

TURNING GRAY AND THREATENED WITH BALDNESS

The Danger is Averted by Using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. E. C. Riggs left for Portland today.

Miss Hill left for the Cascades this morning.

Mr. J. H. Cradlebaugh went to Hood River this morning.

Mrs. T. J. Driver and sister left this morning for the Locks.

Mr. J. H. Parsons of the John Day country is in the city today.

Mrs. McNulty and daughters left on the Regulator this morning for Moesier.

Miss Beulah Sterling returned this morning from Walla Walla, where she has been for ten days visiting friends.

A party of young ladies left this morning for a day's excursion to the Locks. The party comprised Misses Wenner, Ursula and Nona Ruch, Lay, Bessie French, Sandrock, Schmidt, Prinz, Nettie and Myrtle Mitchell, Lockwood, Fredden, Schanne, Butler and Mrs. Hal French.

Handsome Medals for Good Shots.

It is a little doubtful when the militia encampment will be held at Hood River on account of the fisherman's strike, but VanNorden has completed the medals for the best marksmanship at this encampment and they are very pretty.

Five companies will compete for the prizes, including the field officers and non-commissioned staff. The companies are Pendleton, La Grande, Baker, Wasco and The Dalles. The Dalles has no one in their ranks who may be called a crack shot, though good scores have been made at target practice.

Regarding the probability of being called to Astoria, an Astoria paper speaks thus lightly of the situation: "Let the militia come! Astoria will give the boys a rousing reception and a select committee will show them the sights of the city, says the Astoria Herald. If they are good crapsshooters, entertainment in this line will be furnished. Astoria needs the militia. The boys will blow in a few dollars and it will help out all kinds of business. They don't need to bring guns, as one policeman in the daytime and four at night time is all that has been required during the strike, and all they have done is to draw their salaries. Astoria needs a convention or six or seven companies of militia to help it out. The Fishermen's Union has kindly consented to escort the militia to the city hall with a brass band, and Sofus Jensen will tender them the freedom of the city. Astoria has been so quiet the past month one could hear a gum drop. Astorians are noted as great entertainers and will fill the brave sojers up on fish and clams, with a few decoctions of Pride of Astoria to wash it down. Let the militia come."

Ideas of Savages and Children. The Cheyennes and other Indians of the plains believe that thunder is caused by the flapping of the wings of an immense bird which flies across the sky, bringing the storm. All the ideas of savage tribes are based on such simple conceptions of nature. The ideas of young children are often identical with savage myths, as a result of minds on the same plane of development attempting to explain the same thing.

The Water Lily. Several specimens of water lilies have the very curious peculiarity of blooming all day and at evening closing their blossoms, and, by retracting the stem, drawing the flower entirely under water. There is no more singular fact in the history of flowers than this oddity of the water lily.

Extravagant Relic Worship. The most extravagant instance of literary relic worship on record is said to be that of a well-known Englishman, who constantly wears in a small locket attached to a chain around the neck a portion of the charred skull of Shelley.

Blakeley & Houghton desire us to publish the following extract from a letter of Chas. M. Gutfeld of Reedley, Fresno county, Calif., as they handle the remedy referred to and want their customers to know what a splendid medicine it is: "It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough remedy I was relieved of a very bad cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy." A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat, and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs.

In the fall of 1893 a son of Mr. T. A. McFarland, a prominent merchant of Live Oak, Sutter county, Calif., was taken with a very heavy cold. The pains in his chest were so severe that he had spasms and was threatened with pneumonia. His father gave him several large doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which broke up the cough and cured him. Mr. McFarland says whenever his children have croup he invariably gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always cures them. He considers it the best cough remedy in the market. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton's Drug store.

How to Cure Rheumatism. ARAGO, Coos Co., Oregon, Nov. 10, 1893.—I wish to inform you of the great good Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done my wife. She has been troubled with rheumatism of the arms and hands for six months, and has tried many remedies prescribed for that complaint, but found no relief until she used this Pain Balm; one bottle of which has completely cured her. I take pleasure in recommending it for that trouble. Yours truly, C. A. Bullard. 50 cents and $1.00 bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.
