REALIZED TOO LATE.

The election for congress in the Second district wavers between Ellis and Quinn, with chances slightly in favor of the latter. It is amusing to hear the statements made by those deluded Republicans who cast their votes primarily for Northrup and incidentally for Quinn.

The Portland Telegram—the evening edition of the Oregonian—comes to us this morning with a piece highly eulogistic of Populist Quinn and goes on to say "Martin Quinn, driver for a steam laundry of Portland, through a split in the Republican party, which could not but mean ruin and defeat, leaps from the obscurity of an $11 a week job to the proud eminence of representing the state of Oregon at the national capital, and be it known that Mr. Quinn, despite his humble occupation, will in no wise bring discredit upon the state so far as intelligence and ability to express himself is concerned."

So the Telegram, to soothe the pangs of disappointment which every true Republican will feel if Quinn's election results, eulogizes that gentleman to a remarkable extent. At the same time the Portland paper states the truth that we have all been saying when it maintains that Quinn was elected through a split in the Republican party which could not but mean ruin and defeat. And who is to blame for this split in the Republican party? The answer is too plain to need any emphasis. The course of the Oregonian and Telegram in supporting a man who never at any time had a show of election, has been the cause of the defeat which hangs imminent over the Republican party.

Better a half a loaf than no bread at all. The course of Mr. Ellis in congress may not have been all that his constituents desired, but how much better would Oregon be represented by him than by the Populist, Mr. Quinn.

The Republican party is disorganized, disrupted and beaten as regards the state election. Let the Oregonian say what it will, the people have placed the blame where it rightfully belongs—with the candidacy of Judge Northrup.

The senate has passed the river and harbor bill over the president's veto. The position of the president is logical enough. If there is no money in the treasury with which to meet these great expenses, then the outly should not be created. Under Republican administrations money was easily found for all internal improvements without the need of bond sales. A change of administration is needed for the country's good, but let us have no more factional fights within Republican ranks. The consequences are too serious.

It has been suggested that Oregon move to Kansas. Why not Kansas come to Oregon? We are as good a Populist state as Kansas.

The large vote which was polled in The Dalles Monday shows how steadily our city has increased in population. No better criterions are needed than the increase in the school enumeration and voting population.

There is plenty of time between now and November to work up a strong sound money sentiment in Oregon if the national platform will give us the proper kind of a platform and a courageous candidate. Oregon is not a Populist state, even though appearances are against her.

The Circus.

Walla Walla Journal.
The Union cannot say that Bond Brothers' circus was the best that ever showed in this city, but it can say consistently that the performance was clean and creditable. The price of admission was not as high as the usual circus charge, but the entertainment was in advance of many of the aggregations that have for their price of admission twice that charged by Bond Bros. All of the ring work and aerial performances were up to the usual standard and the dangerous and difficult feats of the LaRolle brothers was something that is rarely, if ever, excelled under a circus tent. Prof. McLaughlin's group of trained horses is a study for the ablest critic, and the fact that a number of these animals were at one time a part of the great Barnum shows is enough to give credence to a claim that they are superior to other acts of a similar character. LaWande exhibits similar work to that of his eminent father, who has a world-wide reputation as a horseback rider, and Mr. James Burchard's movement as a contortionist deserves a special mention. The show is under the supervision of gentlemanly managers, which is always a pleasure to visitors.

Dr. PIERCE'S Golden Medical DISCOVERY

Cures Ninety-eight per cent. of all cases of Consumption, in all its Earlier Stages.

Although by many believed to be incurable, there is the evidence of hundreds of living witnesses to the fact that, in all its earlier stages, consumption is a curable disease. Not every case, but a large percentage of cases, and we believe, fully 98 per cent. are cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, even after the disease has progressed so far as to induce repeated bleedings from the lungs, severe lingering cough with copious expectoration (including tubercular matter), great loss of flesh and extreme emaciation and weakness.

Do you doubt that hundreds of such cases reported to us as cured by "Golden Medical Discovery" were genuine cases of that dread and fatal disease? You need not take our word for it. They have, in nearly every instance, been so pronounced by the best and most experienced home physicians, who have no interest whatever in misrepresenting them, and who were often strongly prejudiced and advised against a trial of "Golden Medical Discovery," but who have been forced to confess that it surpasses in curative power over this fatal malady, all other medicines with which they are acquainted. Nasty cod-liver oil and its filthy "emulsions" and mixtures, had been tried in nearly all these cases and had either utterly failed to benefit, or had only seemed to benefit a little for a short time. Extract of malt, whiskey, and various preparations of the hypophosphites had also been faithfully tried in vain. The photographs of a large number of those cured of consumption, bronchitis, lingering coughs, asthma, chronic nasal catarrh and kindred maladies, have been skillfully reproduced in a book of 160 pages which will be mailed to you, on receipt of address and six cents in stamps. Address for Book, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
