Also agents for the Celebrated Cleveland Bicycle.

WHY? have we taken hold of the VICTOR BICYCLE as our leading Wheel.

Because after thoroughly testing a dozen different makes, we have come to the conclusion that the VICTOR is the BEST.

Because it is mechanically perfect, and while not TOO LIGHT for our bad roads, yet it runs the easiest.

Because it has a tire that, while light, is almost PUNCTURE PROOF. (We will repair all punctures free for the season on 1896 Victor Tires.)

We have 1896 Ribcycles that list at $100 that we will sell for $75, but they are not VICTORS. Our 1896 VICTORS sell for $100.

For medium grade bicycles, we have the Waverley and Crescents—$50 to $85. Good second hand wheels, $25 to $50.

Bicycles and Tandems for rent. Wheels repaired. We keep constantly on hand a good stock of compressed air, for inflating tires, and give it away. Get your tires inflated.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

"Past Redemption" Friday night. Forecast—Showers tonight; fair Tuesday.

The Regulator did not go below this morning, but will tomorrow.

The run of fish is very light, but with a falling river, there is a better chance of a catch.

Geo. W. Moody and Ida Elizabeth Chapman were married this afternoon by Justice L. S. Davis.

Attorney H. S. Wilson is in Goldendale, where he appears as counsel for the three drug store men of that town who have been indicted for selling liquor.

The old Frank Taylor property across the river, afterward owned by the Interstate Improvement Co. was sold at sheriff's sale Saturday, the plaintiffs bidding in the property for $5,000.

The Regulator will make a trip tomorrow, leaving at 8 a. m., and will make connection with the Dalles City for Portland. Excursion rates, Cascades and return, 50 cents. W. C. Allaway, Agent.

The river has been at a standstill for the past twenty-four hours. Late news from the upper river is that the Snake has fallen eight inches, and the Upper Columbia raised four inches. It is now the general impression that the river has nearly or quite attained its height for the season.

The Junior League of the M. E. church will give a picnic next Wednesday, to which the children, and all interested in their religious welfare, are invited to attend. The company will meet at the academy grounds at 9:30 o'clock, with lunch baskets, and from there will proceed to the picnic grounds.

The sliding mountain near Bonneville is again causing the O. R. & N. much trouble. The river washing underneath has caused the land on which the road is built to slide toward the river. By great exertion on the part of a large force of men, traffic has so far been comparatively uninterrupted.

Tickets for "Past Redemption" are selling at a lively rate and good seats will soon be scarce. The entertainment is given for the purpose of meeting the expenses of the grand lodge, and the hall will be filled by our home people and the visitors. The play itself is very strong, and we understand the cast is enthusiastic concerning its merits.

There is a chance that the McCoy laborers are to be paid for their month's work. Mr. McCoy requested the sheriff to conduct him to Portland yesterday, promising to make an effort to secure the money. The ditch men have worked nearly two months. They were paid at the end of the fraction of the first month, but were not paid at the end of the second month, an aggregate sum of about $2,200. This they insist upon getting before they resume work on the ditch.

The idea corral of the Democratic editor became tired of its duties this afternoon, and waiting till its owner walked down to the D. P. & A. N. Co. wharf, allowed the wind to waft it from his head to the broad bosom of the Columbia. Mr. Donthit hurriedly got into a boat and gave chase, but when he regained it, it was pretty wet. That is the first time, says Mr. Donthit, he ever soaked his hat.

A jury trial is in progress this afternoon before circuit court in the case of Wolf & Zweicker Iron Works vs. I. H. Taffe. It is an action on a promissory note given by Taffe for hoisting apparatus and fish wheel gearing. Taffe claims the goods were never sent him and that he signed the note under a misapprehension. The attorney for plaintiff is H. H. Riddell; attorneys for defendant Huntington & Wilson.

On June 4th Mrs. Emily B. Rinehart was appointed the legal guardian over her children, Sayre Rinehart, aged 13, Earl and Carl Rinehart, twins, aged 11, and Philip Rinehart, aged 8 years. It is deemed necessary that a guardian be appointed for the persons and estate of these minors, for the purpose of collecting certain moneys due to said minors. The requisite bond was filed June 5th.

