AND THREATENED WITH BALDNESS
The Danger is Averted by Using
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation, and was so well satisfied with the result that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It stopped the hair from falling out, stimulated a new growth of hair, and kept the scalp free from dandruff. Only an occasional application is now needed to keep my hair of good, natural color. I never hesitate to recommend any of Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HAZITT, Avoca, Neb.

GOOD TEMPLARS.

Thirty-Second Session of the Grand Lodge, I. O. G. T.

The K. of P. hall had been engaged as the place for holding the sessions of this meeting, and at that place at 2 p. m. yesterday, W. W. Breeden, grand chief templar, called the members of the grand lodge to order, and the meeting was opened in the regular ritualistic style, after which the committee on credentials reported fifty-two persons entitled to the grand lodge degree. Part of them being without the district degree it was found necessary to confer it upon them, and Past Chief Templar C. H. Merrill was appointed to confer the district degree upon those entitled to it. He then reported those in waiting as ready and entitled to the grand lodge degree and it was conferred upon the delegates and all others entitled to it. Those who know think the instruction in this degree very helpful and impressive and under Grand Chief Templar W. W. Breeden it was made doubly so.

After the new members had been admitted, the grand lodge opened in the subordinate degree, at which time all members of the subordinate lodges are admitted, while working in this degree.

REPORTS.
The grand chief templar's report showed that though the hard times had hindered the work, yet there was a hopeful outlook for the future, and bid the members take courage and press onward, as there was a bright future before them.

Grand Secretary W. S. Hurst's report showed, that with all the changes during the past year, there had been an increase in membership, there now being fifty-two lodges with an aggregate membership of 2,104. More than $1,000 has been received and expended in carrying on this work. The other reports were postponed till another time.

Greetings were exchanged with the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Greetings were ordered sent to the Woman's Suffrage convention, now holding its first Oregon convention in Portland.

EVENING.

The evening exercises were in the form of a welcome to the visiting friends. It was a very pleasant affair and was open to the general public.

There was an opening chorus by the choir, after which Rev. W. C. Curtis led in prayer.

The greeting of Juvenile Temple was given by eight little girls, each displaying a letter as she repeated a little verse of greeting, the eight letters, as displayed, when the verses had been recited forming the word greeting.

The address of welcome in behalf of the city, was given by Hon. John Michell and our state senator elect extended a very hearty welcome to our visitors, speaking many words of encouragement and interest.

He was followed by Rev. John Wood, who extended a welcome from the subordinate lodges of the city. In earnest, impassioned language he dwelt upon the importance of temperance work. He spoke of his membership of Harmon lodge, extending over a period of thirty years, and recalled to memory the thrilling temperance speeches of Father Harmon, whose name the subordinate lodge previously bore. Mr. Wood's address was forcible, touching and eloquent, and he was listened to with rapt attention.

The duet by Archie and Edna Barnett was appropriate and both possessing beautiful voices, was rendered with rare effect.

Rev. Wm. Hoskins, of Cascade Locks, responded to the addresses of welcome in well-chosen words. His zeal in the temperance cause is secondary to none and his speech was effective, convincing and of unvarying interest throughout.

Prof. C. W. Travis gave a character monologue, of a comic nature, and responded to an encore with Marc Antony's oration over the dead body of Julius Caesar. The well-known dramatic oration did not suffer by Mr. Travis' rendition of it.

Nellie Forward, a very little girl, sang an affecting song of childish sentiment in a sweet-toned voice, entitled "Papa, What Would You Take for Me?" She received merited applause, though too young perhaps to appreciate its meaning. Miss Martha Schooling gave an interesting and appropriate recitation, which she rendered very nicely.

Miss Myrtle Michell then sang a solo, rendered in that young lady's best style, which was much appreciated.

The presentation by Mrs. Mattie Barnett, G. S. J. T., of the banner to Forest Grove Lodge, I. O. G. T., was an important feature of the evening. Forest Grove lodge had made the largest increase of membership of any lodge in the state, growing from 32 to 126.

The choir then sang the beautiful selection "Rainbow," after which was sung the doxology, and benediction by Rev. W. C. Curtis.

WEDNESDAY'S SESSION.

Wednesday morning's session was presided over by Grand Chief Templar W. W. Breeden. The grand and the district degrees were conferred on twelve more persons by P. G. C. T., C. H. Newell. The rest of the morning was spent in hearing reports of the officers not reporting yesterday and also the lodge deputies, which were all encouraging. The report of the Grand Supt. Juvenile Temples, Mrs. J. E. Barnett, shows a membership in the Juvenile Temples of the state of 813. State Lecturer Prof. Trip stated that he had organized 24 lodges in the state since entering it the 3d of last November. During the morning letters were read from R. W. G. C. T. Dr. Mann and Miss Forsyth, R. W. G. S. Juvenile Temples.

The election of officers promises to be an exciting time, and is set for this afternoon, as soon as possible after coming together.

Grand lodge will open in the Subordinate degree this evening, and all members in good standing are invited to attend.

Farewell Reception.

One of the pleasantest days of the rose month brought together at the home of Mrs. Gibbons a number of ladies with the Aid Society of the Congregational church in a farewell to Mrs. Eugene Price, who is about to leave for Montana. To the oldest of those present Mrs. Price had been known and loved from childhood, since the days when in short dresses, with her braids of hair hanging down her shoulders, she gave promise on the platform in song of what we have now as a rich fruition. The same voice, though developed, enriched by both time and study, charmed the ladies in pleasant songs yesterday, only saddened by the thought that Montana is so far away; that such reunions as took place then will not be frequent in days to come. Old friends and new friends all were one in the expression of cordial good wishes for the welfare and prosperity of Mrs. Price and her family in the new home to which they are going.

The following ladies participated: Mesdames Price, McFarland, Moody, Morgan, McCoy, Herbert, Condon, Blakeley, Kelsay, Wilkerson, Pease, Thompson, Wilson, Brooks, Gibbons, Ralph Gibbons, Phirman, Gilbert, Gray, Garretson, Huntington, Patterson, Marden, Curtis.

Through trains on the O. R. & N will run via Umatilla, Walla Walla and Pendleton. Through sleepers, first and second class will run in connection with the Union Pacific, the same as heretofore. A through first-class sleeper from Portland to Spokane, connecting with the first-class sleeper to St. Paul and a through tourist sleeper from Portland to St. Paul, will be run in connection with the Great Northern railway.
