 7th.

The streets are filled with people of all nations and delegates from all parts of the empire. The weather, up to the present, has been a little too cold to be pleasant, but a change is expected before the fetes begin. A question regarding the precedence of Prince Henry of Prussia, representing Emperor William of Germany, and the Duke of Connaught, representing Queen Victoria, has been settled in favor of the latter.

The American legation is the center of attraction for Americans here. The latter are headed by General McD. McCook, representing President Cleveland, and the legation has been his headquarters. The building is well situated, and affords a fine view of the boulevards. It is very handsomely decorated inside.

The decorations of the Kremlin are about completed. The old domes have been freshly gilded, and the richly tinted towers are most picturesque. The public is freely admitted, and there is a constant procession of pilgrims to Uspenski cathedral.

A decree has been promulgated prohibiting, during the fetes, riding on horseback or on bicycles in the streets, or boating on the river. This step was taken in view of the immense crowds of people expected here.

THE CLERGY AROUSED. Emperor William Interferes With Their Rights.

BERLIN, May 16.—The German clergy, Protestant and Catholic, are thoroughly aroused in consequence of Emperor William's telegram to Gehimrath Hinzpfr, regarding Dr. Stoeker, the ex-court chaplain and Christian-socialist leader, which was published with his majesty's consent. This message was almost brutally brusque, and read: "The clergy must not meddle with politics, because it is no concern of theirs."

This angered the clergymen, and the whole clerical press has been expressing indignation. Dr. Stoeker has made an outspoken protest in his organ, the Evangelical Church Gazette, in which he says the emperor, when still Prince William, himself characterized the Christian-social activity of the clergy as a means of vanquishing socialism. Dr. Stoeker added:

"Since Christian-social thought was tabooed in Berlin, socialism reigns politically there. As I have begun, so shall I continue. I leave the end to God."

Two of the leading clerical organs, the Reichsbote and the Volk, severely condemn and deplore the publication of the telegram, classing it as "inconsiderate" and "unjust," and pointing out that clergymen, by the constitution, are granted the same rights as other citizens.

The Roman Catholic organs, Germania and the Cologne Volks-Zeitung, publish articles of a similar tone. The socialist press denounces the telegram as imperial interference with constitutional rights, and in various parts of Germany, clerical synods have taken pains to express confidence in Dr. Stoeker and his methods and severely criticize his majesty's telegram.

McKINLEY AND THE A. P. A. The Advisory Board Decides That It Was Misinformed.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Today's session of the American Protective Association supreme council was the most interesting of the convention, because of the action of the executive committee of the advisory board in blacklisting Major McKinley as a presidential candidate was to be reviewed. The report of the advisory board upon the action of its committee was made to the council late in the session.

It was technically an endorsement of the executive committee. It asserted in substance that the executive committee was warranted, in view of the evidence presented, in placing the ban on McKinley, but, in addition, it stated that a further examination of the testimony by the full board has convinced the members that the witnesses were unreliable, and that their statements were not correct, therefore the board concides McKinley should be placed upon the same footing, as far as members of the A. P. A. are concerned, with the other candidates for presidential nominations, and not be discriminated against.

Appended to the report was a statement in writing by Delegate Huddleston, of California, who asserts that the committee, of which he was chairman, interviewed McKinley at Canton, O., on the 14th inst., and that the interview was satisfactory. Other members of the committee are stated to have been Delegate Vanfossen, Washington and S. C. E. Zypf, state chairman of Kentucky.

I hereby announce myself an independent free silver candidate for the office of sheriff of Wasco county, Oregon, to be voted for at the general election to be held on June 1, 1896.

Gutfield of Reedley, Fresno county, Calif., as they handle the remedy referred to and want their customers to know what a splendid medicine it is: "It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough remedy I was relieved of a very bad cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy." A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs.
