MULTNOMAHS AHEAD

California Athletic Club Is Defeated.

THE COAST RECORDS BROKEN

Talent of Portland Runs a Mile in Remarkable Time—W. E. Talent Broke the Record.

PORTLAND, June 27.—The Multnomah Amateur Athletic club, of this city, won from the Olympic Athletic club, of San Francisco in the athletic games by a score of 57 to 44.

There were thirteen events and of these the Multnomah took nine firsts. Two Pacific coast records were broken, the running high jump and the one mile run. Kerrigan of the Multnomahs and W. C. Patterson of the Olympics each cleared the bar at six feet two inches, which breaks the former record for the running high jump, held by Kerrigan, by two inches. Patterson refused to jump off the tie and Kerrigan was given first place.

In the one mile run W. E. Talent of Multnomah broke the Pacific coast record by 23.5 seconds, making the mile in 4:31 2-5.

The War in Cuba.

HAVANA, June 27.—Major Louis Trujillo, with the Farnesco squadron, while reconnoitering near Siebe, this province, met a force of 600 insurgents under Alberto Rodriguez, at the Brujo bridge, near the California farm. Under the fire of the enemy, the squadron charged at a gallop and dispersed the insurgents, with a loss of twenty-one killed and many wounded. The main body of the troops then started in pursuit of the fugitives, and inflicted further loss upon them. Eight troopers were wounded with machetes.

The repeated denials of General Fitzhugh Lee, United States consul-general, that he has made unfavorable reports to President Cleveland, as announced in the United States, have produced a favorable effect here, and have counteracted the bad feeling occasioned by the publication of the erroneous reports.

THE DISGRACE TOO MUCH

Suicide of the Father of the Woman Who Challenged Corbett.

NEW YORK, June 28.—A special to the World from Batavia, N. Y., says: Jerome Rowan, a rich banker, the father of Lansing Rowan, the California actress who has challenged Corbett to meet her in a scientific sparring contest, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart. By his side lay a copy of Saturday's edition of the Batavia Daily News, containing a dispatch announcing that his daughter had challenged Corbett.

Mr. Rowan left a letter addressed to his wife, the contents of which she declines to make public. Mr. Rowan was 66 years old.

GOLD BUT NO FOOD.

Experience of an Amateur Pirate on the Chinese Coast.

It has surely fallen to the lot of few men to come near starving to death in a land of plenty, with over $900 in gold in their pocket—nay, by reason of that very fact. I had shipped at Hongkong on board a steamer bound for Shanghai, says a writer. When I signed she was flying Jardine's flag at the main, but I believed she carried the ensign of every nation and half the house flags of the world in her signal locker. An opium smuggler I was prepared to find her; that her chief business on the waters was piracy of the vilest sort and unredeemed by a glint of romance came upon me certainly as a revelation.

We attacked no ships, as far as I know, but, handled with marvelous skill and knowledge of the intricate coast navigation, she would run in after nightfall among the rocks and banks where one would expect a sampan to take the bottom, while shrieks, flames, the report of firearms and clash of steel would testify to the descent of my detectable shipmates upon one or another of the numerous fishing villages which fringe the shores of the China sea.

After four months' duress I struck a blow for liberty. My little hoard of morphine—jealously guarded toward this eventuality—deepened the narcosis in which the whole crew lay steeped after a ghastly debauch as we rode at anchor, and, forsaking all my goods and chattels and seizing in lieu such moneys as I could find, I dropped into the dingy and pulled off, shoeless, hatless, arrayed only in a shirt, trousers and belt containing the above named sum (close on $200), hoping to reach a German gunboat which had been sighted in the offing earlier in the day.

But the night was thick and in less than an hour I found myself close in shore. The question of what to do was, speedily settled by the boat capsizing among the breakers, leaving me no alternative but to land. Day was breaking and I lay till next morning in a tomb cut above the road in the hillside, and for the next three weeks I nearly perished for lack of nourishment, not daring to exhibit a gold piece, for I had no weapon and would certainly have been robbed and murdered.

I would gladly have thrown away all but one piece, but there was no single small coin in the sum total, and the result would have been the same. Though a good walker at that age (I had made a record of 20 miles not long before and could cover 300 a week without a blister) I accomplished no more than 200 miles in 23 days—traveling only by night and hiding in tombs or ditches all day, often rushing back to my last deserted lair in terror of the advancing sun when no suitable place of concealment hove in sight.

With paddy and plantains snatched precariously here and there I managed to exist during those awful weeks. Chan-Chan is not regarded as a terrestrial paradise by those Europeans whom fate malign has compelled to sojourn there, but Walhalla was never hailed with greater ecstasy by the world-worn pilgrim than was that celestial sink by myself. Toward the 20th day the smell of meat cooking absolutely overcame me one morning, and, at the peril of my life, I emerged into the light of day, and laid felonious hands and teeth on what I believed was a part of a baked cat, in the temporary absence of the legitimate landlord thereof.—London Standard.
