

CANCER CURED

—AND A—
LIFE SAVED
By the Persistent Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. FIELDS, Bloomfield, Ia.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

These Must Go at Once.

DON'T TURN AND STARE.

It Is Well, After All, That Women Love Pretty Dressing.

Two women pass each other in the street of a provincial town; they are not acquainted, yet it is long odds that one of them turns around to look after the other—very short odds against both doing so. It is not the gait, says the Nineteenth Century, or the figure, or the hair of the stranger that has attracted attention, it is the dress, and not the person within it. The gentlemanly who are busy organizing the debasement of man will, of course, attribute this little failing to the vacuity of the feminine mind by reason of man's tyranny in excluding women from boards of directors and other intellectual arenas. It may be conceded that psychology and betterment are more recent fields than millinery, but this would be but a dull world and far uglier than it is, if every woman had a soul above chiffons. Odds grenade and tarlatan! that were a consummation by no means desirable. No, let all men who have eyes to see withal or hearts to lose set great store by the pains bestowed on pretty dressing; but if one may speak and live, the art should be studied with subtler tact than is sometimes seen. It should be better concealed; it is distressing to see a young woman's eyes wandering over the dress of her with whom she is talking, for if the mind be engaged in taking note of external detail, conversation ceases to be intercourse, and becomes the crackling of thorns under the pot. OFF FOR HIDDEN TREASURE.

Two Expeditions Organized for the Search of Lost Wealth.

Recently a couple of expeditions have started from San Francisco to unearth two deposits of treasure as rich and mysterious as the lost mines of the Aztecs. One, a party of easterners, has gone to San Miguel island, off Santa Barbara, to find the chests of Spanish doubloons which, according to tradition, were lost there years ago in the wreck of a Spanish bark. The survivors scoured their gold and buried it in a cave close to the historic spot where Cabrillo landed and afterward, going to the mainland, were slain by the Indians. The second expedition, which is backed by a hotelkeeper in Stockton, makes Cocos island, off the coast of Central America, its objective point. Cocos island was once the resort of pirates and on it, the tale goes, some of the buccaners buried their riches. The Stockton hotelkeeper and his associates have gone to work in a businesslike way. They have secured a concession from the Nicaraguan government to farm the island for a number of years and have imported a number of Germans who, if the treasure does not turn up, will get what they can out of the land by growing coffee. So far their search has been unsuccessful, the directions on the chart which locates the pirates' hoard having led to nothing.

Effective Call.

A traveling man put up for the night at the leading hotel in a small town, and before retiring left explicit instructions to be called in time for an early train. He was very earnest about the matter, and threatened the clerk with all manner of punishment if that duty was neglected. Early in the morning the guest was disturbed by a lively tattoo upon the door. "Well?" he demanded, sleepily. "I've got an important message for you," replied the bell-boy. The guest was up in an instant, opened the door and received from the boy a large envelope. He tore open the envelope hastily, and inside found a slip of paper on which was written in large letters: "Why don't you get up?" He got up.

Greater Edinburgh.

A scheme is on foot to double the area of Edinburgh by the annexation of certain rural districts and also the towns of Leith and Portobello. It seems that the present area of the city is less than ten square miles, while the population is more than 275,000. The present acreage of the city is 6,216 and the proposed rural extensions 5,780 acres. The area of Leith is 2,044 acres and the area of Portobello 257 acres, so that the area of the extended city would be 14,400 acres.
