ACTS OF LAWLESSNESS

Nonunion Men Molested by Fishermen.

BOATS SMASHED AND NETS CUT

Two Hundred Union Men Gathered at Eureka Last Night—Story of How Searcy Was Shot.

ASTORIA, May 24.—Two nonunion men engaged in fishing near Oak Point were set upon by a number of members of the Columbia River Fishermen's Protective Union today, and were severely handled, their boats being smashed and turned adrift, their nets cut, and the men themselves left on a rocky point jutting out into the river, from which they could not escape unless assisted by persons passing down the river.

Just as darkness set in about 200 union men congregated near Eureka, with the evident intention of committing some act of hostility, either toward the canners in that vicinity or toward nonunion men.

It is known that the steamer Alarm, used as a cannery tender for the Cook Packing Company, is near Oak Point with 20 tons of salmon on board, and it is thought the fish may be seized and destroyed.

From hints dropped by fishermen, it is now absolutely certain that Searcy was not the only fisherman killed in the recent melee a few miles above this city. It is believed that at least one of the attacking party was killed and several wounded. Searcy's partner, Jewell, who escaped with slight injuries, states that when he fired his shotgun, more than one man dropped, and that Searcy was shot in the forehead as he was reloading his gun. Searcy and Jewell had no weapons save shotguns loaded with buckshot, while the attacking party was armed with rifles.

It is thought that the end is not yet, and that unless a compromise is quickly effected between the canneries and the fishermen, encounters of a more serious nature are unavoidable.

THE BERMUDA NEARLY CAUGHT.

Has a Narrow Escape From Spanish Gunboats.

NEW YORK, May 24.—News reached this city today from Puerto Cortez, Honduras, that the steamship Bermuda, with a large party of filibusters and a cargo of ammunition and provisions, had a narrow escape from being captured by the Spanish warships on her last cruise to Cuba. This was the Bermuda's second successful trip.

She crossed the St. John's river bar April 17, in command of Captain E. G. Reilly. The Bermuda hove to a place on the northern coast of Cuba, some 10 miles east of Cardenas, and at once once began to lower her boats. It was said today by one in authority that five men were drowned; among them a brother of Colonel Nicholas de Cardenas, one of the insurgent leaders.

The cargo was all landed, when one of the boats got adrift. Some of the party began shooting. Suddenly the flash of an electric light was seen directly over the ship's masthead. The shouts of the men in the boat had been heard by a Spanish warship. There was a flash and a roar, and a solid shot passed about 300 feet astern of the ship.

Captain Reilly headed his ship westward, and pulled away from the Spaniards very quickly. A few minutes after a second shot was fired and went wide. Then it was discovered that two Spanish gunboats were in pursuit. The Bermuda had no trouble in showing the Spaniards her heels.
