NOT A SICK DAY For Over Thirty Years! RESULT OF USING

AYER'S PILLS

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills for over thirts years have kept me in good health, never having had a sick day in all that time. Before I was twenty I suffered almost continually—as a result of con-stipation—from dyspepsia, headaches, neuralgia, or boils and other eruptive When I became convinced that nine-tenths of my troubles were caused by constipation, I began the use of Ayer's Pills, with the most satisfactory results, never having a single attack that did not readily yield to this remedy. My wife, who had been an invalid for years, also began to use Ayer's Pills, and ber health was quickly restored. With my children I had no-ticed that nearly all their silments were preceded by constipation, and I soon had the pleasure of knowing that with children as with parents, Ayer's Pills, if taken in season, avert all danger of sickness."-H. WETTSTEIN, Byron, Ill.

Walla Walla Journal. The Union cannot say that Bond Brothers' circus was the best that ever showed in this city, but it can say consistently that the performance was clean and creditable. The price of admission was not as high as the usual circus charge, but the entertainment was in advance of many of the aggregations that heavenly home to rise. Quite a large have for their price of admission twice number responded to this last invitation. that charged by Bond Bros. All of the ring work and aerial performances were up to the usual standard and the dangerous and difficult feats of the LaRolle brothers was something that is rarely, if ever, excelled under a circus tent. Prof. and all who had taken part in these McLaughlin's group of trained horses is services. The exercises closed with the a study for the ablest critic, and the fact doxology. that a number of these animals were at one time a part of the great Barnum shows is enough to give credence to a claim that they are superior to other acts of a similar character. LaWande exhibits similar work to that of his eminent father, who has a world-wide reputation as a horseback rider, and Mr. James Burchard's movement as a contornonist deserves a special mention. The show is under the supervision of gentlemanly managers, which is always a pleasure to visitors. Bucklen's Armes Salve.

Mr. McCorkle is an old resident of Tygh Valley and well known throughout the country. His many friends wish him the greatest pleasure possible in his eastern trin. in his eastern trip.

The Evangelists' Farewell.

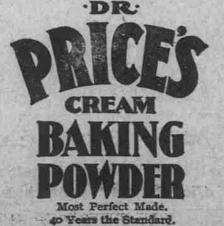

The memories that cluster around the farewells of old and tried friends seemed to be expressed in the words and songs of the evangelists, Carpenter and Wallace, last evening, who came to our city but ten days since.

A goodly number were present at this last service, and it was a very solemn occasion. At times both gentlemen were nearly overcome with the feelings that oppressed them. The solos of Mr. Wallace were especially impressive, and when he sang the last farewell but few remained unmoved. The solemnity of the occasion was intensified to those who had learned in the last few days to whom they labor.

Mr. Carpenter's text was taken from Isaaih liii:1, "Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?" His words were very earnest as he told his audience that they had done their duty in telling them the truth, and now it rested with them to decide. In giving the last invitation he said it might be the last time he should meet them this side of eternity, and as the choir sang "Just As I Am" he urged all who wished to take the start for a When Mr. Carpenter made the closing prayer he remembered these and all others who had felt constrained, but had not risen. Then he prayed for the choir, pastors, Christian workers, ushers

Many remained after the exercises to say good bye to the evangelists.
