THE SOUND MONEY DEMOCRATS.

It is well known that Cleveland regards the money question as the most important one in our politics, says the Globe-Democrat. He has done everything in his power to keep his party from taking the wrong course upon it, and his failure in that respect is the worst disappointment of his public life. A declaration for free silver by the Chicago convention will make it impossible for him to vote the Democratic ticket. The issue is not one of expedience, but of honesty and patriotism. He believes that the free coinage of silver would be a national calamity, and hence he cannot by any ingenuity of special pleading make it seem right or consistent to give the least countenance to that kind of a proposition. To say the least, he will have to stay away from the polls on election day. But can he afford merely to sulk in his tent, and neglect the opportunity to cast his ballot in favor of sound money? In other words, will it not be necessary for him to vote the Republican ticket in order to vindicate the integrity of his convictions and the sincerity of his opposition to a great public fallacy and peril? It is reported that he has expressed such an inclination, and surely he cannot be blamed if he carries it out.

As it is with Cleveland in this matter, so it is with all other honest and self-respecting sound money Democrats. The adoption of a free silver platform at Chicago will practically read them out of their party. They cannot give it their support this year without saying in effect that they are willing to remain under its banner even when it proposes to destroy the national credit and bring disaster upon all kinds of business. The situation is in a sense analogous to that which existed during the civil war, when the Democratic party as a party committed itself to a policy of sympathy with the enemies of the government. Patriotic Democrats did not hesitate at that time to vote the Republican ticket for the purpose of promoting the success of the Union cause. There is similar justification in the present instance for that method of manifesting devotion to the best interests of the country. If the Democratic party is determined to pursue an unpatriotic course on the money question, then those of its members who are opposed to such a proceeding cannot decently stay in its ranks and help to strengthen it for its nefarious purposes. They are in duty and honor bound to stand up for what they believe to be essential to financial and industrial safety and welfare, and to see that their votes are placed where they will be effective against one of the most mischievous heresies that has ever appeared in this country.

The Democrats of Oregon are seriously considering placing Penroyer's name before the convention for the vice-presidency. Oregon's erratic governor to excel in fame the many-whiskered Pepper of Kansas. The nomination of Penroyer would be in line with the coalition of the free silver forces. All other considerations are thrown to the winds in their devotion to the white metal.

DRS. DARRIN.

Drs. Darrin, after a sojourn in Portland of nine years, have closed their offices in that city, and one of them will be in The Dalles, at the Umatilla house, where he can be consulted free until July 2.

Their treatment by electricity has become so popular with the afflicted that their offices are crowded night and day, and their patients do not seek in vain for relief from the ills that flesh is heir to, is positive proof of the superiority of their electrical treatment over all other methods of cure.

As a further proof we give the names of some recent cures: Volna Webster, Weston, Oregon, catarrh cured. H. A. Tucker, president of the Bank of Genesee, Idaho, catarrh for fifteen years, cured. Judge O. P. Mason of Portland, deafness for twenty years from paralysis of the nerve, restored. Truman Butler, The Dalles, Oregon, chronic rheumatism and contracted joints and impoverished blood; all of years' standing, given up by all treatments until Dr. Darrin cured him. William M. Colwell, Skamokawa, Wash., sciatic rheumatism and liver complaint, cured. Also his brother, George L. Colwell, Skamokawa, Wash., paralysis of one side, permanently cured and remains so this day. Mary McConnell, Genesee, Idaho, cross-eye straightened, also her brother was cured of consumption eight years ago.

W. R. Duncan, Health's addition, Spokane, Wash., large scrofulous swelling and tumor in neck. W. Hays, 944 Fifth street, East Portland, Or., inflammation in neck of bladder and sciatic rheumatism—came on crutches to the doctor, cured and left crutches at the doctor's office. J. A. Linsey, news agent on the U. P. R. R., residing at Albina, Or., consumption, bronchitis and catarrh, cured and gained fifteen pounds. J. W. Kenny, Long Creek, Grant county, Or., kidney complaint and pains in the back and down the sciatic nerves, restored. Owen James, Spokane, Wash., abscess in left ear and quinsy, cured. Miss Maggie Synhorst, La Grande, Or., cross-eyed, cured.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