The Hood River strawberry crop is still backward about ripening. Wednesday night something over 100 crates were shipped to Montana. Prices in the Montana market remain good for Hood River berries. At Butte they have been selling for $7 a crate. In some early localities the crop was injured by the frost and cold rains, but on the whole, the crop is better than for several years. The prospect is considered good for prices ruling as high as they did last year throughout the season.

Roadbed Endangered.

Four more feet of water will wash away the track at Umatilla and in various places along the O. R. & N., unless something can be done to prevent it. To this end two work trains were put on Saturday, the steam shovel was brought into use, and the work commenced of loading cars with rock for use at the endangered roadbed at Umatilla. A train consisting of thirty-two cars pulled out for that point this morning, loaded with rock which was procured at the new cut near the former big jrestle west of the city. The shovel broke when seventeen cars of the second train were loaded and these are in the yard awaiting more loaded cars to make up the full train. The shovel was sent to Portland for repairs. The river has fallen slightly since morning, and hopes are entertained that the extreme height has been reached.

River Readings.

PORTLAND, June 8, 1896.
Umatilla river, 21.4; fall of .2
Wenatchee, 30.5; rise of one foot.
Lewiston, 18.4; fall of 6 inches.

Unveiling Ceremonies.

The event of yesterday was the unveiling ceremonies of the Woodmen at Sunset cemetery. The monument was one erected to the memory of Thos. N. Joles. It was erected about a year ago, but the unveiling ceremonies were postponed owing to the absence of Mrs. Isaac Joles.

The procession formed at the corner of Second and Court streets. It was headed by The Dalles band and immediately followed by the Woodmen on foot, to the number of 98. In the procession were a delegation of 15 from Dufur, also Mr. O. D. Sturgess of Goldendale. The Woodmen Circle, the ladies auxiliary of the order, followed in carriages. Then came many citizens. Probably 1000 people altogether were gathered at the cemetery to witness the ceremonies. These were under the direction of Consul Gibbons, Advisor Mann, Banker Phillips, Clerk Filloon and Neighbor C. H. Brown. The opening song was "Nearer My God to Thee." Dr. Doane read the poem "Oh, Why Should the Spirit of Mortal Be Proud." Two beautiful hymns were sung by mixed voices. The oration by Mr. John Micnell was masterly. He extolled the virtues and sterling qualities of the deceased in a fitting manner, and dwelt upon the benefits of the order of which the deceased was an honored member. The principal floral piece was an emblematic wreath presented by the Circle, which was laid at the foot of the monument during the impressive ceremonies. There were many handsome bouquets also offered as tributes to the memory of the deceased.

H. H. Joles, wife and two daughters of Genesee, Ill., and Chas. N. Joles of Tacoma, were present at the unveiling ceremonies.

The Coming Man.

The coming woman can don masculine continuations, tie her four-in-hand around her stand-up collar, pull down her vest, straighten her hat and sail in to take the business responsibilities from the weary shoulders of her henpecked "hubby" just as soon as she pleases, for it was fully demonstrated last Saturday evening at the basket social, held in the hall of The Dalles Lodge No. 2, I. O. G. T., that the rising generation of young men are fully capable of caring for the culinary department of the household. In fact, the lunches brought by the boys when compared with those which the girls prepared two or three weeks ago—well, we won't compare them, the girls might get offended—but they were works of art, every one. A splendid time was had by all concerned. Visitor.

Klickitat Populists.

The Klickitat Populists held a convention Saturday at Young's hall to discuss the feasibility of getting a ticket in the field at an early day. Further action was postponed until after the meeting of the St. Louis convention. Andrew Jackson Long, an old soldier and pensioner, made a telling speech for Populism. The success of Populism in Oregon's recent election was referred to by different speakers. One speaker predicted there would be a greater landslide for Populism in Washington this fall than there was at Oregon's recent election.
