WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

"They've run me so I've had no rest, They've run me till I'm sore; But, madam, here I do protest That I will run no more!" -Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The warehouses are crowded with wool. None has been sold yet.

Congressman Ellis will deliver the Fourth of July oration at Pendleton.

The river rose six inches during the night. It stood this morning at 41 feet.

The new K. of P. hall, in the Vogt block, is being fitted up today with the hangings, etc.

Some of the fish-wholes are in danger of being lost if the river comes up more than four or five feet higher.

Moore, the confectioner, kindly remembered THE CHRONICLE force today with a box of his excellent ice cream.

From all parts of Coos county comes reports that the fruit crop is ruined. Many farmers, with good orchards, say that they will hardly have apples enough for their own use.

The Dalles will not celebrate this year. There were not enough citizens favorable to a celebration to make a committee quorum at the council chambers last night, and no action was taken of any kind.

The Dalles Commission Co. shipped out ten boxes of Royal Ann cherries yesterday and ten this morning. The strawberry market is declining. Advices from Salt Lake quote $2.50 yesterday.

Mr. Stubling will have on sale tomorrow a non-alcoholic drink called malt nitrine. This drink comes in pint bottles and is intended as a tonic and an appetizer. It is a malt extract, positively without alcohol.

While Mrs. C. C. Croner, of Eugene, was in Salem last Sunday she visited the state penitentiary. As she was being shown through the building, one of the convicts picked her pocket, in which was a well-filled purse.

The janitor is making benches on both sides of the avenue leading to the school house door. This is for the convenience of ladies when listening to the Sunday band concerts, and is very thoughtful on the part of Mr. Glasius.

A contest at bowling between the married and unmarried ladies at the club yesterday resulted in a victory to the matrons, the score being 192 to 184 points. These continued results go to prove that marriage is not a failure.

The Woodmen of the World held a meeting in Pendleton yesterday, at which one of the principal points of business was to elect delegates to the head camp which meets in Helena next August. Delegate D. C. Herrin of The Dalles thought he detected a job, on presentation of a slate which was shown him, and refused to be drawn into it. This precipitated a fight which resulted in The Dalles and all points surrounding it losing all representation at the head camp.

An excursion of medical men came up the river today to view the Columbia river scenery. The National Eclectic Medical Association have just finished a three days session in Portland. Next year they will meet in Minneapolis. The doctors took in the sights of The Dalles from 1 to 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Stubling has a rare curiosity in the shape of a plant which blooms tonight, the first time in nine years. It is called the flower of the Gods. It opens at 6 o'clock this evening and closes at 3 o'clock in the morning. All are invited to see this rare flower at the residence, Eighth and Liberty street.

A new discovery has been made in British Columbia. This time it is graphite. It is said that the vein is close to salt water, and is sixty feet wide. The mine is owned by Seattle people, and as pencil graphite is worth $1,200 a ton, the owners feel sure that they have a fortune in their grasp. Samples have been sent to the Dixon company in New Jersey. The quality is so good that a company for its manufacture into pencils will be organized.

Prof. C. W. Travis, of New York, arrived in this city Monday from The Dalles, where, on Friday evening preceding, a drama was produced under his direction by local talent. He made this office a call and informed us of his intention to produce a similar play in Baker City. The Young Ladies of St. Stephen's church have taken the matter in charge, and "The Brownies and Queer People" will be enacted on June 30, in which fifty children will take part. -Baker City Blade.

The maximum berry shipment was reached last night at Hood River when 1036 crates were shipped. A carload went to Omaha, consisting of 640 crates, and the balance were divided among Montana, Colorado, Wyoming and Washington. An income of $2,000 a day is flowing into Hood River from the berry crop. There have been shipped altogether 8,460 crates, and there are about as many more to ship. As the receipts will net growers at least $2 per crate, the little community of Hood River is richer by $32,000 in the short space of a month.

Specimens of class work and fine arts will be on exhibition at St. Mary's academy, Saturday and Sunday, June 20th and 21st. Parents and friends are cordially invited to call and examine the above-mentioned work. jun16-3t

These Must Go at Once.

A home with lot, worth $800; $750 takes it. Owner leaving city, and must sell. Three lots only five blocks from Court house. Lay in fair shape; $150 for the three. One fine business lot in heart of city; $800. Among a multitude of offerings, these three are the very best. Match them if you can. FRED D. HILL, Real Estate & Fire Insurance. Hollingshead-Hinton.

A quiet home wedding took place last Tuesday at 1 o'clock p. m. at Red Willows, the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hinton. Their daughter, Lillie May, was united in marriage to Mr. John L. Hollingshead, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Leech of Antelope in a most impressive manner. Only immediate members of the family and a few intimate friends were present. The parlors were tastefully decorated with numerous wild flowers, which rendered the scene of festivity a sylvan bower. The bride was lovely in a gown of white organdie, prettily trimmed with lace, with veil, held in place by a spray of lilies of the valley.

After cordial congratulations, the guests repaired to the dining-room, where a dainty luncheon was served. The numerous presents received attested the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held by their large circle of friends and relatives.

Deplorable Accident.

The death of Mrs. W. W. Wheaton occurred at Huntington Sunday, resulting from injuries sustained in being thrown from a cart. The fatality is a particularly sad one as Mrs. Wheaton, whose maiden name was Miss Kate Collins, was a bride of but four days, having been united in marriage to Mr. Wheaton in Baker City on Wednesday of last week. Mr. Wheaton has a fruit farm on Conner creek and it was while on their way to their future home from Baker City that the horse became unmanageable and Mrs. Wheaton was thrown out and fatally injured. The deceased lady has been engaged in teaching school, and has a large number of friends in Baker county who are painfully shocked over her untimely death.

He Liked Artichokes.

John Wilson has quite a liking for artichokes, and last Wednesday he went up to the Chinese gardens to dig some, says the Astoria Herald, but made a mistake and unearthed some poison thing with a name long enough to wrap around a sore leg. He was found a short time afterward in the shape of the letter S, and it took a force pump and a doctor three hours to get the kinks out of him. Fourth of July Rates.

For the Fourth of July the O. R. & N. Co. will sell excursion tickets to any rail station within 300 miles of The Dalles at rate of one fare for the round trip. Tickets to be sold July 2d, 3d and 4th; good up to and including July 6th. jun19td E. E. LITTLE, Agent.
