OUR LAST APPEAL.

The state campaign of 1896 can be called completed. A day of rest intervenes before the battle of the ballots begins, and then the people of Oregon will declare their opinion as to the fitness of the various candidates to represent them in office. THE CHRONICLE has heartily supported the regular Republican ticket. We believe the principles for which the Republican party was founded and upon which its ultimate success depends, can be best advanced by the election of Mr. Ellis. In unity there is strength, and the fact that Mr. Ellis was nominated in a regular Republican convention, where the right of the delegates to seats in the convention had been passed upon by the highest authority, viz, the convention itself, entitles that gentleman to the consideration of Republican voters.

The past campaign has not been an harmonious one, but prejudice should not triumph over sound judgment. The candidacy of Judge Northrup is not free from objectionable features, and furthermore we believe that Republican votes cast for Northrup aid in the election of Bennett or Quinn. Wasco county should stand by the regular Republican nominee and roll up for Mr.

Ellis a rousing majority. In this way the factional dissensions in the party can be the better healed.

Since the sheriff's and clerk's office were put upon a salary basis, thousands of dollars have been saved to the county which formerly went to the occupants of these offices, and yet the county debt is not reduced. Should Robert Mays be elected judge, as there is every probability he will be, the showing four years from now will prove the wisdom of his election. Let us honor this worthy pioneer, and by so doing benefit ourselves.

District Attorney Jayne is deserving of re-election. No valid argument can be raised against him. He is zealous in his labors for the state and possesses the ability to conduct the office according to a high standard. The Dalles should give Mr. Jayne a substantial majority next Monday.

Does Wasco county want to be represented in the legislature by men of high character and ability? Then let the vote be cast for W. H. Moore, John Michell, B. S. Huntington and F. N. Jones.

W. H. Whipple and D. S. Kimsey are the two men named for assessor and county commissioner. These offices are both important and no better men could be named than Messrs. Whipple and Kimsey.

C. L. Phillips is the regular nominee for county treasurer. He was nominated fairly and honestly, and is entitled to the support of every Republican. Besides he will make a mighty good treasurer.

C. L. Gilbert is just the man we want for county school superintendent. He has every qualification necessary to make his administration a great success.

Sheriff Driver is gaining in popularity every day. He is a sure winner, and those who want to be on the winning side would do well to vote for this capable official.

A. M. Kelsay has filled the office of county clerk to the satisfaction of everyone. His re-election will come as a matter of course.

G. J. Farley and Julius Wiley, if elected to the offices of justice of peace and constable, will take good care of the precinct affairs.

J. B. Goit is a practical surveyor and will fill the office of county surveyor to the satisfaction of everyone.

Vote for W. H. Butts for coroner. He's all right.
