Also agents for the Celebrated Cleveland Bicycle.

WHY? have we taken hold of the VICTOR BICYCLE as our leading Wheel.

Because after thoroughly testing a dozen different makes, we have come to the conclusion that the VICTOR is the BEST.

Because it is mechanically perfect, and while not TOO LIGHT for our bad roads, yet it runs the easiest.

Because it has a tire that, while light, is almost PUNCTURE PROOF. (We will repair all punctures free for the season on 1896 Victor Tires.)

We have 1896 Ribcycles that list at $100 that we will sell for $75, but they are not VICTORS. Our 1896 VICTORS sell for $100.

For medium grade bicycles, we have the Waverley and Crescents—$50 to $85. Good second hand wheels, $25 to $50.

Bicycles and Tandems for rent. Wheels repaired. We keep constantly on hand a good stock of compressed air, for inflating tires, and give it away. Get your tires inflated.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

Circuit court began today. The docket is very light.

The run of fish is improving. Herick's cannery started up this morning. The river is now rising steadily. This morning it was 18 feet above low water mark.

The commencement exercises Saturday were the first from The Dalles high school.

About fifteen young men responded Saturday to the invitation to learn to play band music.

Messrs. John Coffield, Chas. Hess and Will Lear were in from Goldendale yesterday on their bicycles.

Four wagons loaded with wool arrived in the city this morning from Yakima. It is the beginning of a lot of 175 bales. Mr. D. McKamey, who came in from Antelope today, says that on May 17th there was 3 1/2 inches of snow in parts of Crook county.

A bunch of keys, also a white silk handkerchief with monogram on the corner, was found yesterday, and may be regained by the owner at this office.

Rev. O. D. Taylor brought in some fine specimens of branches loaded with the various fruits today, from which it appears that the weather has not injured fruit much in his locality.

Hon. A. S. Bennet, Democratic candidate for congress, will speak at the court house tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, instead of the 30th, as announced heretofore. The change of date is because of Memorial day, which occurrence was overlooked at the time the announcement was made.

The Dalles City band propose to give a grand ball Saturday. The boys failed financially on their excursion, and an effort will be made to recover the losses, and pay for some new music they have lately purchased. Some of the boys claim the existence of the band is precarious for lack of funds.

The excursion of The Dalles band was not liberally attended, and resulted in a financial loss. The day was not favorable for the excursion, and if it should be repeated later would be far better patronized. The band was reinforced yesterday by Mr. Fred Helfrich of Dufur, who is a first-class musician and who plays the Eb clarinet.

Next Wednesday and Thursday at the Baldwin Opera House there will occur an unusual entertainment, and of a character which never fails of drawing large crowds. Charley Brockman, the boy wonder, is the possessor of a wonderful power, or the medium of one, which he does not know, nor does he know the source of that power. It, therefore, goes under the name of occult science—a paradox. No explanation can be given by witnesses of the manifestations, seemingly impossible, but nevertheless revealed. Whether this power is spirit influence, mesmeric power or occult force the fact is the same. Either is incomprehensible.

Memorial Services.

Memorial services in honor of the nation's dead heroes were held in the Congregational church Sunday evening. The members of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Womans Relief Corps, met in Fraternity hall at 7:30, p. m. It was but a little band of brave patriots who could not forget the sacred day set apart by a grateful people. So the grey haired veterans marched through the streets silently and solemnly, with drooping flags, wives, daughters and sisters leading the way. There were few to do them honor as they filed down the church aisle and filled the seats. "Old Glory" greeted them with its red, white and blue, gracefully draped. The Congregational choir rendered its sweetest music. The patriotic songs touched the hearts of the old soldiers, and partly atoned for lack of interest on the part of the public who sometimes forget to "Honor our brave defenders,

Heroes who wore the blue,
Valiant and firm and fearless,
Trusty and tried and true.
Never their footsteps faltered,
In path where duty led,
Cheers for the soldier living,
Tears for the soldier dead."

Rev. Mr. Miller, of the Second Baptist church, delivered a forcible address, appropriate to the occasion.

In this connection it is well to state that next Saturday, the 30th of May, is Decoration day. This beautiful custom "Born of war to endure in gentle Peace" promises to be of unusual interest. The G. A. R. and W. R. C. are untiring in their efforts to make the observance of the day commensurate with the occasion.

THE EVANGELISTS.

Mr. Crittenton's Great Persuasive Power ---Assisted by Good Music.

A large audience assembled in Armory Hall at 10:30 yesterday morning, where Evangelist Crittenton and his associates began a series of union meetings. Mr. Wallace, the leader of singing, first conducted several selections of congregational singing from Gospel Hymns,

CHAS. N. CRITTENTON.

There were associated with Mr. Crittenton on the platform nearly all the Christian ministers of this city, who entered into the spirit of the occasion with great zeal. The sermon by Mr. Crittenton partook of the character of an appeal to accept Christ, and during the course of the sermon there were two situations almost dramatic. At the conclusion of a pathetic story he raised his voice in song, assisted by a female voice in the choir, and later in his talk he with two others assumed an attitude of prayer, but instead of the expected supplication there sprang from the lips of the trio one of the prettiest, most melodious and solemn songs of warning that were ever heard. At the conclusion of the sermon all who desired to be saved, saint or sinner, were invited to arise, and the invitation was generally accepted.

In the afternoon a young people's meeting occurred at 2:30 o'clock, at which there was a liberal attendance. In the evening the large hall was crowded. The text was from Daniel xi:13, "But go the thy way till the end be, for thou shalt stand in thy lot at the end of the day." The same character of address as the morning, was noted—an appeal to come to Christ. As a result there were about 20 unconverted persons who signed cards pledging themselves "this day to give myself to Jesus, and with his help will hereafter live a Christian life."

Tuesday is children's day. Wednesday night is set apart for the story of the Florence Crittenton missions, which never fails of arousing the most intense interest, and for the maintenance of which all the nightly collections are reserved. There are thirty of these now in existence. All the meetings commence at 7:30 in the evening.
