

TURNING GRAY AND THREATENED WITH BALDNESS

The Danger is Averted by Using
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation, and was so well satisfied with the result that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It stopped the hair from falling out, stimulated a new growth of hair, and kept the scalp free from dandruff. Only an occasional application is now needed to keep my hair of good, natural color. I never hesitate to recommend any of Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HAIGHT, Avoca, Neb.

THE TEMPERANCE CONVENTION
Thursday Afternoon's Work—Election of Officers—W. M. Shank Grand Chief Templar.

THURSDAY.
The afternoon was spent in listening to the reports from the lodges represented at the grand lodge. These proved very interesting, as they showed in the same general way the trials and discouragements as well as the helps and encouragements experienced by all; and though a place may be peculiar, yet those things thought to be peculiar to one place are found to exist in many others.

The committee on grand lodge of Oregon urged the issuing a paper that should be a medium of communication between the lodges and members. A plan was proposed whereby a paper of this kind could be published monthly at a very low price to each member, and if all took hold and helped it could be made a success. The committee recommended the appointment of a committee to further investigate the matter, and if thought advisable by the committee, to go ahead with the publication.

The committee on finance completed their work and reported finding everything as regards the secretary and treasurer's bonds in proper shape. They recommended that the per capita tax remain at the present price of 15 cents per member. This point caused a long debate, but the recommendation was finally adopted.

It is the wish of the grand lodge that one or more lecturers be kept in the field all the time, to work for the cause of temperance and organize lodges where it can be done.

EVENING.
During the evening the election of grand lodge officers occupied the time, and it was a late hour before this work was completed. The result is as follows:
G. C. T., W. M. Shank, of Canby; G. V. T., Eva Bryant, of Sunnyview; G. S., H. S. Hurst, of Aurora; G. S. J. T., Mrs. J. E. Barnett, of The Dalles; G. Coun., W. L. Blackwell, of Rainier; G. Treas., W. D. Markham, of Forest Grove.

A Boundless Supply of Good Water Under Us.

Encouraged by the splendid flow of water struck by the well-drillers at the electric light house, the Diamond flour mills will commence drilling Monday, the purpose of which is purely to supply the mills with water and if they strike the same supply will be well satisfied. In this instance the water rose to within nine feet of the surface, and a powerful steam pump, working for an hour failed to lower the water a single inch. The well driller has plenty of work in sight for all summer, for others are talking strongly of boring for either water or coal. After a hole is bored at the flour mills, the drilling apparatus will probably be removed to the hill east of the fair grounds, where it is thought from the unbroken formations flowing water may be struck.

The water found is soft, pure and sweet and is of even better quality than that supplied by our excellent water system.

GAVE THE FISH A JAG.
This is One Way of Being Entertaining in California.

"Did you ever see drunken fish?" inquired a Sonoma county wine grower. No one would confess that he had seen intoxicated fish, and the silence indicated a predisposition to incredulity, says a writer in the San Francisco Post.

"I suppose you are going to tell us about a drunken catfish staggering down through the orchard and catching a bird?" suggested one.

"Do you think I am a liar?" demanded the farmer, indignantly, but he was left in ignorance as to the belief of his hearers. "My winery is right on the bank of a little creek. This time of the year the water stands in pools and every pool is full of trout, suckers and pike. All of the waste from the winery is thrown into the creek, and that is enough to discolor the water, but the other day a big vat of sour claret burst and nearly all of it ran down into the hole of water just below the winery. In half an hour the pool was crowded with fish floating belly up. I thought they were dead, and pulled a big pike out, but he wiggled and flopped around just like an old drunk trying to get up without anything to hold on to. One by one they disappeared as they sobered up, and when the water cleared two days afterward there wasn't a dead fish in the pool. They had just been jugged."

One of Maine's Widows.
There is now living in Hartland, Me., at the ripe old age of 75 years, one of Maine's notable widows. This is Mrs. Ellen Phillips, relict of George, a brother of Wendell Phillips. Her husband was a graduate from Harvard college, a member of the famous class of '28, among his classmates and intimate friends being Dr. O. W. Holmes and James Freeman Clark. Mrs. Phillips has in her house several antique relics of great interest and historical value, among them being a marble top table and drawer which belonged to John Brown, of Harper's Ferry fame, and a copper ewer and sideboard, once the property of John Phillips, the first mayor of the city of Boston. She tells many an interesting reminiscence of Wendell Phillips, with whom she was intimately acquainted.

The Great Jennings Estate.
Patriotic citizens of Minnesota who have been led to consider themselves heirs to "the great Jennings estate" of England, are still waiting patiently for the enormous shipment of bullion from the Bank of England's vaults, which will soon put our circulation on an immovable gold basis. St. Paul has the craze badly, nearly $150,000 having been collected in that city alone for "costs" in the last few years. The collection of this has been in the hands of a regular stock company in Philadelphia, and has proved such a good thing that another company has been formed in Minneapolis as a competitor.

Notice.
There will be a meeting of the members of Mt. Hood Hose Co., No. 4, at the hose house on Friday evening, the 12th inst., at 8 o'clock. JOHN W. LEWIS, Secretary.

Battle Ax PLUG

The umpire now decides that "BATTLE AX" is not only decidedly bigger in size than any other 10 cent piece of tobacco, but the quality is the finest he ever saw, and the flavor delicious. You will never know just how good it is until you try it.

The highest claim for other tobaccos is "Just as good as Durham." Every old smoker knows there is none just as good as

Blackwell's BULL DURHAM Smoking Tobacco

You will find one coupon inside each two ounce bag, and two coupons inside each four ounce bag of Blackwell's Durham. Buy a bag of this celebrated tobacco and read the coupon—which gives a list of valuable presents and how to get them.
