A VERY WEAK BLUFF.

Teller and his Rocky mountain bushwhackers declare, says the Telegram, that they expect to carry at least five states out of the St. Louis convention with them, and are very hopeful that the leader of their bolt will be nominated by the Democratic convention at Chicago. This declaration is a pitiful expose of the weakness of the silverite cause at St. Louis. As a menace it is pathetic.

The five states referred to are Colorado, Utah, Idaho, Nevada and Montana. Their total strength in the electoral college is sixteen votes, or less than half of the thirty-six apportioned to New York. The party that opposes sound money is certain to lose New York, so it is seen that the Teller "bluff" is a weakling.

And if the silver wing of the Democratic party absorbs the Tellerites, so much the better it will be for the sound money cause. With gold or silver the issue, and the forces pitted against each other on the two tickets, instead of a triangular fight, it is assumed that the Republicans, with an anti-silver platform, would be able to carry nineteen states, giving a total of 205 votes, and the free-silver Democrats 140, having only to win from 102 votes in doubt.

In these are included twenty-four from Illinois and fifteen Indiana, where silver is an uncertain quantity, and the revolt of gold men may be such as to give the Republicans a victory. In Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia the Republican leaders believe they have a fighting chance. Therefore it is difficult to see how the Tellerites can possibly hope to intimidate the sound-money majority at St. Louis.

But the Chicago convention will not nominate Teller or any other Republican bolter. There are too many carefully nurtured presidential booms within the Democratic free-coinage camp to allow any such move as that. The Blands and the Bryans and the Blackburns and the Boieses and the other busy B's will hardly step aside and permit a disgruntled Republican to walk off with the prize—valueless though it is—for whose possession they have been laying pipe and stretching wires for years. Not if they know themselves.

New York is beginning to realize it is not the controlling force in national conventions as of yore. The "Middle West is in the saddle and will name the candidate. One of the good results of this transfer of power will be that New York's local political squabbles cannot be foisted upon the nation as has been done in previous conventions.

There is a great deal of agitation going on at St. Louis as to whether or not the word "gold" should appear in the Republican platform. We see little need for much time to be spent over any choice of words. Since the convention must declare for sound money, based upon a single standard and that standard gold, why not be as honest in phrasing as it pretends to be in conviction.

An Oregonian in Illinois.

WASHINGTON, Ill., June 12, 1896. EDITOR CHRONICLE:—As all the citizens of Wasco county take and read THE CHRONICLE (if they don't they ought to) it will save me the time and work of writing many letters by writing a brief item to you.

Four days and fourteen hours of pleasant and not fatiguing traveling passed me from The Dalles to Washington, Illinois, a quicker trip than I made forty-four years ago with an ox-team; and instead of meeting on the route sage brush, wild, savage Indians and buffalo by the thousand, I now find cities with macadamized streets, fine brick buildings, three, four and five stories high, and with populations varying from a few hundred to 106,000, which latter figure is the population of Denver, a city without an equal as to order, beautiful streets and buildings. Spent four hours there, most of the time on street cars.

Have now spent four days in Washington, where I passed my boyhood days. Found my sisters, who were the object of my visit, but very few of my boyhood associates. They have mostly been transported across the dark river. Great changes take place in forty-four years.

It will be a satisfaction to the many friends of Andrew Anderson to know he stood the trip better than was expected. I accompanied him to Topeka, Kansas.

Of all that I have seen on this journey of more than two thousand miles, as to climate, scenery, manners and customs of the people, etc., Oregon for me. Yours Very Truly.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address:

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed on exhibit at the world's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the world's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."
